Unlimited Programme for the Continuous Issuance of Debt Instruments

This Base Prospectus has been approved by the Luxembourg Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (the "CSSF"), which is the Luxembourg competent authority for the purpose of Article 5.4 of Directive 2003/71/EC, as amended (the "Prospectus Directive") and relevant implementing legislation in Luxembourg (being article 7(1) of the Law of 10 July 2005 on the Prospectuses for Securities, as amended (the "Luxembourg Prospectus Law")), as a base prospectus issued in compliance with the Prospectus Directive and relevant implementing legislation in Luxembourg for the purpose of giving information with regard to the issue of instruments (the "Instruments") under the programme (the "Programme") during the period of twelve months after the date hereof. By approving this Base Prospectus, the CSSF assumes no responsibility as to the economic and financial soundness of the transaction and the quality and solvency of AB Svensk Exportkredit (publ) (Swedish Export Credit Corporation) ("SEK") in accordance with the provisions of article 7(7) of the Luxembourg Prospectus Law. The CSSF has neither reviewed nor approved the information contained in this Base Prospectus in relation to any issuance of Instruments under this Programme for which a prospectus is not required in accordance with the Prospectus Directive and for which a Pricing Supplement (as defined herein) is used. Application has been made to the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for Instruments issued under this Base Prospectus to be admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange which is a regulated market for the purposes of Directive 2004/39/EC on markets in financial instruments (the "MiFID Directive") and to be listed on the Official List of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, during the period of twelve months after the date hereof. Application has been made for Instruments issued under this Base Prospectus to be admitted during the period of twelve months after the date hereof to listing on the Official List of the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority (the "FCA") and to trading on the Regulated Market of London Stock Exchange plc (the "London Stock Exchange") which is a regulated market for the purposes of the MiFID Directive. The CSSF has been requested to provide the competent authority (for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive) in Ireland, Sweden and the United Kingdom with a certificate of approval attesting that this Base Prospectus has been drawn up in accordance with the Prospectus Directive. The Programme also permits Instruments to be issued on the basis that they will not be admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by any listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system or to be admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation by such other or further listing authorities, stock exchanges and/or quotation systems as may be agreed with SEK. This Base Prospectus constitutes a base prospectus for the purposes of Article 5.4 of the Prospectus Directive and supersedes the base prospectus dated 27 March 2015.

The Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in the preceding sentence have the meanings given to them by Regulation S ("Regulation S") under the Securities Act. Instruments in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to United States persons, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. tax regulations. Terms used in the preceding sentence have the meanings given to them by the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and regulations thereunder ("U.S. Internal Revenue Code").

The Instruments may be offered and sold (A) in bearer and registered form outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S and (B) in registered form to qualified institutional buyers (as defined in Rule 144A ("Rule 144A") under the Securities Act) in reliance on Rule 144A. Prospective purchasers that are qualified institutional buyers ("QIBs") are hereby notified that sellers of the Instruments may be relying on the exemption from the provisions of Section 5 of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A. For a description of these and certain further restrictions on offers, sales and transfers of Instruments, see 'Transfer Restrictions' and 'Plan of Distribution'.

SEK has been assigned a long-term debt rating of Aa1 from Moody's Investors Service Ltd ("Moody's") and AA+ from Standard & Poor's Credit Market Services Europe Limited ("S&P"). Each of Moody's and S&P is established in the European Economic Area ("EEA") and registered under Regulation (EC) No 1060/2009, as amended (the "CRA Regulation") and is, as of the date of this Base Prospectus, included in the list of credit rating agencies published by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") on its website (www.esma.europa.eu/page/list-registered-and-certified-CRAs) in accordance with the CRA Regulation. According to Moody's rating system, the Aa1 rating indicates that the obligations are judged to be of high quality and are subject to very low credit risk. According to S&P rating system, the AA+ rating indicates that the issuer has very strong capacity to meet financial commitments.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes if such rating is not issued by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the CRA Regulation unless (1) the rating is provided by a credit rating agency not established in the EEA but is endorsed by a credit rating agency established in the EEA and registered under the CRA Regulation or (2) the rating is provided by a credit rating agency not established in the EEA which is certified under the CRA Regulation. ESMA is obliged to maintain on its website a list of credit rating agencies registered and certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation. The ESMA website is not incorporated by reference into, nor does it form part of, this Base Prospectus. This list must be updated within five working days of ESMA's option of any decision to withdraw the registration of credit rating agency under the CRA Regulation. Therefore, such a list is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency as there may be delays between certain supervisory measures being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list.

Tranches of Instruments issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Instruments is rated, such rating will not necessarily be the same as the rating(s) described above or the rating(s) assigned to Instruments already issued. Where a Tranche of Instruments is rated, the applicable rating(s) will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Investing in Instruments issued under the Programme involves certain risks. The principal risk factors that may affect the abilities of SEK to fulfil its obligations under the Instruments are discussed under "Risk Factors" below.

NOTICE TO PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS IN THE UNITED STATES

The Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction in the United States of America, and may not be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and in compliance with any applicable state securities laws. Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved the Instruments or determined whether this Base Prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States. The Instruments issued hereunder may be offered (a) to QIBs in reliance on the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A and (b) outside the United States only to non-U.S. persons in "offshore transactions" in accordance with Regulation S.

ENFORCEMENT OF LIABILITIES

SEK is a joint stock company incorporated in Sweden, and all of its directors and executive officers and the experts named herein are residents of countries other than the United States. A substantial portion of the assets of SEK and all or a substantial portion of the assets of such persons are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult or impossible for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon such persons or to realise against them or SEK upon judgments of courts of the United States predicated upon civil liabilities under the Securities Act. SEK has been advised by its Swedish counsel, Advokatfirman Vinge KB, that there is doubt as to the enforceability of claims in Sweden in respect of liabilities predicated solely upon the Securities Act, whether or not such claims are based upon judgments of United States courts.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Base Prospectus and certain documents incorporated by reference herein contain certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 21E of the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and Section 27A of the Securities Act, with respect to certain of the plans and current goals of SEK and expectations relating to SEK's future financial condition and performance. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate only to historical or current facts. Forward-looking statements sometimes use words such as "anticipate", "expect", "estimate", "intend", "should", "believe", or other words of similar meaning. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements regarding financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions; plans, objectives and expectations relating to future operations and services; the impact of regulatory initiatives on SEK's operations; general industry and macroeconomic growth rates and performance relative to them; and future performance.

Forward-looking statements are based on current plans, estimates and projections, and therefore investors should not place undue reliance on them. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and SEK undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement in light of new information or future events, although SEK intends to continue to meet its ongoing disclosure obligations under the U.S. securities laws (such as the obligations to file annual reports on Form 20-F and reports on Form 6-K) and under other applicable laws. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, most of which are difficult to predict and generally beyond SEK's control. Investors are cautioned that a number of important factors could cause actual results or outcomes to differ materially from those expressed in, or implied by, forward-looking statements. These factors include, among others, the following:

- disruptions in the financial markets or economic recessions may have an adverse effect on SEK's ability to repay its debt;
- SEK is exposed to credit risk even in normal economic circumstances. Disruptions in the financial markets or economic recessions may further negatively affect the credit quality of borrowers and cause other risk to counterparties, which may cause credit losses or affect the value of assets;
- reduced access to international capital markets for the financing of SEK's operations, or less favourable financing terms, may have negative impacts on SEK's profitability and its ability to fulfil its obligations;
- SEK may experience negative changes in the value of its assets or liabilities and may incur other losses related to volatile and illiquid market conditions;
- SEK's hedging strategies may not prevent losses;
- fluctuations in foreign currency exchange-rates could harm SEK's business;

- increasing competition may adversely affect SEK's income and business;
- SEK is exposed to significant operational risk;
- changes in law or regulation may adversely affect SEK's business;
- risk related to financial reporting and other deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting and disclosure processes could result in errors, affect operating results and cause investors to lose confidence in our reported results;
- developments in emerging market countries may adversely affect the Group's business;
- negative interest rates may have an impact on SEK's profitability; and
- natural disasters, social and political unrest and other factors beyond SEK's control may disrupt financial markets and economic conditions in markets that SEK relies on.

Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of SEK speak only as at the date they are made. SEK does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect any changes in its expectations with regard thereto or any changes in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based. Any potential investor should, however, consult any additional disclosures that SEK has made or may make in documents that SEK has filed or may file with the SEC.

SUMMARY

Summaries are made up of disclosure requirements known as "Elements". These elements are numbered in Sections A – E (A.1 – E.7).

This summary contains all the Elements required to be included in a summary for this type of securities and issuer. Because some Elements are not required to be addressed, there may be gaps in the numbering sequence of the Elements.

Even though an Element may be required to be inserted in the summary because of the type of securities and issuer, it is possible that no relevant information can be given regarding the Element. In this case a short description of the Element is included in the summary with the mention of "Not Applicable".

Words and expressions defined in the "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" below or elsewhere in this Base Prospectus have the same meanings in this summary.

Section D – Risks
D.2	Risks Specific to SEK:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Disruptions in the financial markets or economic recessions may have an adverse effect on SEK's ability to repay its debt – SEK's financial performance may be adversely affected by macroeconomic factors and similar future disruptions or global recessions may reduce the Group's ability to repay its debt. • SEK is exposed to credit risk even in normal economic circumstances. Disruptions in the financial markets or economic recessions may further negatively affect the credit quality of borrowers and cause other to risk counterparties, which may cause credit losses or affect the value of assets – Risks arising from credit quality of borrowers and counterparties and the recoverability of loans and amounts are inherent in SEK's business and may be exacerbated by the recent macroeconomic conditions. • Reduced access to international capital markets for the financing of SEK's operations, or less favourable financing terms, may have negative impacts on SEK's profitability and its ability to fulfil its obligations. – SEK is dependent on the international capital markets, which have seen reduced appetite and liquidity and increased competition for financing in recent times. Funding may also become more expensive. • SEK may experience negative changes in the value of its assets or liabilities and may incur other losses related to volatile and illiquid market conditions – Macroeconomic conditions could make it difficult to value certain of SEK's assets and liabilities. These valuations could decline due to general market conditions. • SEK's hedging strategies may not prevent losses – The Group's hedging instruments and strategies may prove to be ineffective. There is no guarantee of the ability of SEK to hedge risks in an efficient manner, or at all. • Fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates could harm SEK's business – Changes in currency exchange rates may have an impact on the Group's financial resources and its business. • Increasing competition may adversely affect SEK's income and business – Competition with a large number of institutions offering a wider array of products or better pricing or greater financial resources may have a significant negative impact on the business. • SEK is exposed to significant operational risk – Failure to address operational risks may lead to additional costs, losses or damages to SEK's reputation. • Changes in law or regulation may adversely affect SEK's business – SEK is subject to laws, regulations, administrative actions and policies which may cause financial and operational restraints. Recent implementation of regulations in Sweden may result in write-off or conversion into equity of the Instruments. • Risk related to financial reporting and other deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting and disclosure processes could result in errors, affect operating results and cause investors to lose confidence in SEK's reported results – Failure to report financial and non-financial data accurately and in compliance with external standards, due to deficiencies in the Group's regulatory compliance and/or internal controls, could result in regulatory action, legal liability and damage to SEK's reputation.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Developments in emerging markets countries may adversely affect the Group's business - Increasing exposure to emerging markets can also have an impact on the business of the Group. • Negative interest rates may have an impact on SEK's profitability – Negative interest rates may result in lower net interest income and might negatively affect the value of assets and liabilities. • Natural disasters, social and political unrest and other factors beyond SEK's control may disrupt financial markets and economic conditions in markets that SEK relies on – Natural disasters, social and political unrest and other factors may have an impact on the business of SEK.
D.3²⁵	Risks Specific to the Instruments²⁶:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Regulatory action in the event SEK is failing or likely to fail could materially adversely affect the value of the Instruments - The Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive, as implemented in Sweden, grants the relevant resolution authorities the power, among others, to cancel all or a portion of the principal amount of, or interest on, certain unsecured liabilities of a failing financial institution, and/or to convert certain debt claims into another security, including ordinary shares. The exercise of any resolution powers or any suggestion of such exercise could materially adversely affect the value of any Instruments and could lead to the Holders losing some or all of their investment in the Instruments. • No active trading market for the Instruments – The Instruments may not be actively traded creating a lack of liquidity and resulting in the Instruments trading at a discount to their initial offering price. • Instruments may be redeemed prior to maturity – An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of the Instruments. • Reliance on the procedures of the clearing systems – As SEK will make payments in respect of any Instrument held in a global form through the relevant clearing system, the beneficial holders of such Instruments will need to rely on the procedures of the relevant clearing system in respect of payments and notices relating to the Instruments, as well as exercising of voting rights. • Significant additional risks for Instruments linked to an index, exchange rate, securities or commodities - The Holders (or potential purchasers) of Instruments linked to an underlying (an index, a share, a commodity or a foreign exchange rate) should be aware that the return of principal may/will be affected by the performance of the underlying on a specific (or several) valuation date(s). Movements in the underlying may adversely affect the value of the Instruments and could result in the Holders of the Instruments receiving less than the principal amount of the Instruments at maturity. On each interest payment date linked to the underlying, the Instruments bear interest depending on the performance of the underlying. Therefore the level of the underlying may affect the value of interest payable on each such interest payment date. Additionally, for some of these Instruments, movements in the level of the underlying may result in the Instruments redeeming early. • Subordination to most of SEK's liabilities – SEK's obligations in respect of any Tranche of Instruments specified to be subordinated, will rank below the obligations to senior creditors of SEK (including any

Furthermore, changes in policies may also heighten the interest rate volatility. These factors could result in a decline of the value of a holder's investment. Restricted methods of payment - All payments will be made in accordance with the modes of payment prescribed in the terms and conditions of the relevant Instruments and no other means of payment may be utilised by SEK. Gains on transfer may be subject to income taxes - Under the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law and the PRC Individual Income Tax Law, non-PRC resident enterprise or individual holders of Renminbi-denominated Instruments may become subject to income tax on the gains from the transfer of their holdings of Renminbi-denominated Instruments. Remittance of proceeds - SEK's ability to remit proceeds into or out of the People's Republic of China depends on obtaining the necessary government approvals. This may have an impact on SEK's ability to finance its obligations in relation to Renminbi-denominated Instruments.
D.6²⁷	Risk of loss of value of the investment:	See D.3 for description of the risks specific to the Instruments. In case of Index-Linked Instruments or FX Rate-Linked Instruments, investors may lose the value of their entire investment or part of it, as the case may be. [The Instruments are [Index-Linked/FX Rate-Linked] Investments. RISK FACTORS

Prospective investors should read the entire Base Prospectus together with the relevant Final Terms. Words and expressions defined in the "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" below or elsewhere in this Base Prospectus have the same meanings in this section. Investing in the Instruments involves certain risks. In addition, the purchase of certain Instruments may involve substantial risks and be suitable only for investors who have the knowledge and experience in financial and business matters necessary to enable them to evaluate the risks and the merits of an investment in the Instruments. Prospective investors should make such inquiries as they deem necessary without relying on SEK or any Dealer and should consult with their financial, tax, legal, accounting and other advisers, prior to deciding to make an investment in the Instruments.

Prospective investors should note that the risks relating to SEK, the industry in which it operates and the Instruments summarised in the section of this Base Prospectus headed "Summary" are the risks that SEK believes to be the most relevant to an assessment by a prospective investor of whether to consider an investment in the Instruments. However, as the risks which SEK faces relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future, prospective investors should consider not only the information on the key risks summarised in the section of this Base Prospectus headed "Summary" but also, among other things, the risks and uncertainties described below. Prospective investors should consider, among other things, the following:

Risks Relating To SEK

Set out below are certain risk factors which could affect the business of SEK and its wholly-owned subsidiaries (together, the "Group"). The factors discussed below should not be regarded as a complete and comprehensive statement of all potential risks and uncertainties SEK's businesses face.

Disruptions in the financial markets or economic recessions may have an adverse effect on SEK's ability to repay its debt.

SEK's financial performance, as represented in its statement of financial position and of comprehensive income, may be adversely affected by a number of factors, many of which are outside the Group's control. Disruptions in the international financial markets and the worldwide recession that was witnessed a few years ago had both direct and indirect effects on SEK's profitability, asset quality and its ability to finance its operations. Such future disruptions or global recessions may reduce the Group's ability to repay its debt.

In addition, certain economies around the world are currently in recession and some major countries are experiencing slow growth. The decline in commodity prices are also to a large extent an effect of slower growth in the world, particularly the slowdown in growth taking place in China. This, or any return to recessive conditions in any significant market that has recently emerged from recession, may ultimately impact the industrial development of commercial or industrial entities in countries around the world, which could also affect the business volumes, profitability or asset qualities of the Group. There can be no certainty that measures taken by various governments and monetary authorities will succeed in re-establishing, on a sustainable basis, the conditions necessary for economic growth. Therefore, uncertainty remains as to the future global economic outlook and many countries' economies could experience long periods of slow growth or recurring recessions.

Additionally, even in the absence of slow economic growth or recessions, other economic circumstances — including, but not limited to, volatility in energy prices, contractions in infrastructure spending, fluctuations in market interest or exchange rates, and concerns over the financial health of sovereign governments and their instrumentalities — may have negative consequences for the companies and industries that the Group provides financing to (as well as the financial condition of SEK's financial counterparties) and could, in addition to the other factors cited above, have material adverse effects on the Group's business prospects, financial condition or ability to fulfil its debt obligations.

SEK is exposed to credit risk even in normal economic circumstances. Disruptions in the financial markets or economic recessions may further negatively affect the credit quality of borrowers and cause other to risk counterparties, which may cause credit losses or affect the value of assets.

Risks arising from the credit quality of borrowers and counterparties and the recoverability of loans and amounts due from counterparties in derivative transactions are inherent in SEK's businesses. Consequently, SEK may incur credit losses or delinquency in debt repayments even in normal economic circumstances. Financial market disruptions or economic recessions, may further affect SEK's customers and counterparties, negatively affecting their ability to fulfil their obligations. Market and economic disruptions may affect, among other things, business and consumer spending, bankruptcy rates and asset prices, creating a greater likelihood of impact on an increased number of SEK's customers or counterparties credit demand or that they may become delinquent in their loans or other obligations to SEK. SEK has, in the recent past, been forced to write down the value of some of its assets as a result of disruptions in the financial markets and SEK may be forced to do so again in future periods. Such disruptions may affect the recoverability and value of SEK's assets and may necessitate an increase in SEK's provisions for delinquent and defaulted debt and other provisions, which could in turn have a material adverse effect on SEK's business and/or its ability to repay its debts.

Reduced access to international capital markets for the financing of SEK's operations, or less favourable financing terms, may have negative impacts on SEK's profitability and its ability to fulfil its obligations.

In order to finance its operations, SEK is dependent on the international capital markets, where it competes with other issuers to obtain financing. Although SEK has been able to successfully finance its operations to date, factors outside SEK's control may have material adverse effects on the Group's continued ability to obtain such financing or could cause the cost of such financing to increase. Continuing market turmoil and ongoing recessions in certain major countries have made it very difficult for many issuers to obtain financing, especially for debt instruments with longer maturities. Continued market disruptions may make such borrowing more expensive and difficult to obtain, consequently reducing the Group's profitability and/or its ability to fulfil its obligations. In addition, in the wake of the financial disruptions from 2008 and onwards, there have been proposals of new stricter regulations under the Basel regime with regard to capital adequacy and liquidity coverage. These stricter regulations (many of which have already come into force, while others are expected to become effective in the near future) will mean that, in general, financial institutions will need to have larger own funds in relation to their risk-weighted assets as well as have better matched borrowing in relation to their obligations. Furthermore, tighter rules on which assets can be defined as liquidity reserves as well as stricter requirements on clearing of derivatives are important parts of the regulations. Compliance with such new rules may increase the costs of borrowing for all financial institutions, including SEK.

A key factor affecting the cost and availability of financing is SEK's credit rating. Although the Group currently has favourable credit ratings from various credit rating agencies, those credit ratings depend on many factors, some of which are outside of SEK's control. Credit rating agencies are also increasing their scrutiny of all issuers, particularly financial institutions. Significant factors in determining SEK's credit ratings or that otherwise could affect its ability to raise financing include its ownership structure, asset quality, liquidity profile, short- and long-term financial prospects, risk exposures, capital ratios, and prudential measures, as well as government support and SEK's public policy role. In particular, the public policy role of SEK and corresponding level of government support might receive greater scrutiny from the rating agencies in the near future, as similar institutions within the Nordic region have recently experienced dramatic changes in their government's definition of their public policy role. Notwithstanding regular confirmation from SEK's owner (the Swedish State) of its continued support for SEK's current public policy role, the risk that this view could change in the future cannot be entirely disregarded. Deterioration in any one of these factors or in any combination of these factors may lead rating agencies to downgrade SEK's credit ratings. If the Group were to experience a downgrade in its credit ratings, it would likely become necessary to offer increased interest margins in the capital markets in order to obtain financing, which would likely substantially lower the Group's profit margins and earnings, harm its overall liquidity and negatively affect its business and its ability to fulfil its obligations.

SEK may experience negative changes in the value of its assets or liabilities and may incur other losses related to volatile and illiquid market conditions.

Market volatility, illiquid market conditions and disruptions in the credit markets have during certain periods made it difficult to value certain of SEK's assets and liabilities. For example, SEK is exposed to changes in fair value due to changes in credit spreads on its own debt and due to changes in currency basis spread, which it has not hedged, and such changes in fair value can have a negative impact on SEK's results as reported under IFRS, even though SEK historically has not experienced any material realised losses related to such exposures. Subsequent valuations, in light of factors then prevailing, may result in significant changes in the value of such assets or liabilities in future periods. In addition, at the time of any sale of any such assets, the prices SEK ultimately realises will depend on the demand and liquidity in the market at that time and may be materially lower than such assets' current fair value. Any of these factors could require SEK to negatively change the carrying amount of such assets or liabilities, which may have an adverse effect on the Group's financial condition in future periods.

SEK's hedging strategies may not prevent losses.

SEK uses hedging instruments in an attempt to manage interest rate, currency, credit, basis and other market-related risks. If any of the variety of instruments and strategies the Group uses to hedge its exposure to these various types of risk is not effective, the Group may incur losses, impairing its ability to timely repay or refinance its debts. In addition, there can be no assurance that the Group will continue to be able to hedge risks related to current or future assets or liabilities in accordance with its current policies in an efficient manner or at all. Disruptions such as market crises and economic recessions may put a strain on the availability and effectiveness of hedging instruments or strategies and could have an adverse effect on SEK's financial condition and its ability to fulfil its obligations.

Fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates could harm SEK's business.

As an international lending institution, the Group is subject to some exchange-rate risk. The adequacy of the Group's financial resources may be impacted by changes in currency exchange rates that affect the value in Swedish currency of the Group's foreign-currency obligations. The values of a majority of the items presented in the statement of financial position are subject to fluctuations as a result of changes in the exchange rate between the Swedish krona and other currencies, such as the U.S. dollar/Swedish krona and the euro/Swedish krona exchange rates. Even though the Group carefully monitors and hedges its foreign currency exposures, changes in currency exchange rates adverse to the Group could harm SEK's business, its profitability and its ability to repay its debts. Furthermore, SEK does not hedge its exposure towards currency exchange-rate effects related to unrealised changes in the fair value of its assets and liabilities. Also, any strengthening of the Swedish krona against other currencies may reduce demand for the products sold overseas by SEK's Swedish clients and thus reduce demand for its loans from end-purchasers of such products, or cause such clients to experience increased difficulty in repaying their loans to SEK. Such eventualities could therefore have an adverse effect on SEK's financial condition and its ability to fulfil its obligations. As part of its ordinary business activities, SEK has a material amount of euro denominated assets reported in its statement of financial position as well as euro-denominated debt. Because of uncertainty surrounding the capacity of Eurozone countries' ability to handle the financial problems many of these countries are currently experiencing, the euro may fluctuate against the Swedish krona or any other currency in which SEK has assets or liabilities. SEK might therefore be harmed by such fluctuations in exchange rates. Recent developments in Russia have had a negative impact on SEK's customers, while recent developments in Greece have only had indirect effects through their impact on financial markets.

Increasing competition may adversely affect SEK's income and business.

Competition in the Group's business is based on service, product innovation, product features, price, commission structures, financial strength and name recognition. The Group competes with a large number of other credit institutions, including domestic and foreign banks, as well as with the direct or indirect financing programmes of exporters themselves. Some of these institutions offer a broader array of products or have more competitive pricing or greater financial resources with which to compete than does SEK. Increasing competition may have significant negative effects on the Group's financial performance if the Group is unable to match the products and services of its competitors or has to lower its prices or rates in order to compete for customer business, investments or financing. Such changes could have material adverse effects on SEK's business and its ability to repay its debts.

SEK is exposed to significant operational risk.

Broadly, operational risk can arise from fraud, errors by employees, failure to document transactions properly or to obtain proper internal authorisation, equipment failures, natural disasters, and information security failures or the failure of external systems, such as, for example, those of SEK's suppliers or counterparties. SEK's businesses are dependent on the ability to process complex transactions efficiently and accurately. Failure to address operational risk may lead to additional costs, losses or damages to SEK's reputation which may negatively affect customers' and investors' confidence, and thus SEK's business financial performance and/or ability to repay its debt. If, for example, SEK failed to properly comply with its obligations under financial guarantee contracts or other credit risk reducing arrangements or if the contracts were not properly drafted, this could result in SEK not being able to effectively seek recourse to such guarantees or other arrangements in the event the relevant borrower was unable to repay its debt to SEK.

There is also a risk that SEK's reputation will be damaged if SEK fails to comply with current legislation and best practices or in any other way fails to meet its commitments, including those that are not explicit. Although operational risks can be reduced by properly documented processes, adequate systems, a culture of sensitivity to risk, compliance with regulations, effective corporate governance and other factors supporting internal control, such procedures may not be effective in controlling each single operational risks SEK faces. A significant failure in managing its operational risk could materially and adversely affect SEK's business, financial condition, results of operation and/or ability to repay its debt.

Changes in law or regulation may adversely affect SEK's business.

SEK's business is subject to regulation and regulatory oversight. Any significant regulatory development could affect the manner in which SEK conducts its business and SEK's results of operations.

SEK is subject to financial services laws, regulations, administrative actions and policies in each location in which SEK operates. Financial regulators around the world have responded to the recent crisis by proposing significant changes to the regulatory regime applicable to financial service companies such as SEK's. Changes to the current system of supervision and regulation, or any failure to comply with applicable rules (and particularly those in Sweden) could materially and adversely affect SEK's business, financial condition or results of operation and/or ability to repay its debt.

In December 2010, the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision presented an extensive new package of rules known as Basel III, intended to supersede the previous Basel II standard. As of 1 January 2014, new rules according to Basel III came into force within the European Union by means of the Capital Requirements Regulation ("CRR") and the Capital Requirements Directive ("CRD IV"). The CRR is directly applicable legislation in the European Union. The rules of the CRD IV were implemented into Swedish law by the Credit Institutions and Securities Companies (Special Supervision) Act (2014:968) (Sw. Lag om särskild tillsyn över kreditinstitut och värdepappersbolag) and the Capital Buffers Act (2014:966) (Sw. Lag om kapitalbuffertar). The laws came into effect as of 2 August 2014. In some cases the new rules are subject to transitional arrangements, while in other cases binding rules are still not finalised. The areas in which rules have yet to be finalised include, but are not limited to (i) the minimum requirements on leverage, particularly the minimum leverage ratio of 3.0 per cent. which is intended to apply from 2018 and which may be increased following the evaluation period and (ii) minimum requirements on net stable funding, for which the final rules are yet to be finalised, and which are expected to apply from 2018 as well. As for regulations regarding deduction from own funds related to prudent valuation, the final regulatory technical standard has been approved for adoption on 17 February 2016, and could therefore significantly affect the reduction needed to be made from own funds with regard to prudent valuation of financial instruments, even though SEK already in 2015 has applied the standard in accordance with the final draft of the regulatory technical standard. On numerous topics the regulations will be further specified by means of binding technical standards or amended according to stated intentions. The implications of such changes are, as yet, not fully known. Furthermore, the new regulations have introduced a higher level of discretion for national supervisory authorities to impose further capital requirements and such decisions may adversely affect SEK. Finally, the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision continuously releases amendments or revisions to the Basel III standard. Such initiatives, following implementation within the European Union, may also adversely affect SEK.

In addition, the European Market Infrastructure Regulation ("EMIR") will impose, in some cases, mandatory central clearing of derivatives. The future clearing obligations according to EMIR will also gradually widen, and the regulation will be further supplemented by means of binding technical standards. During 2016, additional part of the regulation will come into effect related to central clearing of certain OTC-derivatives. SEK are defined as an institution in category 2 in this context, and in November 2015 it was decided that institutions in category 2 will be obliged to clear certain OTC-derivatives from December 2016 for such transactions that was entered into from May 2016. This new regulation may affect SEK's business by increasing costs and putting restraints on the way SEK can conduct its business with regard to derivatives, if those derivatives are not cleared through a central clearing house. EMIR may thus have a negative impact on cash flows, posting of collaterals, counterparty exposure and financial reporting.

Furthermore, from March 2017, it will be compulsory for SEK to post variation margin on non-cleared derivatives. This may result in significantly higher amount of negative cash flows than under the present regulatory environment..

The Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive ("BRRD") entered into force in the European Economic Area as of 1 January 2015. The BRRD has been fully implemented in Swedish law through the Swedish Resolution Act 2016 (2015:1016) (Sw. Lag om resolution, the "Resolution Act") as of 1 February 2016. During 2015 part of BRRD was implemented through regulations by Finansinspektionen (the "Swedish FSA") which required the establishment of a contingency borrowing plan by SEK. As from 2016 all the requirements in accordance with BRRD have been implemented through legislation in Sweden. Pursuant to BRRD, SEK is subject to minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities, which is a parallel requirement to CRR. The minimum requirement is to be determined individually for each institution by the national resolution authority, which in Sweden is Riksgäldskontoret (the "Swedish National Debt Office"). SEK has not yet been informed by Swedish National Debt Office which minimum requirement that is applicable to SEK, however it is not probable that the requirements will have a significant impact on minimum requirements on SEK's capitalisation.

The introduction of a debt write-down tool in accordance with BRRD may lead to debt instruments that could be written down or converted into share capital possibly being priced differently and the risk of a write-down being priced in, even though the principle under the regulation is that investors should not be worse off than under an ordinary bankruptcy process. Resolution action should be taken only where necessary in the public interest and any interference with rights of shareholders and creditors which results from resolution action should be compatible with the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union (the Charter). In particular, where creditors within the same class are treated differently in the context of resolution action, such distinctions should be justified in the public interest and proportionate to the risks being addressed and should be neither directly nor indirectly discriminatory on the grounds of nationality. The effect of the introduction of this debt write-down tool on total capital and financing costs, as well as other possible effects, is however, is still difficult to assess.

For risk classification and quantification of credit risk, SEK uses an internal ratings-based ("IRB") approach, the IRB Foundation Approach. The Swedish FSA has previously, however, granted certain exemptions from the IRB approach. For exposures covered by the exemptions the standardised approach is applied rather than the IRB approach. SEK has permanent exemptions for exposures to Swedish central and regional governments, as well as permanent exemptions for some non-material exposures. For exposures to central and regional governments outside Sweden and to multilateral development banks, SEK has an exemption until 31 December 2015. During 2015, the Swedish FSA has revised its views and will not prolong such exemptions. Therefore, SEK has asked the Swedish FSA for permission to apply an IRB approach for those exposures exempted until 31 December 2015 and until such permission has been granted to prolong the time-limited exemptions. Pillar 1 capital requirements for the exposures covered by the application could increase significantly when an IRB approach is applied.

On 22 May 2015, European Banking Authority issued guidelines on the management of interest rate risk arising from non-trading activities, or interest risk in the banking book, which came into force on 1 January 2016. The guidelines require a significant higher degree of sophistication with regard to measuring of interest rate risk than previously that may result in increase in capital requirements related to market risk.

Other pending regulations that could also have a negative impact on SEK include IFRS 9, which will replace IAS 39 with regard to accounting rules for financial instruments. The implementation of IFRS 9 may lead to higher costs for SEK.

Risk related to financial reporting and other deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting and disclosure processes could result in errors, affect operating results and cause investors to lose confidence in SEK's reported results.

SEK's external reporting of financial and non-financial data is reliant on the Group's internal control over financial reporting including the integrity of systems and people. Failure to report data accurately and in compliance with external standards could result in regulatory action, legal liability and damage to the Group's reputation.

Developments in emerging market countries may adversely affect the Group's business.

The Group operates in a number of emerging markets and its exposure to such markets has increased in recent years, as the number and importance of investment and trade links between Sweden and emerging markets has increased. Economic and political developments in emerging markets, including economic crises or political instability, may have material adverse effects on the Group's business prospects, results of operations and/or ability to repay its debts.

Negative interest rates may have an impact on SEK's profitability.

Negative interest rates may result in lower net interest income and might negatively affect the value of assets and liabilities. For example, negative interest rates may render hedges less effective if interest rate is to be paid on the hedge while there is no compensation on the hedged item. Furthermore, increased prepayments on loans and lower spread between rates on assets and liabilities might also have a negative impact on net interest income. Finally, negative interest rates leads to valuation risk due to potential changes in market practice for how to incorporate negative interest rates in the valuation.

Natural disasters, social and political unrest and other factors beyond SEK's control may disrupt financial markets and economic conditions in markets that SEK relies on.

In order to finance its operations, SEK is dependent on the international capital markets, where it competes with other issuers to obtain financing. Although this has not been the case to date, natural disasters, such as the 2011 earthquake and tsunami in Japan, and/or social and political unrest, such as that seen in a number of Eurozone countries in recent years as well as in Ukraine and Russia recently, may have material adverse effects on the Group's continued ability to obtain such financing or could cause the cost of such financing to increase.

Risk Relating To The Instruments

Regulatory action in the event SEK is failing or likely to fail could materially adversely affect the value of the Instruments.

The BRRD provides an EU-wide framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms, their subsidiaries and certain holding companies. The BRRD requires all EEA member states to provide their relevant resolution authorities with a set of tools to intervene sufficiently early and quickly in an unsound or failing institution so as to ensure the continuity of the institution's critical financial and economic functions, while minimizing the impact of an institution's failure on the broader economy and financial system.

As described in "Changes in law or regulation may adversely affect SEK's business" above, in Sweden, the requirements of the BRRD are implemented into national law by the Resolution Act. The Swedish implementation of the BRRD includes the introduction of the bail-in tool from 1 February 2016.

The Resolution Act confers substantial powers on the Swedish resolution authority to enable it to take a range of actions in relation to Swedish credit institutions which are considered to be at risk of failing. The exercise of any of these actions in relation to SEK could materially adversely affect the value of any Instruments.

Under the Resolution Act, substantial powers are granted to the Swedish National Debt Office (below the "Debt Office", Sw. Riksgälden) and in certain circumstances, in consultation with the Swedish FSA. These powers enable the Debt Office to implement resolution measures with respect to a relevant

Swedish entity (such as SEK) in circumstances in which Debt Office considers the failure of the relevant entity has become highly likely and a threat is posed to the public interest. The stabilisation options available to the Debt Office (all of the below except for (v), which is available to the Swedish Government) provide for:

- (i) transfer of all or part of the business of the relevant entity to a private sector entity;
- (ii) transfer of all or part of the business of the relevant entity to a "bridge institution";
- (iii) transfer to an asset management vehicle;
- (iv) the bail-in tool; and
- (v) temporary public ownership (nationalisation) of the relevant entity.

Each of these stabilisation options is achieved through the exercise of one or more "stabilisation powers," which include (i) the power to make share transfer orders pursuant to which all or some of the securities issued by a Swedish entity may be transferred to a commercial purchaser, a bridge bank or the Swedish government; (ii) the resolution instrument power which includes the exercise of the bail-in tool; (iii) the power to transfer all or some of the property, rights and liabilities of a Swedish entity to a commercial purchaser or the Debt Office; and (iv) the third country instrument powers that recognize the effect of similar special resolution action taken under the law of a country outside the European Union ("EU"). A share transfer order can extend to a wide range of securities, including shares and bonds issued by a Swedish entity and warrants for such shares and bonds and could, therefore, apply to the Instruments. In addition, the Resolution Act grants powers to modify contractual arrangements in certain circumstances (which could include a variation of the Conditions, for example, a change in the maturity of the Instruments), and powers to suspend enforcement or termination rights that might be invoked as a result of the exercise of the resolution powers.

In addition, pursuant to Chapter 22 of the Resolution Act, in a resolution situation, financial public support will only be available to the relevant entity (such as SEK) as a last resort after the Debt Office (and the Swedish Government, as applicable) have assessed and exploited, to the maximum extent practicable, the resolution tools, including the bail-in tool.

The exercise of any resolution power or any suggestion of any such exercise could materially adversely affect the value of any Instruments and could lead to Holders losing some or all of the value of their investment in the Instruments.

The resolution powers are designed to be triggered prior to insolvency of SEK, and Holders may not be able to anticipate the exercise of any resolution power (including the bail-in power) by the Debt Office (and with respect to nationalisation, the Swedish Government).

The stabilisation options are intended to be used prior to the point at which any insolvency proceedings with respect to the relevant entity could have been initiated. The purpose of the stabilisation options is to address the situation where all or part of a business of a relevant entity has encountered, or is likely to encounter, financial difficulties, giving rise to wider public interest concerns. Accordingly, the stabilisation options may be exercised if the Debt Office: (i) is satisfied that a relevant entity (such as SEK) is failing, or is likely to fail; (ii) determines that it is not reasonably likely that (ignoring the stabilisation powers) action will be taken by or in respect of the relevant entity that will result in condition (i) above ceasing to be met; (iii) considers that the exercise of the stabilisation powers to be necessary, having regard to certain public interest considerations (such as the stability of the Swedish financial system, public confidence in the Swedish Resolution system and the protection of depositors (also regulated by the Swedish FSA), being some of the special resolution objectives) and (iv) considers that the special resolution objectives would not be met to the same extent by the winding-up of the relevant entity. The use of different stabilisation powers is also subject to further "specific conditions" that vary according to the relevant stabilisation power being used.

Although the Resolution Act provides for the above described conditions to the exercise of any resolution powers, it is uncertain how the Debt Office would assess such conditions in different pre-insolvency scenarios affecting SEK and in deciding whether to exercise a resolution power. The Debt Office is also not required to provide any advance notice to Holders of its decision to exercise any resolution power. Therefore, Holders may not be able to anticipate a potential exercise of any such powers nor the potential effect of any exercise of such powers on SEK, and the Instruments.

Holders may have only very limited rights to challenge the exercise of any resolution powers (including the bail-in power) by the Debt Office and/or seek a suspension of any decision of the relevant Debt Office to exercise its resolution powers (including the bail-in power) or to have that decision reviewed by a judicial or administrative process or otherwise.

The Debt Office may exercise the bail-in tool in respect of SEK and the Instruments, which may result in Holders losing some or all of their investment.

The Debt Office may exercise the bail-in tool to enable it to recapitalize an institution in resolution by allocating losses to its shareholders and unsecured creditors (which include Holders) in a manner that (i) ought to respect the hierarchy of claims in an ordinary insolvency and (ii) is consistent with shareholders and creditors not receiving a less favorable treatment than they would have received in ordinary insolvency proceedings of the relevant entity. Insured deposits and liabilities to the extent they are secured are among the liabilities excluded from the scope of the bail-in tool.

The bail-in tool includes the power to cancel a liability or modify the terms of contracts for the purposes of reducing or deferring the liabilities of the relevant entity under resolution and the power to convert a liability from one form or class to another. The exercise of such powers may result in the cancellation of all, or a portion, of the principal amount of, interest on, or any other amounts payable on, the Instruments and/or the conversion of all or a portion of the principal amount of, interest on, or any other amounts payable on, the Instruments into shares or other securities or other obligations of SEK or another person, including by means of a variation to the terms of the Instruments, in each case, to give effect to the exercise by the Debt Office of such power.

Mandatory write-down and conversion of capital instruments may affect the Holders of CRD IV compliant capital instruments issued under the Programme (if any), which may result in Holders of such Instruments losing some or all of their investment in such Instruments.

In addition, the Resolution Act requires the Debt Office to write-down permanently, or convert into equity, Tier 1 and Tier 2 capital instruments under CRD IV at the point of non-viability of the relevant entity and before or together with the exercise of any stabilisation option (except in the case where the bail-in tool is to be utilised for other liabilities, in which case such instrument would be written down or converted into equity pursuant to the exercise of the bail-in tool, as described above, rather than the mandatory write-down and conversion power applicable only to capital instruments).

For the purposes of the application of such mandatory write-down and conversion power, the point of non-viability is the point at which the Debt Office determines that the relevant entity meets the conditions for resolution (but no resolution action has yet been taken) or that the relevant entity will no longer be viable unless the relevant capital instruments are written-down or converted or the relevant entity requires extraordinary public support without which, the Debt Office determines that, the relevant entity would no longer be viable.

Holders of CRD IV compliant capital instruments issued under the Programme (if any), may be subject to write-down or conversion into equity on application of such powers (without requiring such Holders' consent), which may result in such Holders losing some or all of their investment. The 'no creditor worse off' safeguard would not apply in relation to an application of such powers in circumstances where a stabilisation option is not also used. The exercise of such mandatory write-down and conversion power under the Resolution Act or any suggestion of such exercise could, therefore, materially adversely affect the rights of the Holders of CRD IV compliant capital instruments issued under the Programme (if any), the price or value of their investment in the such instruments and/or the ability of SEK to satisfy its obligations under such instruments.

Where the conditions for intervention under the Resolution Act and the use of the bail-in tool have been met, the Debt Office would be expected to exercise these powers without the further consent of the Holders.

The exercise of any resolution power, including the power to exercise the bail-in tool in respect of SEK and the Instruments or any suggestion of any such exercise could materially adversely affect the rights of the Holders, the price or value of their investment in the Instruments and/or the ability of SEK to satisfy its obligations under the Instruments and could lead to Holders losing some or all of the value of their investment in such Instruments.

In addition, even in circumstances where a claim for compensation is established under the "no creditor worse off" safeguard in accordance with a valuation performed after the resolution action has been taken, it is unlikely that such compensation would be equivalent to the full losses incurred by the Holders in the resolution and there can be no assurance that such holders would recover such compensation promptly.

There is no active trading market for the Instruments.

Instruments issued under the Programme will be new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market (unless in the case of any particular Tranche, such Tranche is to be consolidated with and form a single series with a Tranche of Instruments which is already issued and for which there is such a market). If the Instruments are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their initial offering price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and the financial condition of SEK. Although application has been made for the Instruments issued under the Programme to be admitted to listing on the official list and to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange and to listing on the Official List of the FCA and to trading on the Regulated Market of the London Stock Exchange for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive, there is no assurance that such application will be accepted, that any particular Tranche of Instruments will be so admitted or that an active trading market will develop. Accordingly, there is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market for any particular Tranche of Instruments and, therefore, any prospective purchaser should be prepared to hold the Instruments indefinitely or until the maturity or final redemption of such Instruments.

The Instruments may be redeemed prior to maturity.

Unless in the case of any particular Tranche of Instruments the relevant Final Terms specifies otherwise, in the event that SEK would be obliged to increase the amounts payable in respect of any Instruments due to any withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Sweden and or any political subdivision thereof or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, SEK may redeem all outstanding Instruments in accordance with the Conditions.

In addition, if in the case of any particular Tranche of Instruments the relevant Final Terms specifies that the Instruments are redeemable at SEK's option or obligation in certain other circumstances, SEK may choose or may be obligated to redeem the Instruments at times when prevailing interest rates may be relatively low. In such circumstances an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a comparable security at an effective interest rate as high as that of the relevant Instruments.

Because the Global Instruments are held by or on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, and/or DTC, investors will have to rely on their procedures for transfer, payment and communication with SEK.

Instruments issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Instruments (in Classic Global Instrument form or in New Global Instrument form), Global International Instrument Certificates or Global Instrument Certificates. Such Global Instruments, Global International Instrument Certificates and Global Instrument Certificates will be deposited with (in the case of a Classic Global Instrument or a Global International Instrument Certificate) a common depository, or (in the case of a New Global Instrument) a common safekeeper, for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or (in the case of a Global Instrument Certificate) a custodian for DTC, as the case may be. Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Instrument, Global International Instrument Certificates or Global Instrument Certificates, investors will not be entitled to receive Definitive Instruments, Individual International Instrument Certificates or Individual Instrument Certificates. Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or DTC will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Instruments, Global International Instrument Certificates or Global Instrument Certificates. While the Instruments are represented by one or more Global Instruments, Global International Instrument Certificates or Global Instrument Certificates, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or DTC.

While the Instruments are represented by one or more Global Instruments, Global International Instrument Certificates or Global Instrument Certificates, SEK will discharge its payment obligations under the Instruments by making payments to or to the order of a common depositary or common safekeeper (as applicable) for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or to DTC as a nominee thereof for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Instrument, a Global International Instrument Certificate or Global Instrument Certificate must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or DTC to receive payments under the relevant Instruments. SEK has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Instruments, the Global International Instrument Certificates or the Global Instrument Certificates.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Instruments, the Global International Instrument Certificates or the Global Instrument Certificates will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the relevant Instruments. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or DTC to appoint appropriate proxies. Similarly, holders of beneficial interests in the Global Instruments, the Global International Instrument Certificates or the Global Instrument Certificates will not have a direct right under the Instruments, the Global International Instrument Certificates or the Global Instrument Certificates to take enforcement action against SEK in the event of a default under the relevant Instruments but will have to rely upon their rights under the Deed of Covenant.

An investment in Instruments linked to an index, exchange rate, securities or commodities entails significant risks not associated with a similar investment in fixed or floating rate debt securities.

An investment in Instruments the terms of which provide that the principal, premium, if any, and/or interest payable, is linked to one or more currencies or composite currencies (including, without limitation, exchange rates and swap indices between currencies or composite currencies), commodities, debt or equity securities, basket of securities or securities indices, interest rates or other indices (together, the "indices"), or any combination thereof either directly or inversely (the "indexed Instruments"), entails significant risks that are not associated with investments in a conventional fixed rate or floating rate debt security. Such investments are speculative and only suitable for highly sophisticated investors who have the knowledge and experience in financial and business matters necessary to enable them to evaluate the risks of an investment in the Instruments.

These risks include the possibility that an index or indices may be subject to significant changes, (including that they may even cease to exist during the term of an indexed Instrument) that the resulting interest rate will be less than that payable on a conventional fixed or floating rate debt security issued by SEK at the same time, that the repayment of principal and/or premium, if any, can occur at times other than that expected by the investor (including by reason of redemption by SEK for tax reasons or by the impossibility or increased costs of related hedging), that any investment return is calculated by reference to the value of the underlying reference assets and commodities and hence is inherently unpredictable, that, in certain circumstances, the Instruments may cease to bear interest and that prospective investors, could lose all or a substantial portion of their initial investment in the Instruments. Prospective investors should therefore, among other things, recognise the complexities of utilising the indexed Instruments to hedge against the market risk associated with investing in any securities or indices. These risks depend on a number of interrelated factors, including economic, financial and political events, over which SEK has no control.

Additionally, if the formula used to determine the amount of principal, premium, if any, and/or interest payable and/or securities deliverable with respect to such indexed Instruments contains a multiplier or participation factor, the effect of any change in the applicable index or indices will be magnified. In recent years, values of certain indices have been highly volatile; such volatility in the past is not necessarily indicative, however, of fluctuations that may occur in the future.

Any optional or mandatory early redemption feature of any Instruments might affect their market value. SEK may redeem Instruments when prevailing interest rates are relatively low, prospective investors will therefore generally not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds in a comparable security at an effective interest rate that is as high as the current interest rate on the Instruments.

An investment in equity-linked Instruments may bear similar market risks to a direct equity investment and investors should take advice accordingly.

Furthermore, prospective investors should also appreciate that:

- (i) an investment in the Instruments is not the same as an investment in the underlying equities or commodities, and does not confer any interest in the underlying equities or commodities or rights to vote or receive dividends;
- (ii) they cannot rely, and will not at any time in the future be able to rely, on SEK to provide them with any information relating to, or to keep under review on their behalf, the business, financial condition, prospects, status or affairs of any underlying reference entities or to conduct any investigation or due diligence with respect to the reference entities. Prospective investors should investigate the underlying indices, reference entities and commodities themselves as if they were investing directly in them. In doing so they should understand that the historical reference indices, assets and commodities should not be viewed as being predictive of future results;
- (iii) SEK has not made and is not making any representations whatsoever as to the reference entity or any information contained in any document filed by the reference entity with any exchange or with any regulatory authority or governmental entity;
- (iv) SEK may make loans or otherwise extend credit to, and generally engage in any kind of commercial or investment banking activities or other business including any derivatives business (howsoever defined) with the reference entity or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or any other person or entity having obligations relating to such reference entity and may act with respect to such activities or business without accountability to any investor in the Instruments in the same manner as if the Instruments did not exist, regardless of whether any such action might have an adverse effect (including, without limitation, any action which might constitute or give rise to any breach, event of default, credit event or termination event) on the obligor of such reference entity or any investor in the Instruments; and
- (v) SEK may, whether by virtue of the types of relationships described above or otherwise, at the date hereof this date or at any time be in possession of information in relation to any obligors of the reference entity which is or may be material in the context of the Instruments and which is or may not be known to the general public or to investors in the Instruments. Purchase of the Instruments by any investor does not create any obligation on the part of SEK to disclose to such investor any such relationship or information (whether or not confidential) and SEK shall not be liable to such investor by reason of such non-disclosure.

The secondary market, if any, for indexed Instruments will be affected by a number of factors independent of SEK's creditworthiness, including the complexity and volatility of the index or indices, the fluctuation of exchange rates and the prices of commodities, the method of calculating the principal, premium, if any, and/or interest in respect of indexed Instruments, the time remaining to the maturity of such Instruments, the outstanding amount of such Instruments, any redemption features of such Instruments, the amount of other debt securities linked to such index or indices and the level, direction and volatility of market interest rates generally. Such factors also will affect the market value of indexed Instruments.

In addition, certain Instruments may be designed for specific investment objectives or strategies and, therefore, may have a more limited secondary market and experience more price volatility than conventional debt securities. Prospective investors may not be able to sell such Instruments readily or at prices that will enable them to realise their anticipated yield. Prospective investors should not purchase such Instruments unless they understand and are able to bear the risks that such Instruments may not be readily saleable, that the value of such Instruments will fluctuate over time and that such fluctuations may be significant.

Finally, SEK's credit ratings may not reflect the potential impact of the various risks that could affect the market value of the indexed Instruments. Accordingly, prospective investors should consult their own financial and legal advisers as to the risks an investment in the indexed Instruments may entail and the suitability of the indexed Instruments in light of their particular circumstances.

Taxation

Potential investors of Instruments should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries' tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing Instruments and receiving payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts or delivery of securities under the Instruments and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of those countries.

The Instruments may be subordinated to most of SEK's liabilities.

If in the case of any particular Tranche of Instruments the relevant Drawdown Prospectus or Pricing Supplement specifies that the Instruments are subordinated obligations of SEK, in the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation (Sw. likvidation) or bankruptcy (Sw. konkurs) of SEK, it will be required to pay the holders of senior debt and meet its obligations to all its other creditors (including unsecured creditors but excluding any obligations in respect of subordinated debt ranking equally or subordinated to the Instruments) in full before it can make any payments on the relevant Instruments. If this occurs, SEK may not have enough assets remaining after these payments to pay amounts due under the relevant Instruments.

Minimum Specified Denomination and higher integral multiples

In relation to any issue of Instruments which have a denomination consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus a higher integral multiple of another smaller amount, it is possible that the Instruments may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such Specified Denomination. In such case a Holder who, as a result of trading such amount, holds a principal amount not an integral amount of such Specified Denomination may not receive an Instrument in definitive form corresponding to such holding (should definitive Instruments be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Instruments such that its holding amounts to an integral multiple of such Specified Denomination.

Further Issuances

SEK may, without the consent of the Holders, issue additional Instruments. These additional Instruments, even if they are treated for non-tax purposes as part of the same series as the original Instruments, may be treated as a separate series for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In which case, the additional Instruments may be considered to have been issued with "original issue discount" which may reduce the market value of the original Instruments.

In certain circumstances Instruments may be subject to U.S. withholding tax under FATCA

The United States has passed legislation (the Foreign Account Tax Compliance provisions of the Hiring Incentives to Restore Employment Act of 2010 (commonly referred to as "FATCA")) that may impose U.S. withholding tax on certain payments by non-U.S. financial institutions starting in 2019. While the relevant rules are not entirely clear, it is expected that the Instruments issued by SEK will not be subject to this tax. In addition, Instruments that are classified as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes and that are issued prior to the date that is six months after the date that the final regulations relating to how FATCA could apply to instruments such as the Instruments are published are generally exempt from these rules.

Risks relating to Renminbi-denominated Instruments

Instruments denominated in Renminbi ("Renminbi Instruments") may be issued under the Programme. Renminbi Instruments contain particular risks for potential investors, including:

Renminbi is not freely convertible and there are significant restrictions on the remittance of Renminbi into and out of the PRC which may adversely affect the liquidity of Renminbi Instruments

Renminbi is not freely convertible at present (see "PRC Currency Controls" below). The government of the PRC (the "PRC Government") continues to regulate conversion between Renminbi and foreign currencies, including the Hong Kong dollar.

However, there has been significant reduction in control by the PRC Government in recent years, particularly, over trade transactions involving import and export of goods and services as well as other frequent routine foreign exchange transactions. These transactions are known as current account items.

On the other hand, remittance of Renminbi by foreign investors into the PRC for the settlement of capital account items, such as capital contributions, is generally only permitted upon obtaining specific approvals from, or completing specific registrations or filings with, the relevant authorities on a case-by-case basis and is subject to a strict monitoring system. Regulations in the PRC on the remittance of Renminbi into the PRC for settlement of capital account items are being developed.

On 13 February 2015, the State Foreign Exchange Administration (the "SAFE") promulgated the "Notice on Further Simplifying and Improving the Foreign Exchange Administration Policies of Direct Investment" (關於進一步簡化和改進直接投資外匯管理政策的通知) (the "2015 SAFE Notice"), which became effective on 1 June 2015. Under the 2015 SAFE Notice, the SAFE delegates the authority for approval/registration of foreign currency (including cross-border Renminbi) related matters for foreign direct investment and overseas direct investment to designated foreign exchange banks. On 30 March 2015, SAFE further promulgated the "Circular on Reforming Foreign Exchange Capital Settlement for Foreign Invested Enterprises" (關於改革外商投資企業外匯資本金結匯管理方式的通知) (the "2015 SAFE Circular"), effective from 1 June 2015, which allows foreign-invested enterprises to settle 100 per cent. (subject to future adjustment in the SAFE's discretion) of the foreign currency capital (which has been processed through the SAFE's equity interest confirmation procedure for capital contribution in cash or registered by a bank on the SAFE's system for account-crediting for such capital contribution) into Renminbi according to their actual operational needs. The 2015 SAFE Circular has set forth a negative list with respect to the usage of the capital and the RMB proceeds obtained through the aforementioned settlement procedure.

There is no assurance that the PRC Government will continue to gradually liberalise control over cross-border remittance of Renminbi in the future, that the schemes for Renminbi cross-border utilisation will not be discontinued or that new regulations in the PRC will not be promulgated in the future which have the effect of restricting or eliminating the remittance of Renminbi into or out of the PRC. In the event that funds cannot be repatriated out of the PRC in Renminbi, this may affect the overall availability of Renminbi outside the PRC and the ability of SEK to source Renminbi to finance its obligations under Instruments denominated in Renminbi.

There is only limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC, which may affect the liquidity of the Renminbi Instruments and SEK's ability to source Renminbi outside the PRC to service such Renminbi Instruments

As a result of the restrictions by the PRC Government on cross-border Renminbi fund flows, the availability of Renminbi outside the PRC is limited. While the People's Bank of China ("PBoC") has entered into agreements on the clearing of Renminbi business with financial institutions in a number of financial centres and cities (the "Renminbi Clearing Banks"), including but not limited to Hong Kong and are in the process of establishing Renminbi clearing and settlement mechanisms in several other jurisdictions (the "Settlement Arrangements"), the current size of Renminbi denominated financial assets outside the PRC is limited.

There are restrictions imposed by the PBoC on Renminbi business participating banks in respect of cross-border Renminbi settlement, such as those relating to direct transactions with PRC enterprises. Furthermore, Renminbi business participating banks do not have direct Renminbi liquidity support from the PBoC. The Renminbi Clearing Banks only have access to onshore liquidity support from the PBoC for the purpose of squaring open positions of participating banks for limited types of transactions and are not obliged to square for participating banks any open positions resulting from other foreign exchange transactions or conversion services. In such cases, the participating banks will need to source Renminbi from outside the PRC to square such open positions.

Although it is expected that the offshore Renminbi market will continue to grow in depth and size, its growth is subject to many constraints as a result of PRC laws and regulations on foreign exchange. There is no assurance that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated or the Settlement Arrangements will not be terminated or amended in the future which will have the effect of restricting availability of Renminbi outside the PRC. The limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC may affect the liquidity of the Renminbi Instruments. To the extent SEK is required to source Renminbi in the offshore market to service its Renminbi Instruments, there is no assurance that SEK will be able to source such Renminbi on satisfactory terms, if at all. If Renminbi is not available in certain circumstances as described in the Conditions applicable to Renminbi Instruments, SEK can make payments in U.S. dollars.

Investment in Renminbi Instruments is subject to exchange rate risks and the Issue may make payments of interest and principal in U.S. dollars in certain circumstances

The value of Renminbi against the U.S. dollar and other foreign currencies fluctuates from time to time and is affected by changes in the PRC and international political and economic conditions as well as many other factors. Recently, the PBoC implemented changes to the way it calculates the Renminbi's daily mid-point against the U.S. dollar to take into account market-maker quotes before announcing such daily mid-point. This change, and others that may be implemented, may increase the volatility in the value of the Renminbi against foreign currencies. SEK will make all payments of interest and principal with respect to the Renminbi Instruments in Renminbi unless otherwise specified. As a result, the value of these Renminbi payments in terms of U.S. dollar or other applicable foreign currencies may vary with the changes in the prevailing exchange rates in the marketplace. If the value of Renminbi depreciates against the U.S. dollar or other foreign currencies, the value of the investment made by a holder of the Renminbi Instruments in terms of U.S. dollar or other applicable foreign currency will decline.

In the event that access to Renminbi becomes restricted to the extent that, by reason of Inconvertibility, Non-transferability or Illiquidity (as defined in Condition 14C (Payments – Renminbi Instruments)), SEK is unable, or it is impractical for it, to pay interest or principal in Renminbi, the Conditions allow SEK to make payment in U.S. dollars at the prevailing spot rate of exchange, all as provided in more detail in Condition 14C (Payments – Renminbi Instruments). As a result, the value of these Renminbi payments may vary with the prevailing exchange rates in the marketplace. If the value of Renminbi depreciates against the U.S. dollar or other foreign currencies, the value of a holder's investment in U.S. dollar or other foreign currency terms will decline.

An investment in Renminbi Instruments is subject to interest rate risk

The PRC Government has gradually liberalised its regulation of interest rates in recent years. Further liberalisation may increase interest rate volatility. In addition, the interest rate for Renminbi in markets outside the PRC may significantly deviate from the interest rate for Renminbi in the PRC as a result of foreign exchange controls imposed by PRC law and regulations and prevailing market conditions.

As the Renminbi Instruments may carry a fixed interest rate, the trading price of the Renminbi Instruments will consequently vary with the fluctuations in the Renminbi interest rates. If holders of Renminbi Instruments propose to sell their Renminbi Instruments before their maturity, they may receive an offer that is lower than the amount they have invested.

Payments with respect to the Renminbi Instruments may be made only in the manner designated in the Renminbi Instruments

All payments to investors in respect of the Renminbi Instruments will be made solely (i) for so long as the Renminbi Instruments are represented by Global Instruments held with the common depositary or common safekeeper, as the case may be, for Clearstream, Luxembourg and Euroclear or any alternative clearing system, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong or a financial centre in which a Renminbi Clearing Bank clears and settles Renminbi, if so specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, or (ii) for so long as the Renminbi Instruments are represented by Instruments in definitive form, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong or a financial centre in which a Renminbi Clearing Bank clears and settles Renminbi, if so specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement in accordance with prevailing rules and regulations or (iv) by transfer through the cross-border interbank payment system in accordance with relevant rules and regulations, if so specified in the Pricing Supplement. SEK cannot be required to make payment by any other means (including in any other currency or by transfer to a bank account in the PRC).

Gains on the transfer of the Renminbi Instruments may become subject to income taxes under PRC tax laws

Under the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law, the PRC Individual Income Tax Law and the relevant implementing rules, as amended from time to time, any gain realised on the transfer of Renminbi Instruments by non-PRC resident enterprise or individual Holders may be subject to PRC enterprise income tax ("EIT") or PRC individual income tax ("IIT") if such gain is regarded as income derived from sources within the PRC. The PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law levies EIT at the rate of 20 per cent. of the gains derived by such non-PRC resident enterprise or individual Holder from the transfer of Renminbi Instruments but its implementation rules have reduced the enterprise income tax rate to 10 per cent. The PRC Individual Income Tax Law levies IIT at a rate of 20 per cent. of the gains derived by such non-PRC resident or individual Holder from the transfer of Renminbi Instruments.

However, uncertainty remains as to whether the gain realised from the transfer of Renminbi Instruments by non-PRC resident enterprise or individual Holders would be treated as income derived from sources within the PRC and become subject to the EIT or IIT. This will depend on how the PRC tax authorities interpret, apply or enforce the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law, the PRC Individual Income Tax Law and the relevant implementing rules. According to the arrangement between the PRC and Hong Kong, for avoidance of double taxation, Instrument Holders who are residents of Hong Kong, including enterprise Holders and individual Holders, will not be subject to EIT or IIT on capital gains derived from a sale or exchange of the Renminbi Instruments.

Therefore, if non-PRC enterprise or individual resident Holders are required to pay PRC income tax on gains derived from the transfer of Renminbi Instruments, unless there is an applicable tax treaty between PRC and the jurisdiction in which such non-PRC enterprise or individual resident holders of Renminbi Instruments reside that reduces or exempts the relevant EIT or IIT), the value of their investment in Renminbi Instruments may be materially and adversely affected. Investors should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax risks that may entail as a result of investing in Renminbi Instruments.

Remittance of proceeds in Renminbi into or out of the PRC

In the event that SEK decides to remit some or all of the proceeds into the PRC in Renminbi, its ability to do so will be subject to obtaining all necessary approvals from, and/or registration or filing with, the relevant PRC government authorities. However, there is no assurance that the necessary approvals from, and/or registration or filing with, the relevant PRC government authorities will be obtained at all or, if obtained, they will not be revoked or amended in the future.

There is no assurance that the PRC Government will continue to gradually liberalise the control over cross border Renminbi remittances in the future, that the pilot scheme introduced will not be discontinued or that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated in the future which have the effect of restricting or eliminating the remittance of Renminbi into or outside the PRC. In the event that SEK does remit some or all of the proceeds into the PRC in Renminbi and SEK subsequently is not able to repatriate funds outside the PRC in Renminbi, it will need to source Renminbi outside the PRC to finance its obligations under the Renminbi Instruments, and its ability to do so will be subject to the overall availability of Renminbi outside the PRC.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION RELATING TO PUBLIC OFFERS OF INSTRUMENTS

Public Offers of Instruments in the European Economic Area

Certain Tranches of Instruments with a denomination of less than EUR100,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency) may, subject as provided below, be offered in any Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a "Relevant Member State") in circumstances where there is no exemption from the obligation under the Prospectus Directive to publish a prospectus. Any such offer is referred to in this Base Prospectus as a "Public Offer".

This Base Prospectus has been prepared on a basis that permits Public Offers of Instruments in Luxembourg, Ireland, Sweden and the United Kingdom (each a "Public Offer Jurisdiction"). Any person making or intending to make a Public Offer of Instruments in a Public Offer Jurisdiction on the basis of this Base Prospectus must do so only with SEK's consent – see "Consent given in accordance with Article 3.2 of the Prospectus Directive (Retail Cascades)" below.

If after the date of this Base Prospectus SEK intends to add one or more Relevant Member States to the list of Public Offer Jurisdictions for any purpose, they will prepare a supplement to this Base Prospectus specifying such Relevant Member State(s) and any relevant additional information required by the Prospectus Directive. Such supplement will also set out provisions relating to SEK's consent to the use of this Prospectus in connection with any Public Offer in any such additional Public Offer Jurisdiction.

Save as provided above, neither SEK nor any of the Dealers has authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any Public Offer of Instruments in circumstances in which an obligation arises for SEK or the Dealers to publish or supplement a prospectus for such offer.

Consent given in accordance with Article 3.2 of the Prospectus Directive (Retail Cascades)

As described more fully in the following paragraphs, express consent is given by SEK, as the person responsible for drawing up this Base Prospectus, to the use of this Base Prospectus and SEK accepts responsibility for the content of this Base Prospectus also with respect to subsequent resale or final placement of Instruments by any financial intermediary which was given consent to use this Base Prospectus.

In the context of any Public Offer of Instruments in a Public Offer Jurisdiction, SEK accepts responsibility in that Public Offer Jurisdiction for the content of this Base Prospectus in relation to any person (an "Investor") in that Public Offer Jurisdiction to whom an offer of any Instruments is made by any financial intermediary to whom SEK has given its consent to use this Base Prospectus (an "Authorised Offeror") provided that the offer is made in compliance with all conditions attached to the giving of the consent. Such consent and conditions are described below under "Consent". Neither SEK nor any of the Dealers has any responsibility for any of the actions of any Authorised Offeror, including compliance by an Authorised Offeror with any applicable conduct of business rules or other local regulatory or securities law requirements in that Public Offer Jurisdiction in relation to such Public Offer.

Save as provided below, neither SEK nor any of the Dealers has authorised the making of any Public Offer and SEK has not consented to the use of this Base Prospectus by any other person in connection with any Public Offer of Instruments. Any Public Offer made without the consent of SEK is unauthorised and neither SEK nor any of the Dealers accepts any responsibility or liability for the actions of the persons making any such unauthorised offer.

If, in the context of a Public Offer, an Investor is offered Instruments by a person which is not an Authorised Offeror, the Investor should check with such person whether anyone is responsible for this Base Prospectus for the purposes of the Public Offer and, if so, who that person is. If the Investor is in any doubt about whether it can rely on this Base Prospectus and/or who is responsible for its contents it should take legal advice.

Consent

Subject to the conditions set out below under "Common Conditions to Consent":

- (a) Specific Consent: SEK consents to the use of this Base Prospectus in connection with a Public Offer of Instruments in any Public Offer Jurisdiction by any of the Dealers and by:

- (i) any financial intermediary named as an Initial Authorised Offeror in the applicable Final Terms; and
 - (ii) any financial intermediary appointed after the date of the applicable Final Terms and whose name is published on the website of SEK (www.sek.se) and identified as an Authorised Offeror in respect of the relevant Public Offer; and
- (b) General Consent: if (and only if) Part B of the applicable Final Terms specifies "General Consent" as "Applicable", SEK hereby offers to grant its consent to the use of this Base Prospectus in connection with a Public Offer of Instruments in any Public Offer Jurisdiction by any financial intermediary (i) which is authorised to make such offers under the MiFID Directive and (ii) which accepts such offer by publishing on its website the following statement (with the information in square brackets completed with the relevant information) (the "Acceptance Statement"):

"We, [insert legal name of financial intermediary], refer to the [insert title of relevant Instruments] (the "Instruments") described in the Final Terms dated [insert date] (the "Final Terms") published by AB Svensk Exportkredit (publ) (the "Issuer"). In consideration of the Issuer offering to grant its consent to our use of the Base Prospectus (as defined in the Final Terms) in connection with the offer of the Instruments in [insert name(s) of relevant Public Offer Jurisdiction(s)] (the "Public Offer") in accordance with the Authorised Offeror Terms and subject to the conditions to such consent, each as specified in the Base Prospectus, we hereby accept such offer. Accordingly, we are using the Base Prospectus in connection with the Public Offer in accordance with the consent of the Issuer on the Authorised Offeror Terms and subject to the conditions of such consent."

Any financial intermediary falling within this sub-paragraph (b) who wishes to use this Base Prospectus in connection with a Public Offer is required, for the duration of the relevant Offer Period specified in the applicable Final Terms, to publish a duly completed Acceptance Statement on its website.

The consent referred to above relates to Public Offers occurring within twelve months from the date of this Base Prospectus.

Common conditions to consent

The conditions to the consent of SEK are (in addition to the conditions described in either sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) under "Consent" above) that such consent:

- (a) is only valid in respect of the relevant Tranche of Instruments;
- (b) is only valid during the Offer Period specified in the applicable Final Terms; and
- (c) only extends to the use of this Base Prospectus to make Public Offers of the relevant Tranche of Instruments in such of the Public Offer Jurisdictions as are specified in the applicable Final Terms.

ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN INVESTORS AND AUTHORISED OFFERORS

AN INVESTOR INTENDING TO ACQUIRE OR ACQUIRING ANY INSTRUMENTS IN A PUBLIC OFFER FROM AN AUTHORISED OFFEROR OTHER THAN SEK WILL DO SO, AND OFFERS AND SALES OF SUCH INSTRUMENTS TO AN INVESTOR BY SUCH AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL BE MADE, IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY TERMS AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS IN PLACE BETWEEN SUCH AUTHORISED OFFEROR AND SUCH INVESTOR INCLUDING AS TO PRICE, ALLOCATIONS, EXPENSES AND SETTLEMENT ARRANGEMENTS. SEK WILL NOT BE A PARTY TO ANY SUCH ARRANGEMENTS WITH SUCH INVESTORS (OTHER THAN DEALERS) IN CONNECTION WITH THE PUBLIC OFFER OR SALE OF THE INSTRUMENTS CONCERNED AND, ACCORDINGLY, THIS BASE PROSPECTUS AND ANY FINAL TERMS WILL NOT CONTAIN SUCH INFORMATION. THE INVESTOR MUST LOOK TO THE RELEVANT AUTHORISED OFFEROR AT THE TIME OF SUCH OFFER FOR THE PROVISION OF SUCH INFORMATION AND THE AUTHORISED OFFEROR WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR SUCH INFORMATION. NEITHER SEK NOR ANY OF THE DEALERS (EXCEPT WHERE THE DEALER IS THE RELEVANT AUTHORISED OFFEROR) HAS ANY RESPONSIBILITY OR LIABILITY TO AN INVESTOR IN RESPECT OF SUCH INFORMATION.

IN THE EVENT OF AN OFFER BEING MADE BY A FINANCIAL INTERMEDIARY, SUCH FINANCIAL INTERMEDIARY WILL PROVIDE INFORMATION TO INVESTORS ON THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER AT THE TIME THE OFFER IS MADE.

Public Offers: Issue Price and Offer Price

Instruments to be offered pursuant to a Public Offer will be issued by SEK at the Issue Price specified in the applicable Final Terms. The Issue Price will be determined by SEK in consultation with the relevant Dealer(s) at the time of the relevant Public Offer and will depend, amongst other things, on the interest rate applicable to the Instruments and prevailing market conditions at that time. The offer price of such Instruments will be the Issue Price or such other price as may be agreed between an Investor and the Authorised Offeror making the offer of the Instruments to such Investor. SEK will not be party to arrangements between an Investor and an Authorised Offeror, and the Investor will need to look to the relevant Authorised Offeror to confirm the price at which such Authorised Offeror is offering the Instruments to such Investor.

FORM OF THE INSTRUMENTS

Instruments may be issued:

- (i) in accordance with Regulation S and which are not issued as part of a series which is also offered in accordance with Rule 144A, in either bearer form (the "Bearer Instruments") or, in registered form (the "International Registered Instruments"); or
- (ii) in registered form, which are issued as part of a series which is solely or also offered in accordance with Rule 144A, in restricted and/or unrestricted global or individual instrument certificate form (the "DTC Registered Instruments", and together with the International Registered Instruments, the "Registered Instruments"); or
- (iii) in uncertificated, dematerialised book-entry form in accordance with (a) the Swedish Financial Instruments Accounts Act (Sw. Lag (1998:1479) om kontoföring av finansiella instrument) as amended (the "SFIA Act") (the "ESw Instruments"); or (b) the Finnish Book-Entry System Act (FI: Laki arvo-osuusjärjestelmästä (826/1991)) as amended (the "FBES Act") (the "EFi Instruments"); or (c) Danish Securities Trading Act (Consolidated Act No. 360 of 6 May 2009), as amended (the "Danish Securities Act") (the "VP Instruments" and, together with the EFi Instruments and the ESw Instruments, the "Scandinavian Instruments").

1. Bearer Instruments

Each Tranche of Bearer Instruments will initially be in the form of either a temporary global Instrument (the "Temporary Global Instrument"), without interest coupons, or a permanent global Instrument (the "Permanent Global Instrument"), without interest coupons, in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms. Each Temporary Global Instrument or, as the case may be, Permanent Global Instrument (each a "Global Instrument") which is not intended to be issued in new Global Instrument ("NGI") form (a "Classic Global Instrument" or "CGI"), as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments with a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear Bank SA/NV ("Euroclear") and/or Clearstream Banking, société anonyme ("Clearstream, Luxembourg") and/or any other relevant clearing system. Each Global Instrument which is intended to be issued in NGI form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments with a common safe-keeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

The relevant Final Terms will also specify whether United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (the "TEFRA C Rules") or United States Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (the "TEFRA D Rules") are applicable in relation to the Instruments or, if the Instruments do not have a maturity of more than 365 days or if Instruments are considered in registered form for U.S. federal income tax purposes, that neither the TEFRA C Rules nor the TEFRA D Rules are applicable.

Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for Permanent Global Instrument

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Instruments as being "Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for a Permanent Global Instrument", then the Instruments will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Instrument which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for interests in a Permanent Global Instrument, without interest coupons, not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments (the "Exchange Date") upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. No payments of interest will be made under the Temporary Global Instrument after the Exchange Date unless exchange for interests in the Permanent Global Instrument is improperly withheld or refused. In addition, interest payments in respect of the Instruments cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever any interest in the Temporary Global Instrument is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Instrument, SEK shall procure (in the case of first exchange) the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Permanent Global Instrument to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument or (in the case of any subsequent exchange) an increase in the principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument in accordance with its terms against:

- (i) in the case of a CGI, presentation and (in the case of final exchange) surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument at the Specified Office of the Fiscal Agent; and

- (ii) in the case of partial exchange of an NGI, confirmation from the common service provider that Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have made appropriate entries in their records to reflect the relevant exchange and, in the case of final exchange of an NGI surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument at the Specified Office of the Fiscal Agent; and
- (iii) in either case, receipt by the Fiscal Agent of a certificate or certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership, within seven days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

The principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument shall be equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts specified in the certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership; provided, however, that in no circumstances shall the principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument exceed the initial principal amount of the Temporary Global Instrument.

Payments of principal or interest on the Permanent Global Instrument will be made without any requirement of certification.

Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Instruments as being "Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments" and also specifies that the TEFRA C Rules are applicable or that neither the TEFRA C Rules nor the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, then the Instruments will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Instrument which will be exchangeable, in whole but not in part, for Definitive Instruments not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments.

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Instruments as being "Temporary Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments" and also specifies that the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, then the Instruments will initially be in the form of a Temporary Global Instrument which will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for Definitive Instruments not earlier than 40 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche of the Instruments upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. Interest payments in respect of the Instruments cannot be collected without such certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Whenever the Temporary Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, SEK shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Temporary Global Instrument to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument against the surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument at the Specified Office of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Permanent Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Instruments as being "Permanent Global Instrument exchangeable for Definitive Instruments", then the Instruments will initially be in the form of a Permanent Global Instrument which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for Definitive Instruments:

- (i) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms which shall not be less than 45 days before the date upon which the delivery of such Definitive Instruments is required; or
- (ii) if the relevant Final Terms specify "in the limited circumstances described in the Permanent Global Instrument", then if:
 - (a) Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business; or
 - (b) any of the circumstances described in Condition 12 (Events of Default) occurs; or
- (iii) at any time at the request of the bearer, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Whenever the Permanent Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, SEK shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Instruments represented by the Permanent Global Instrument to the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument against the surrender of the Permanent Global Instrument at the Specified Office of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Instruments

The terms and conditions applicable to any Definitive Instrument will be endorsed on that Instrument and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" below and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which complete those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Instrument in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Instrument were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Overview of Provisions Relating to the Instruments while in Global Form" below.

2. Registered Instruments

International Registered Instruments

Each Tranche of International Registered Instruments will be in the form of either individual international instrument certificates in registered form ("Individual International Instrument Certificates") available for physical delivery only or one or more global international instrument certificates in registered form (the "Global International Instrument Certificates"), in each case as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Each Global International Instrument Certificate will be deposited on or around the relevant issue date with a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and registered in the name of a nominee for such depositary and will be exchangeable for Individual International Instrument Certificates in accordance with its terms.

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Instruments as being "Individual International Instrument Certificates", then the Instruments will at all times be represented by Individual International Instrument Certificates issued to each Holder in respect of its respective holdings.

Global International Instrument Certificate exchangeable for Individual International Instrument Certificates

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Instruments as being "Global International Instrument Certificate exchangeable for Individual International Instrument Certificates", then the Instruments will initially be represented by one or more Global International Instrument Certificates each of which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for the relevant Individual International Instrument Certificates:

- (i) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (ii) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (iii) if the relevant Final Terms specify "in the limited circumstances described in the Global International Instrument Certificate", then:
 - (a) if Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business; and
 - (b) in any case, if any of the circumstances described in Condition 12 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever a Global International Instrument Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual International Instrument Certificates, SEK shall procure that Individual International Instrument Certificates will be issued in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global International Instrument Certificate within five Business Days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global International Instrument Certificate to the then registrar for International Registered Instruments (the "International Registrar") of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual International Instrument Certificates against the surrender of the Global International Instrument Certificate at the specified office of the International Registrar.

Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Instruments scheduled to the Fiscal Agency Agreement and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the International Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Instruments

The terms and conditions applicable to any Individual International Instrument Certificate will be endorsed on the Individual International Instrument Certificate and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" below and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which complete those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Global International Instrument Certificate will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Instrument were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Overview of Provisions Relating to the Instruments while in Global Form" below.

DTC Registered Instruments

Each Tranche of DTC Registered Instruments will be represented by:

- (i) one or more unrestricted global instrument certificates (the "Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificates") in the case of DTC Registered Instruments sold outside the United States to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S, exchangeable for an unrestricted individual instrument certificate (the "Unrestricted Individual Instrument Certificate") in the circumstances described therein; and/or
- (ii) one or more restricted global instrument certificates (the "Restricted Global Instrument Certificates") in the case of DTC Registered Instruments sold to QIBs in reliance on Rule 144A, exchangeable for a restricted individual instrument certificate (the "Restricted Individual Instrument Certificate") in the circumstances described therein, in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

References to "Global Instrument Certificates" shall be construed as a reference to Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificates and/or Restricted Global Instrument Certificates. References to "Individual Instrument Certificates" shall be construed as a reference to Unrestricted Individual Instrument Certificates and/or Restricted Individual Instrument Certificates.

Each Instrument represented by a Global Instrument Certificate will be registered in the name of Cede & Co. as nominee for DTC and the relevant Global Instrument Certificate will be deposited on or about the issue date with the custodian for DTC (the "DTC Custodian").

Global Instrument Certificate exchangeable for Individual Instrument Certificates

If the relevant Final Terms specify the form of Instruments as being "Global Instrument Certificate exchangeable for Individual Instrument Certificates", then the Instruments will initially be represented by one or more Global Instrument Certificates each of which will be exchangeable in whole, but not in part, for the relevant Individual Instrument Certificates:

- (i) on the expiry of such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (ii) at any time, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (iii) if the relevant Final Terms specify "in the limited circumstances described in the Global Instrument Certificate", then:

- (a) in the case of any Global Instrument Certificate held by or on behalf of DTC, if DTC notifies SEK that it is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depositary with respect to the Global Instrument Certificate or DTC ceases to be a "clearing agency" registered under the Exchange Act or if at any time DTC is no longer eligible to act as such, and SEK is unable to locate a qualified successor within 90 days of receiving notice or becoming aware of such ineligibility on the part of DTC;
- (b) in the case of any Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificate, if Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease business; and
- (c) in any case, if any of the circumstances described in Condition 12 (Events of Default) occurs.

Whenever a Global Instrument Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual Instrument Certificates, each person having an interest in a Global Instrument Certificate must provide the then registrar for DTC Registered Instruments (the "DTC Registrar") (through the relevant clearing system) with such information as SEK and the DTC Registrar may require to complete and deliver Individual Instrument Certificates (including the name and address of each person in which the Instruments represented by the Individual Instrument Certificates are to be registered and the principal amount of each such person's holding). In addition, whenever a Restricted Global Instrument Certificate is to be exchanged for Restricted Individual Instrument Certificates, each person having an interest in the Restricted Global Instrument Certificate must provide the DTC Registrar (through the relevant clearing system) with a certificate given by or on behalf of the holder of each beneficial interest in the Restricted Global Instrument Certificate stating either (i) that such holder is not transferring its interest at the time of such exchange or (ii) that the transfer or exchange of such interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Instruments and that the person transferring such interest reasonably believes that the person acquiring such interest is a QIB and is obtaining such beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A. Restricted Individual Instrument Certificates issued in exchange for interests in the Restricted Global Instrument Certificate will bear the legends and be subject to the transfer restrictions set out under "Transfer Restrictions".

Whenever a Global Instrument Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual Instrument Certificates, SEK shall procure that Individual Instrument Certificates will be issued in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Instrument Certificate within five Business Days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global Instrument Certificate to the DTC Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual Instrument Certificates against the surrender of the Global Instrument Certificate at the specified office of the DTC Registrar.

Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Instruments scheduled to the Fiscal Agency Agreement and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the DTC Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

Terms and Conditions applicable to the Instruments

The terms and conditions applicable to any Individual Instrument Certificate will be endorsed on that Individual Instrument Certificate and will consist of the terms and conditions set out under "Terms and Conditions of the Instruments" below and the provisions of the relevant Final Terms which complete those terms and conditions.

The terms and conditions applicable to any Global Instrument Certificate will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Instrument were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Overview of Provisions Relating to the Instruments while in Global Form" below.

Legend concerning United States persons

In the case of any Tranche of Instruments having a maturity of more than 365 days and not considered to be in registered form for U.S. federal income tax purposes (which, for the avoidance of doubt, would not include Scandinavian Instruments), the Instruments in global form, the Instruments in definitive form and any Coupons and Talons appertaining thereto will bear a legend to the following effect:

"Any United States person who holds this obligation will be subject to limitations under the United States income tax laws, including the limitations provided in Sections 165(j) and 1287(a) of the Internal Revenue Code."

The sections referred to in such legend provide that a United States person who holds a Instrument, Coupon or Talon will generally not be allowed to deduct any loss realised on the sale, exchange or redemption of such Instrument, Coupon or Talon and any gain (which might otherwise be characterised as capital gain) recognised on such sale, exchange or redemption will be treated as ordinary income.

3. Scandinavian Instruments

Each Tranche of Scandinavian Instruments will be issued in uncertificated and dematerialised book-entry form in accordance with the SFIA Act, the FBES Act or the Danish Securities Act, as the case may be. No global or definitive Instruments will be issued in respect thereof. The holder of a Scandinavian Instrument will be the person evidenced as such by the register for such Instrument maintained on behalf of SEK by (a) in the case of the ESw Instruments, ESw; or (b) in the case of the EFi Instruments, EFi; or (c) in the case of the VP Instruments, VP. Where a nominee is so evidenced and shall be treated as the holder of the relevant Scandinavian Instrument.

Title to Scandinavian Instruments will pass by transfer between accountholders of ESw, EFi or VP, as the case, may be, perfected in accordance with the relevant legislation (including the SFIA Act the FBES Act and the Danish Securities Act, as the case may be), rules and regulations applicable to and/or issued by ESw, EFi or VP, as the case may be, that are in force and effect from time to time.

Each purchaser of DTC Registered Instruments outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S in the form of one or more Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificates or Unrestricted Individual Instrument Certificates and each subsequent purchaser of such Instruments in resales prior to the expiration of the distribution compliance period, by accepting delivery of this Base Prospectus and the Instruments, will be deemed to have represented, agreed and acknowledged that:

- (i) it is, or at the time Instruments are purchased will be, the beneficial owner of such Instruments and:
 - (a) it is not a U.S. person and it is located outside the United States (within the meaning of Regulation S); and
 - (b) it is not an affiliate of SEK or a person acting on behalf of such an affiliate;
- (ii) it understands that such Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and that, prior to the expiration of the distribution compliance period (as defined in Regulation S), it will not offer, sell, pledge or otherwise transfer such Instruments except:
 - (a) in accordance with Rule 144A to a person that it and any person acting on its behalf reasonably believe is a QIB purchasing for its own account or the account of one or more QIBs;
 - (b) in an offshore transaction in accordance with Rule 903 or Rule 904 of Regulation S; or
 - (c) to SEK, in each case in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States;
- (iii) unless otherwise stated in the relevant Final Terms, (a) it is not and is not deemed for purposes of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code to be and for so long as it holds Instruments (or any interest therein) will not be or be deemed for such purposes to be a Benefit Plan Investor, and (b) if at any time it is an employee benefit plan that is not a Benefit Plan Investor and that is subject to any Similar Law (as defined in United States Employee Benefit Plan Considerations), the purchase and holding of Instruments do not and will not violate any Similar Law; and
- (iv) it understands that SEK, the relevant Registrar, the Dealers and their affiliates, and others will rely upon the truth and accuracy of the foregoing acknowledgements, representations and agreements.

On or prior to the fortieth day after the relevant issue date, Instruments represented by an interest in an Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificate may be transferred to a person who wishes to hold such Instruments in the form of an interest in a Restricted Global Instrument Certificate only upon receipt by the relevant Registrar of a written certification from the transferor (substantially in the form set out in Schedule 6 (Form of Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificate) — Form of Transfer to the Fiscal Agency Agreement) to the effect that such transfer is being made to a person whom the transferor reasonably believes is a QIB, in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A and in accordance with any applicable securities laws of any state of the United States. After such fortieth day, such certification requirements will no longer apply to such transfers, but such transfers will continue to be subject to the transfer restrictions contained in the legend appearing on the face of such Global Instrument Certificate, as described above under "Form of the Instruments".

Instruments represented by an interest in a Restricted Global Instrument Certificate may also be transferred to a person who wishes to hold such Instruments in the form of an interest in an Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificate, but only upon receipt by the relevant Registrar of a written certification from the transferor (substantially in the form set out in Schedule 7 (Form of Restricted Global Instrument Certificate) — Form of Transfer to the Fiscal Agency Agreement) to the effect that such transfer is being made in accordance with Regulation S or Rule 144A (if available) under the Securities Act.

Any interest in an Instrument represented by an Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificate that is transferred to a person who takes delivery in the form of an interest in an Instrument represented by a Restricted Global Instrument Certificate will, upon transfer, cease to be an interest in an Instrument represented by an Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificate and become an interest in an Instrument represented by a Restricted Global Instrument Certificate and, accordingly, will thereafter be subject to all transfer restrictions and other procedures applicable to Instruments represented by a Restricted Global Instrument Certificate.

Each purchaser of DTC Registered Instruments in reliance on Rule 144A in the form of one or more Restricted Global Instrument Certificates or Restricted Individual Instrument Certificates, by accepting delivery of this Base Prospectus, will be deemed to have represented, agreed and acknowledged as follows (terms used in the following paragraphs that are defined in Rule 144A have the respective meanings given to them in Rule 144A):

- (i) the purchaser (a) is a QIB, (b) is acquiring the Instruments for its own account or for the account of one or more QIBs and (c) is aware, and each beneficial owner of such Instruments has been advised that the sale of the Instruments to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A;
- (ii) the purchaser understands that the Instruments are being offered only in a transaction not involving any public offering in the United States within the meaning of the Securities Act and that the Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be reoffered, resold, pledged or otherwise transferred except in accordance with the legend set forth below;
- (iii) unless otherwise stated in the relevant Final Terms, (a) the purchaser is not and is not deemed for purposes of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code to be and for so long as it holds Instruments (or any interest therein) will not be or be deemed for such purposes to be a Benefit Plan Investor, and (b) if at any time the purchaser is an employee benefit plan that is not a Benefit Plan Investor and that is subject to any Similar Law (as defined in United States Employee Benefit Plan Considerations), the purchase and holding of Instruments do not and will not violate any Similar Law;
- (iv) the purchaser understands that the Restricted Global Instrument Certificate and any Restricted Individual Instrument Certificate will bear a legend to the following effect, unless SEK determines otherwise in accordance with applicable law:

THE INSTRUMENTS REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), OR WITH ANY SECURITIES REGULATORY AUTHORITY OF ANY STATE OR OTHER JURISDICTION OF THE UNITED STATES. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE INSTRUMENTS

The following are the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments which, as completed by the relevant Final Terms or supplemented, amended and/or replaced by the relevant Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus, will be endorsed on each Instrument in definitive form issued under the Programme. In the case of any Tranche of Instruments which are being (a) offered to the public in a Member State (other than pursuant to one or more of the exemptions set out in Article 3.2 of the Prospectus Directive) or (b) admitted to trading on a regulated market in a Member State, the relevant Final Terms shall not amend or replace any information in this Base Prospectus. To the extent permitted by applicable law and/or regulation, the relevant Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus in respect of any Tranche of Instruments may supplement, amend or replace any information in this Base Prospectus. The terms and conditions applicable to any Instrument in global form will differ from those terms and conditions which would apply to the Instrument were it in definitive form to the extent described under "Overview of Provisions Relating to the Instruments while in Global Form" on page 125 below:

The Instruments (except, in certain circumstances, the Scandinavian Instruments) are issued in accordance with a fiscal agency agreement (the "Fiscal Agency Agreement", which expression shall include any amendments or supplements thereto) dated 1 April 2016 and made between AB Svensk Exportkredit (publ) ("Swedish Export Credit Corporation" or "SEK"), Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch in its capacity as fiscal agent (the "Fiscal Agent", which expression shall include any successor to Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch in its capacity as such), Deutsche International Corporate Services (Ireland) Limited in its capacity as Irish paying agent (the "Irish Paying Agent", which expression shall include any successor to Deutsche International Corporate Services (Ireland) Limited in its capacity as such), Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. in its capacities as registrar (the "International Registrar", which expression shall include any successor to Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. in its capacity as such) and as paying agent (the "Paying Agents", which expression shall include the Fiscal Agent, the Irish Paying Agent, the DTC Paying Agent (as defined below) and any substitute or additional paying agents appointed in accordance with the Fiscal Agency Agreement), Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas in its capacities as registrar for DTC Registered Instruments (the "DTC Registrar", which expression shall include any of its successors in their capacity as such), as paying agent in connection with the DTC Registered Instruments (the "DTC Paying Agent", which expression shall include any of its successors in their capacity as such) and as transfer agent in connection with the DTC Registered Instruments (the "DTC Transfer Agent", which expression shall include any of their successors in their capacity as such). The Instruments have the benefit of a deed of covenant (as amended, supplemented or replaced, the "Deed of Covenant") dated 4 April 2014 and executed and delivered by SEK in relation to the Instruments. Copies of the Fiscal Agency Agreement and the Deed of Covenant are available for inspection at the specified office of each of the Paying Agents and the Registrars. All persons from time to time entitled to the benefit of SEK's obligations under any Instruments shall be deemed to have notice of and to be bound by all of the provisions of the Deed of Covenant and all (or certain, in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments) of Fiscal Agency Agreement insofar as they relate to the relevant Instruments. The only provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement applicable to the Scandinavian Instruments are those in Schedule 10 (Provisions for Meetings of Holders of Instruments) of the Fiscal Agency Agreement.

The Instruments are issued in series (each a "Series"), and each Series may comprise one or more tranches (each a "Tranche") of Instruments. Each Tranche, for which a prospectus is required in connection with such issue in accordance with Directive 2003/71/EC, as amended (the "Prospectus Directive"), is the subject of final terms (the "Final Terms") or a drawdown prospectus (the "Drawdown Prospectus") which completes (in the case of Final Terms) or supplements, amends and/or replaces (in the case of Drawdown Prospectuses) these terms and conditions (the "Conditions"). Each Tranche, for which no prospectus is required in connection with such issue in accordance with the Prospectus Directive, is the subject of a pricing supplement (the "Pricing Supplement") which supplements, amends and/or replaces the Conditions. The terms and conditions applicable to any particular Tranche of Instruments are these Conditions, as completed by the relevant Final Terms or as supplemented, amended and/or replaced by the relevant Drawdown Prospectus or Pricing Supplement, as the case may be. In the event of any inconsistency between the Conditions and the relevant Final Terms, Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus, the relevant Final Terms, Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus shall prevail, as the case may be.

SEK covenants and agrees that it will not acquire any beneficial interest, and will cause its affiliates not to acquire any beneficial interest, in any Registered Instrument represented by any Instrument Certificate bearing the Private Placement Legend unless it notifies the relevant Registrar of such acquisition. The relevant Registrar and all Holders of Instruments shall be entitled to rely without further investigation on any such notification (or lack thereof). For the avoidance of doubt, such Private Placement Legend shall not apply to the Scandinavian Instruments.

The rights of a Holder of Dated Subordinated Instruments shall, in the event of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation (likvidation) or bankruptcy (konkurs) of SEK, be subordinated in right of payment to the claims of unsubordinated creditors of SEK but shall rank pari passu with all other subordinated indebtedness having a specified maturity and shall rank in priority to all undated subordinated indebtedness of SEK.

4C Status – Undated Subordinated Instruments

- 4C.1 This Condition 4C (Status – Undated Subordinated Instruments) is applicable only in relation to Instruments specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus as undated subordinated Instruments ("Undated Subordinated Instruments") which, for the avoidance of doubt, will include Tier I (Primärkapital) and upper and lower Tier II (Supplementärt kapital) Instruments (as defined by the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority, (Finansinspektionen)).

- 4C.2 Undated Subordinated Instruments will rank as set out in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus.

5. Negative Pledge

SEK undertakes that neither it nor any subsidiary of it will, so long as any of the Unsubordinated Instruments remains outstanding, secure or allow to be secured any indebtedness for money borrowed now or hereafter existing by any mortgage, lien (other than liens arising by operation of law), pledge or other charge upon any of the present or future revenues or assets of SEK or any such subsidiary (except for any mortgage, lien, pledge or other charge on property purchased by SEK or any such subsidiary as security for all or part of the purchase price thereof) without at the same time according to the Unsubordinated Instruments the same or equivalent security therefor.

6. Fixed Rate Instrument Provisions

- 6.1 Application: This Condition 6 (Fixed Rate Instrument Provisions) and Condition 16 (Calculation Agent) are applicable to the Instruments only if the Fixed Rate Instrument Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.
- 6.2 Accrual of interest: The Instruments bear interest from (and including or, in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments, but excluding) the Interest Commencement Date at the Interest Rate payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date, subject as provided in Condition 14 (Payments). Each Instrument will cease to bear interest from (but excluding, or in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments, and including) the due date for final redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of the Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case it will continue to bear interest in accordance with this Condition 6 (Fixed Rate Instrument Provisions) (both before and after judgment) until whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Instrument up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Holder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Fiscal Agent has notified the Holders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Instruments up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).
- 6.3 Fixed Coupon Amount: The amount of interest payable in respect of each Instrument for any Interest Period shall be the relevant Fixed Coupon Amount and, if the Instruments are in more than one Specified Denomination, shall be the relevant Fixed Coupon Amount in respect of the relevant Specified Denomination.
- 6.4 Calculation of interest amount: The amount of interest payable in respect of each Instrument for any period for which a Fixed Coupon Amount is not specified shall be calculated by applying the Interest Rate to the Calculation Amount, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of such Instrument divided by the Calculation Amount. For this purpose a "sub-unit" means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.

7. Floating Rate Instrument Provisions

- 7.1 Application: This Condition 7 (Floating Rate Instrument Provisions) and Condition 16 (Calculation Agent) are applicable to the Instruments only if the Floating Rate Instrument Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.
- 7.2 Accrual of interest: The Instruments bear interest from (and including or, in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments, but excluding) the Interest Commencement Date at the Interest Rate payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date, subject as provided in Condition 14 (Payments). Each Instrument will cease to bear interest from (but excluding, or in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments, and including) the due date for final redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of the Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case it will continue to bear interest in accordance with this Condition 7 (Floating Rate Instrument Provisions) (both before and after judgment) until whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Instrument up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Holder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Fiscal Agent has notified the Holders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Instruments up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).
- 7.3 Screen Rate Determination: If Screen Rate Determination is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Interest Rate(s) is/are to be determined, the Interest Rate applicable to the Instruments for each Interest Period will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the following basis:
- (i) if the Reference Rate is a composite quotation or customarily supplied by one entity, the Calculation Agent will determine the Reference Rate which appears on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date;

- (ii) in any other case, the Calculation Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the Reference Rates which appear on the Relevant Screen Page as of the Relevant Time on the relevant Interest Determination Date;
- (iii) if, in the case of (i) above, such rate does not appear on that page or, in the case of (ii) above, fewer than two such rates appear on that page or if, in either case, the Relevant Screen Page is unavailable, the Calculation Agent will:
 - (a) request the relevant Business Centre office of each of the Reference Banks to provide a quotation of the Reference Rate at approximately the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date to prime banks in the relevant Business Centre interbank market in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in that market at that time; and
 - (b) determine the arithmetic mean of such quotations; and
- (iv) if fewer than two such quotations are provided as requested, the Calculation Agent will determine the arithmetic mean of the rates (being the nearest to the Reference Rate, as determined by the Calculation Agent) quoted by major banks in the Principal Financial Centre of the Specified Currency, selected by the Calculation Agent, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (local time in the Principal Financial Centre of the Specified Currency) on the first day of the relevant Interest Period for loans in the Specified Currency to leading European banks for a period equal to the relevant Interest Period and in an amount that is representative for a single transaction in that market at that time, and the Interest Rate for such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Margin and the rate or (as the case may be) the arithmetic mean so determined; provided, however, that if the Calculation Agent is unable to determine a rate or (as the case may be) an arithmetic mean in accordance with the above provisions in relation to any Interest Period, the Interest Rate applicable to the Instruments during such Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the rate or (as the case may be) the arithmetic mean last determined in relation to the Instruments in respect of a preceding Interest Period.

7.4 ISDA Determination: If ISDA Determination is specified in the relevant Final Terms as the manner in which the Interest Rate(s) is/are to be determined, the Interest Rate applicable to the Instruments for each Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the relevant ISDA Rate where "ISDA Rate" in relation to any Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Calculation Agent were acting as Calculation Agent for that interest rate swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:

- (i) the Floating Rate Option (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is as specified in the relevant Final Terms;
- (ii) the Designated Maturity (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is a period specified in the relevant Final Terms; and
- (iii) the relevant Reset Date (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) is either (A) if the relevant Floating Rate Option is based on the London interbank offered rate (LIBOR) for a currency, the first day of that Interest Period or (B) in any other case, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

7.5 Maximum or Minimum Interest Rate: If any Maximum Interest Rate or Minimum Interest Rate is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Interest Rate shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified. Unless otherwise specified in the relevant Final Terms or Pricing Supplement, as applicable, the Minimum Interest Rate shall be deemed to be zero.

7.6 Calculation of Interest Amount: The Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time at which the Interest Rate is to be determined in relation to each Interest Period, calculate the Interest Amount payable in respect of each Instrument for such Interest Period. The Interest

Amount will be calculated by applying the Interest Rate for such Interest Period to the Calculation Amount and multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of the relevant Instrument divided by the Calculation Amount. For this purpose a "sub-unit" means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.

- 7.7 Publication: The Calculation Agent will cause each Interest Rate and Interest Amount determined by it, together with the relevant Interest Payment Date, any other amount(s) required to be determined by it together with any relevant payment date(s) and the occurrence of any event it is required to notify in accordance with these Conditions and/or the relevant Final Terms, to be notified to the relevant Paying Agents, SEK, the Issuing Agent (in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments) and each competent authority, listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Instruments have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation as soon as practicable after such determination or such occurrence and in any event, no later than two Business Days after such calculation or determination. Notice thereof shall also promptly be given to the Holders of Registered Instruments and the Holders of the Scandinavian Instruments by the Fiscal Agent. The Calculation Agent will be entitled to recalculate any Interest Amount (on the basis of the foregoing provisions) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the relevant Interest Period. If the Calculation Amount is less than the minimum Specified Denomination, the Calculation Agent shall not be obliged to publish each Interest Amount, but instead may publish only the Calculation Amount and the Interest Amount in respect of an Instrument having the minimum Specified Denomination.

8. Index-Linked Instrument Provisions

This Condition 8 (Index-Linked Instrument Provisions) and Condition 16 (Calculation Agent) are applicable only if the Index-Linked Instrument Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.

- 8.1 Interest Rate: The Interest Rate payable from time to time in respect of the Instruments will be determined by the Calculation Agent on the following basis:
- (i) if on the Interest Determination Date immediately preceding the relevant Interest Payment Date, the Index Level is greater than or equal to the Determination Level, then the Interest Rate applicable for the relevant Interest Period shall be the Higher Index-Linked Interest Rate; and
 - (ii) if on the Interest Determination Date immediately preceding the relevant Interest Payment Date, the Index Level is lower than the Determination Level, then the Interest Rate applicable for the relevant Interest Period shall be the Lower Index-Linked Interest Rate.
- 8.2 Accrual of interest: The Instruments bear interest from (and including or, in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments, but excluding) the Interest Commencement Date at the Interest Rate payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date, subject as provided in Condition 14 (Payments). Each Instrument will cease to bear interest from (but excluding, or in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments, and including) the due date for final redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment of the Redemption Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case it will continue to bear interest in accordance with this Condition 8 (Index-Linked Instrument Provisions) (both before and after judgment) until whichever is the earlier of (i) the day on which all sums due in respect of such Instrument up to that day are received by or on behalf of the relevant Holder and (ii) the day which is seven days after the Fiscal Agent has notified the Holders that it has received all sums due in respect of the Instruments up to such seventh day (except to the extent that there is any subsequent default in payment).
- 8.3 Interest Determination Date

An Interest Determination Date in connection with Index-Linked Instruments shall in no event occur earlier than fifteen (15) or later than three Scheduled Trading Days prior to the Payment Date relating to the relevant Interest Payment Date, subject to Condition 8.8 (Consequences of Disrupted Days).

8.4 Maximum or Minimum Interest Rate: If any Maximum Interest Rate or Minimum Interest Rate is specified in the relevant Final Terms, then the Interest Rate shall in no event be greater than the maximum or be less than the minimum so specified.

8.5 Calculation of Interest Amount: The Calculation Agent will, as soon as practicable after the time at which the Interest Rate is to be determined in relation to each Interest Period, calculate the Interest Amount payable in respect of each Instrument for such Interest Period. The Interest Amount will be calculated by applying the Interest Rate for such Interest Period to the Calculation Amount and multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of the relevant Instrument divided by the Calculation Amount. For this purpose a "sub-unit" means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.

8.6 Changes in circumstances affecting the Index

- (i) Correction of the Index Level: In the event that the Index Level is subsequently corrected and the correction is published on the original date of publication (provided that the publication shall be made no later than three Scheduled Trading Days prior to the Payment Date relating to the relevant Interest Payment Date and/or the Maturity Date), then with effect from (and including) the date of publication of such correction, the Calculation Agent shall use such corrected level instead of the level that was originally published in making the relevant calculation or determination under this Condition 8 (Index-Linked Instrument Provisions) and the definition of "Index Level" in Condition 8.7 (Definitions) shall be deemed to refer to such corrected level.
- (ii) Discontinuation of the Index/Alteration of Method of Calculation: If subsequent to the Issue Date and prior to the Maturity Date, the Index is materially modified ("Index Modification") or permanently cancelled ("Index Cancellation") (each an "Index Adjustment Event"), then the Calculation Agent, (a) if it determines that such Index Adjustment Event has a material effect on the Instruments and if it considers to be practicable and commercially reasonable, shall determine the Index Level using the same, or substantially the same methodology for determining the Index Level as was in effect immediately prior to the Index Adjustment Event, or (b) may require SEK to redeem the Instruments early, in whole but not in part, at the Market Value Redemption Amount by giving notice to the Holders in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices).

8.7 Definitions:

For the purposes of this Condition 8 (Index-Linked Instrument Provisions), Condition 11.1(i) (Index-Linked Redemption Amount), Condition 11.6 (Mandatory Early Redemption) and Condition 11.7 (Redemption for Index Adjustment Event), the following expressions have the following meaning:

"Valuation Time" means the Scheduled Closing Time of the relevant Exchange(s). If an Exchange closes prior to its Scheduled Closing Time, then the Valuation Time shall be such actual closing time.

8.8 Consequences of Disrupted Days

If any Interest Determination Date and/or FRA Index Redemption Determination Date (as defined in Condition 11.1(i) (Index-Linked Redemption Amount)) and/or Trigger Determination Date is a Disrupted Day, then the relevant Interest Determination Date and/or FRA Index Redemption Determination Date and/or Trigger Determination Date shall be the first succeeding Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day, provided that, if there is no Scheduled Trading Day that is not a Disrupted Day on or prior to the day that is three Scheduled Trading Days prior to the Payment Date relating to the relevant Interest Payment Date and/or the Maturity Date, then (i) such day shall be deemed to be the Interest Determination Date and/or the FRA Index Redemption Determination Date and/or Trigger Determination Date, notwithstanding the fact that such day is a Disrupted Day, and (ii) the Calculation Agent shall determine the Index Level as of the Valuation Time on such day in its sole and absolute discretion.

8.9 Publication: The Calculation Agent will cause each Interest Rate and Interest Amount determined by it, together with the relevant Interest Payment Date, any other amount(s) required to be determined by it together with any relevant payment date(s) and the occurrence of any event it is required to notify in accordance with these Conditions and/or the relevant Final Terms, to be notified to the relevant Paying Agents, SEK, the Issuing Agent (in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments) and each competent authority, listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system (if any) by which the Instruments have then been admitted to listing, trading and/or quotation as soon as practicable after such determination or such occurrence and in any event, no later than two Business Days after such calculation or determination. Notice thereof shall also promptly be given to the Holders of Registered Instruments and the Holders of the Scandinavian Instruments by the Fiscal Agent. The Calculation Agent will be entitled to recalculate any Interest Amount (on the basis of the foregoing provisions) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the relevant Interest Period. If the Calculation Amount is less than the minimum Specified Denomination, the Calculation Agent shall not be obliged to publish each Interest Amount, but instead may publish only the Calculation Amount and the Interest Amount in respect of an Instrument having the minimum Specified Denomination.

9. Zero Coupon Instrument Provisions

9.1 Application: This Condition 9 (Zero Coupon Instrument Provisions) and Condition 16 (Calculation Agent) are applicable to the Instruments only if the Zero Coupon Instrument Provisions are specified in the relevant Final Terms as being applicable.

9.2 Late payment on Zero Coupon Instruments: If the Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Instrument is improperly withheld or refused, the Redemption Amount shall thereafter be an amount equal to the sum of:

- (i) the Reference Price; and

- (i) during the Fixed Rate Period (if any), each Instrument shall bear interest at the Fixed Interest Rate, and such interest shall be payable on each Interest Payment Date occurring in relation to such Fixed Rate Period in the amount(s) specified as the Fixed Interest Amount(s), each as is specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus; and

The Indexed Interest Amount payable in respect of each Instrument for such Interest Period shall be calculated by applying the Indexed Interest Formula (subject as provided above) to the Calculation Amount, multiplying the product by the relevant Day Count Fraction rounding the resulting figure to the nearest sub-unit of the Specified Currency (half a sub-unit being rounded upwards) and multiplying such rounded figure by a fraction equal to the Specified Denomination of the relevant Instrument divided by the Calculation Amount. For this purpose a "sub-unit" means, in the case of any currency other than euro, the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the country of such currency and, in the case of euro, means one cent.

- (i) SEK shall default for more than 15 days in any payment in respect of principal or interest which is due and payable in respect of any of the Dated Subordinated Instruments of the relevant Series; or
- (ii) a court or agency or supervisory authority in the Kingdom of Sweden (having jurisdiction in respect of the same) shall have instituted a proceeding or entered a decree or order for the appointment of a receiver or liquidator in any insolvency, rehabilitation, readjustment of debt, marshalling of assets and liabilities, or similar arrangements involving SEK or all or substantially all of its property and such proceeding, decree or order shall not have been vacated or shall have remained in force undischarged or unstayed for a period of 60 days; or
- (iii) SEK shall file a petition to take advantage of any insolvency statute or voluntarily suspends payment of its obligations, then, in any such event, the Holder of Dated Subordinated Instruments may at its discretion, by written notice to SEK, declare that its Dated Subordinated Instruments are and shall, subject to the provisions set out below in this Condition 12B.2, become immediately (or, in the case of the Scandinavian Instruments, such later date on which the relevant Scandinavian Instruments have been transferred to the account designated by the Issuing Agent and blocked for further transfer by such Issuing Agent) (such date shall be the first date of a closed period for the purposes of Condition 3.5 (Closed periods)), due and payable each at its Early Termination Amount together (in the case of interest-bearing Dated Subordinated Instruments) with interest accrued to the date of payment.

If Dated Subordinated Instruments become due and payable under this Condition 12B.2, the Holder may institute such steps, including the obtaining of a judgment against SEK for any amount due in respect of its Dated Subordinated Instruments, as it thinks desirable with a view to having SEK declared bankrupt (konkurs) or to having SEK apply for liquidation (likvidation) but not otherwise and, consequently, if Dated Subordinated Instruments become due and payable under this Condition 12B.2 SEK shall, except with the prior consent of the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority, only be required to make such payment after it has been declared bankrupt (konkurs) or put into liquidation (likvidation).

A Holder of Dated Subordinated Instruments may at its discretion institute such proceedings against SEK as it may think fit to enforce any obligation, condition, undertaking or provision binding on SEK under the Dated Subordinated Instruments (other than, without prejudice to what is set out above, any obligation for the payment of any principal or interest in respect of the Dated Subordinated Instruments) provided that SEK shall not by virtue of the institution of any such proceedings be obliged to pay any sum or sums sooner than the same would otherwise have been payable by it.

No remedy against SEK, other than as provided in this Condition 12B.2 or proving or claiming in the bankruptcy (konkurs) or liquidation (likvidation) of SEK in the Kingdom of Sweden or elsewhere, shall be available to any Holder of Dated Subordinated Instruments whether for the recovery of amounts owing in respect of the Dated Subordinated Instruments or in respect of any breach by SEK of any of its obligations or undertakings under the Dated Subordinated Instruments.

13. Taxation

13.1 Gross-up: All payments of principal and interest in respect of the Instruments will be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of any present or future taxes or duties of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Sweden or any authority in the Kingdom of Sweden having power to tax, unless such withholding or deduction is required by law. In such event, SEK will pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the Holder of any Instrument or Coupon, as the case may be, after such withholding or deduction shall equal the respective amounts of principal and interest which would have been receivable in respect of such Instrument or Coupon, as the case may be, in the absence of such withholding or deduction; except that no such additional amounts shall be payable in respect of any Instrument or Coupon presented for payment (a) by or on behalf of a Holder of any Instrument or Coupon where such Holder is liable to such taxes or duties in respect of such Instrument or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with the Kingdom of Sweden other than the mere holding of such Instrument or Coupon, or (b) where the Holder is able to avoid such withholding or deduction by making a declaration of non-residence or other similar claim for exemption to the relevant tax authority; or (c) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that the Holder would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting the same for payment on such thirtieth day. As used herein the "Relevant Date" means whichever is the later of (i) the date on which such payment first becomes due and (ii) if the full amount of the moneys payable has not been received by the Fiscal Agent or, as the case may be, the relevant Registrar on or prior to such due date, the date on which notice shall have been given to the Holders in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices) that the full amount of such moneys has been so received.

References to principal and/or interest in respect of the Instruments shall be deemed also to refer to any additional amounts which may be payable under this Condition.

- 13.2 Taxing jurisdiction: If SEK becomes subject at any time to any taxing jurisdiction other than the Kingdom of Sweden, references in these Conditions to the Kingdom of Sweden shall be construed as references to the Kingdom of Sweden and/or such other jurisdiction.

14. Payments

Conditions 14A (Payments – Bearer Instruments) and 14B (Payments – Registered Instruments) shall be applicable as indicated therein.

14A Payments – Bearer Instruments

- 14A.1 This Condition 14A (Payments – Bearer Instruments) is applicable in relation to Instruments specified in the relevant Final Terms as being in bearer form.

- 14A.2 Principal: Payments of principal shall be made only against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of Instruments at the Specified Office of any relevant Paying Agent outside the United States by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due on, or by transfer to an account denominated in that currency (or, if that currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) and maintained by the payee with, a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of that currency (in the case of a sterling cheque, a town clearing branch of a bank in London).

- 14A.3 Interest: Payments of interest shall, subject to Condition 14A.9 (Payments other than in respect of matured Coupons) below, be made only against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of the appropriate Coupons at the Specified Office of any relevant Paying Agent outside the United States in the manner described in Condition 14A.2 (Principal) above.

- 14A.4 Payments in New York City: Payments of principal or interest may be made at the Specified Office of a Paying Agent in New York City if (i) SEK has appointed Paying Agent(s) outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agent(s) will be able to make payment of the full amount of the interest on the Instruments in the currency in which the payment is due when due, (ii) payment of the full amount of such interest at the offices of all such Paying Agent(s) is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions and (iii) payment is permitted by applicable United States law.

- 14A.5 Payments subject to fiscal laws: All payments in respect of the Instruments are subject in all cases to (i) any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 13 (Taxation), and (ii) notwithstanding the provisions of Condition 13 (Taxation), any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of that Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto ("FATCA withholding"). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Holders of Instruments or Coupons in respect of such payments.

14A.6 Deductions for unmatured Coupons: If the relevant Final Terms specifies that the Fixed Rate Instrument Provisions are applicable and an Instrument is presented without all unmatured Coupons relating thereto:

- (i) if the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons is less than or equal to the amount of principal due for payment, a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of such missing Coupons which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment;
- (ii) if the aggregate amount of the missing Coupons is greater than the amount of principal due for payment:
 - (a) so many of such missing Coupons shall become void (in inverse order of maturity) as will result in the aggregate amount of the remainder of such missing Coupons (the "Relevant Coupons") being equal to the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that where this sub-paragraph would otherwise require a fraction of a missing Coupon to become void, such missing Coupon shall become void in its entirety; and
 - (b) a sum equal to the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, if less, the amount of principal due for payment) will be deducted from the amount of principal due for payment; provided, however, that, if the gross amount available for payment is less than the amount of principal due for payment, the sum deducted will be that proportion of the aggregate amount of the Relevant Coupons (or, as the case may be, the amount of principal due for payment) which the gross amount actually available for payment bears to the amount of principal due for payment.

Each sum of principal so deducted shall be paid in the manner provided in paragraph (a) above against presentation and (provided that payment is made in full) surrender of the relevant missing Coupons.

14A.7 Unmatured Coupons void: If the relevant Final Terms specifies that this Condition 14A.7 (Unmatured Coupons void) is applicable or that the Floating Rate Instrument Provisions, the Index-Linked Interest Instrument Provisions, or the FX Rate-Linked Instrument Provisions are applicable or where the payment of principal under the Instrument is in a currency different from the currency in which the Coupons are payable, on the due date for final redemption of any Instrument or early redemption of such Instrument pursuant to Condition 11.2 (Redemption for tax reasons), Condition 11.3 (Redemption at the option of SEK), Condition 11.5 (Redemption at the option of Holders), Condition 11.6 (Mandatory Early Redemption), Condition 11.7 (Redemption for Index Adjustment Event), Condition 11.9 (Redemption for Illegality) or Condition 12 (Events of Default), all unmatured Coupons relating thereto (whether or not still attached) shall become void and no payment will be made in respect thereof.

14A.8 Payments on Business Days: If the due date for payment of any amount in respect of any Instrument or Coupon is not a Business Day in the place of presentation, the holder shall not be entitled to payment in such place of the amount due until the next succeeding Business Day in such place and shall not be entitled to any further interest or other payment in respect of any such delay.

- 14A.9 Payments other than in respect of matured Coupons: Payments of interest other than in respect of matured Coupons shall be made only against presentation of the relevant Instruments at the Specified Office of any Paying Agent outside the United States (or in New York City if permitted by Condition 14A.4 (Payments in New York City)).
- 14A.10 Partial payments: If a Paying Agent makes a partial payment in respect of any Instrument or Coupon presented to it for payment, such Paying Agent will endorse thereon a statement indicating the amount and date of such payment.
- 14A.11 Exchange of Talons: On or after the maturity date of the final Coupon which is (or was at the time of issue) part of a Coupon Sheet relating to the Instruments, the Talon forming part of such Coupon Sheet may be exchanged at the Specified Office of the Fiscal Agent for a further Coupon Sheet (including, if appropriate, a further Talon but excluding any Coupons in respect of which claims have already become void pursuant to Condition 15 (Prescription)). Upon the due date for redemption of any Instrument, any unexchanged Talon relating to such Instrument shall become void and no Coupon will be delivered in respect of such Talon.
- 14A.12 Disruption of Specified Currency: This Condition 14A.12 shall not apply to Renminbi Instruments. In the event that the Calculation Agent determines in good faith and in its sole and absolute discretion that it is not possible to make a payment in the Specified Currency, due to an event (or events) beyond the control of SEK (a "Currency Disruption Event"), then payment of any amount due in respect of the Instruments and Coupons after the occurrence of the Currency Disruption Event shall be made in U.S. dollar or euro (in an amount equivalent to the relevant amount(s) due and denominated in the Specified Currency), as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion. Notice (which shall be irrevocable) of a Currency Disruption Event shall be given to the Holders in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices).
- 14B Payments – Registered Instruments
- 14B.1 This Condition 14B (Payments – Registered Instruments) is applicable in relation to Instruments specified in the relevant Final Terms as being in registered form but, for the avoidance of doubt, are not Scandinavian Instruments.
- 14B.2 Principal: Payments of principal shall be made by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due on or, upon application by a Holder of Registered Instrument to the specified office of the relevant Registrar not later than the fifteenth day before the due date for any such payment, by transfer to an account denominated in such currency (or, if that currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) maintained by the payee with, a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of such currency (in the case of a sterling cheque, a town clearing branch of a bank in the City of London) and (in the case of final redemption) upon surrender (or, in the case of part payment only, endorsement) of the relevant Instrument Certificates at the specified office of any relevant Paying Agent.
- 14B.3 Interest: Payments of interest shall be made by cheque drawn in the currency in which the payment is due on or, upon application by a Holder of Registered Instrument to the specified office of the relevant Registrar not later than four Business Days before the due date for any such payment, by transfer to an account denominated in such currency (or, if that currency is euro, any other account to which euro may be credited or transferred) maintained by the payee with, a bank in the Principal Financial Centre of such currency and, in the case of interest payable on redemption) upon surrender (or, in the case of part payment only, endorsement) of the relevant Instrument Certificate at the specified office of any Paying Agent.
- 14B.4 Payments subject to fiscal laws: All payments in respect of the Registered Instruments are subject in all cases to (i) any applicable fiscal or other laws and regulations in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 13 (Taxation), and (ii) notwithstanding the provisions of Condition 13 (Taxation), any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of that Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto ("FATCA withholding"). No commissions or expenses shall be charged to the Holders of Registered Instruments in respect of such payments.

14B.5 Payments on Business Days: Where payment is to be made by transfer to an account, payment instructions (for value the due date, or, if the due date is not a Business Day, for value the next succeeding Business Day) will be initiated and, where payment is to be made by cheque, the cheque will be mailed (i) (in the case of payments of principal and interest payment on redemption) on the later of the due date for payment and the day on which the relevant Instrument Certificate is surrendered (or, in the case of part payment only, endorsed) at the Specified Office of a relevant Paying Agent and (ii) (in the case of payments of interest payable other than on redemption) on the Business Day immediately preceding the due date for payment. A Holder of a Registered Instrument shall not be entitled to any interest or other payment in respect of any delay in payment resulting from (A) the due date for payment not being a Business Day or (B) a cheque mailed in accordance with this Condition 14B.5 (Payments on Business Days) arriving after the due date for payment or being lost in the mail.

14B.6 Disruption of Specified Currency: This Condition 14B.6 shall not apply to Renminbi Instruments. In the event that the Calculation Agent determines in good faith and in its sole and absolute discretion that it is not possible to make a payment in the Specified Currency, due to an event (or events) beyond the control of SEK (a "Currency Disruption Event"), then payment of any amount due in respect of the Instruments after the occurrence of the Currency Disruption Event shall be made in U.S. dollar or euro (in an amount equivalent to the relevant amount(s) due and denominated in the Specified Currency), as determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole and absolute discretion. Notice (which shall be irrevocable) of a Currency Disruption Event shall be given to the Holders in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices).

14C Payments – Renminbi Instruments

This Condition 14C (Payments – Renminbi Instruments) shall apply to all Renminbi Instruments.

14C.1 Payments of Principal and Interest: Payments of amounts due (whether principal, interest or otherwise) in Renminbi in respect of Renminbi Instruments will be made by credit or transfer to an account denominated in that currency and maintained by the payee with a bank in Hong Kong and provided further that no payment will be made by transfer to an account in, or by cheque mailed to an address in, the United States.

14C.2 Payments of USD Equivalent: Notwithstanding the foregoing, if by reason of Inconvertibility, Non-transferability or Illiquidity, SEK is not able, or it would be impracticable for it, to satisfy payments of principal or interest (in whole or in part) in respect of the Renminbi Instruments when due in Renminbi in Hong Kong, SEK may, on giving not less than eight Business Days or more than 30 days' (or such other period as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms) irrevocable notice to the Holders prior to the due date for payment, settle any such payment (in whole or in part) in U.S. dollar on the due date at the USD Equivalent of any such Renminbi denominated amount.

Payments of the USD Equivalent of the relevant Renminbi amount, determined in accordance with this Condition 14C.2, will be made by credit or transfer to a U.S. dollar account (or any other account to which U.S. dollar may be credited or transferred) specified by the payee or, at the option of the payee, by a U.S. dollar cheque, provided, however, that no payment will be made by transfer to an account in, or by cheque mailed to an address in, the United States.

For the purposes of these Terms and Conditions, "USD Equivalent" means the Renminbi amount converted into U.S. dollar using the Spot Rate for the relevant Rate Calculation Date.

For the purpose of this Condition 14C (Payments – Renminbi Instruments):

"CNHFIX Spot Rate" means for a Rate Calculation Date, the CNY/USD official fixing rate, expressed as the amount of CNY per one USD, for settlement in two Business Days reported by the Treasury Markets Association which appears on the Reuters Screen Page CNHFIX at approximately 11.15 a.m. (Hong Kong time). In the event that no such quotation appears on the relevant Reuters Screen Page or any successor page or service thereto at the relevant time on the relevant Rate Calculation Date (or, if different, the day on which rates for the Rate Calculation Date would, in the ordinary course, be published or announced by the relevant price source), the Spot Rate will be determined by the Calculation Agent in its sole discretion, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner. Reference to a page on the Reuters Screen means the display page so designated on the Reuter Monitor Money Rates Service (or any successor service) or such other page as may replace that page for the purpose of displaying a comparable currency exchange rate.

"CNY Dealer" means an independent foreign exchange dealer of international repute active in the CNY exchange market in Hong Kong.

"Governmental Authority" means any de facto or de jure government (or any agency or instrumentality thereof), court, tribunal, administrative or other governmental authority or any other entity (private or public) charged with the regulation of the financial markets (including the central bank) of Hong Kong.

"Illiquidity" means the general CNY exchange market in Hong Kong becomes illiquid as a result of which SEK cannot obtain sufficient CNY in order to satisfy its obligation to pay interest and principal (in whole or in part) in respect of the Instruments as determined by SEK in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner following consultation with two CNY Dealers.

"Inconvertibility" means the occurrence of any event that makes it impossible for SEK to convert any amount due in respect of the Instruments in the general CNY exchange market in Hong Kong, other than where such impossibility is due solely to the failure of SEK to comply with any law, rule or regulation enacted by any Governmental Authority (unless such law, rule or regulation is enacted after 1 April 2016 and it is impossible for SEK, due to an event beyond its control, to comply with such law, rule or regulation).

"Non-transferability" means the occurrence of any event that makes it impossible for SEK to deliver CNY between accounts inside Hong Kong or from an account inside Hong Kong to an account outside Hong Kong or from an account outside Hong Kong to an account inside Hong Kong, other than where such impossibility is due solely to the failure of SEK to comply with any law, rule or regulation enacted by any Governmental Authority (unless such law, rule or regulation is enacted after 1 April 2016 and it is impossible for SEK, due to an event beyond its control, to comply with such law, rule or regulation).

"Rate Calculation Business Day" means a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange) in Hong Kong and in New York City.

"Rate Calculation Date" means the day which is three Rate Calculation Business Days before the due date of the relevant amount under these Conditions.

"Renminbi", "RMB" or "CNY" means the official currency of the People's Republic of China.

"Spot Rate", means the CNHFIX Spot Rate or the TRADCNY3 Spot Rate, as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

"TRADCNY3 Spot Rate" means, for a Rate Calculation Date, the spot CNY/USD exchange rate for the purchase of U.S. dollars with Renminbi, for settlement in two Business Days, in the over-the-counter Renminbi exchange market in Hong Kong, as determined by the Calculation Agent at or around 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on a deliverable basis by reference to Reuters Screen Page TRADCNY3, or if no such rate is available, on a non-deliverable basis by reference to Reuters Screen Page TRADNDF. If neither rate is available, the Calculation Agent will determine the spot rate at or around 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Rate Calculation Date as the most recently available CNY/USD official fixing rate for settlement on the due date for payment reported by The State Administration of Foreign Exchange of the PRC, which is reported on the Reuters Screen Page CNY=SAEC. Reference to a page on the Reuters Screen means the display page so designated on the Reuter Monitor Money Rates Service (or any successor service) or such other page as may replace that page for the purpose of displaying a comparable currency exchange rate.

All notifications, opinions, determinations, certificates, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of the provisions of this Condition 14C by the Calculation Agent, will (in the absence of gross negligence or wilful default) be binding on SEK, the Agents and all Holders.

- 14D Record date: Each payment in respect of a Registered Instrument will be made to the person shown as the Holder in the Register at the opening of business in the place of the relevant Registrar's Specified Office on the fifteenth day before the due date for such payment (the "Record Date"). SEK or the Fiscal Agent shall notify EFi of the relevant payment amount at least one (1) Banking Day (as defined by the then applicable rules and procedures of EFi) before the due date for such payment, or such other Banking Day falling closer to the due date as may be stipulated in the current rules and procedures of EFi.

Payments of principal and/or interest in respect of the VP Instruments shall be made to the Holders of VP Instruments as appearing registered in the register kept by VP as such, in accordance with the rules of VP.

15. Prescription

- 15.1 Bearer Instruments will become void unless presented for payment within 10 years after the Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 13 (Taxation)) for payment thereof. Coupons appertaining to Bearer Instruments will become void unless presented for payment within five years after the Relevant Date for payment thereof.
- 15.2 Claims against SEK in respect of Registered Instruments or ESw Instruments will be prescribed unless made within 10 years (or, in the case of claims in respect of interest, five years) after the due date for payment. Claims against SEK in respect of EFi Instruments will be prescribed unless made within three years after the due date for payment.

16. Calculation Agent

- 16.1 Duties: In performing its duties pursuant to these Conditions and the relevant Final Terms, the Calculation Agent shall act in its sole and absolute discretion, unless otherwise specified. Any delay, deferral or forbearance by the Calculation Agent in the performance or exercise of any of its obligations or its discretions under or pursuant to these Conditions and/or the relevant Final Terms including, without limitation, the giving of any notice by it to any party, shall not affect the validity or binding nature of any later performance or exercise of such obligation or discretion, and none of the Calculation Agent or SEK shall bear any liability in respect of, or consequent upon, any such delay, deferral or forbearance.
- 16.2 Determinations, notifications etc: All notifications, opinions, determinations, certificates, calculations, quotations and decisions given, expressed, made or obtained for the purposes of these Conditions by the Calculation Agent of any amount or of any state of affairs, circumstance, event or other matter, or the formation of any opinion or the exercise of any discretion required or permitted to be determined, formed or exercised by the Calculation Agent under or pursuant to the relevant Final Terms shall (in the absence of wilful misconduct, bad faith or manifest error) be final and binding on SEK, the Fiscal Agent, the Holders and any other party associated with the Instruments and (subject as aforesaid) no liability to such Holders will attach to the Calculation Agent in connection with the exercise by it of its powers, duties and discretions for such purposes.

17. Paying Agents and Registrars

In acting under the Fiscal Agency Agreement and in connection with the Instruments and the Coupons, the initial Paying Agents and Registrars act solely as agents of SEK and do not assume any obligations towards or relationship of agency or trust for or with any of the Holders of Instruments or Coupons.

The initial Paying Agents and the Registrars and their respective initial specified offices are specified below. The initial Calculation Agent (if any) is specified in the relevant Final Terms. SEK reserves the right at any time to vary or terminate the appointment of any Paying Agent (including the Fiscal Agent) or any Registrar or any Issuing Agent and to appoint additional or other Paying Agents or additional or other Calculation Agent or additional or other Registrars provided that it will at all times maintain (i) a Fiscal Agent, (ii) a Registrar outside the United Kingdom, in relation to the Registered Instruments, or as the case may be, Scandinavian Instruments, which in the latter case shall be a duly authorised central securities depository under the SFIA Act, the FBES Act and the Danish Securities Act, as the case may be, (iii) a paying agent that will be entitled to receive payments under the Instruments free of FATCA withholding; (iv) if a Calculation Agent is specified in the relevant Final Terms, SEK shall at all times maintain a Calculation Agent; (v) so long as any Instruments are admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive, a Paying Agent and a Registrar each with a specified office in Luxembourg, (vi) an Issuing Agent in relation to Scandinavian Instruments duly authorised as such under the SFIA Act, the FBES Act and the Danish Securities Act, as the case may be, and (vii) so long as any Instruments are listed on any other stock exchange, listing authority and/or quotation system, a Paying Agent and a Registrar each with a Specified Office in such other place as may be required by the rules of such stock exchange, listing authority and/or quotation system. The Paying Agents and the Registrars reserve the right at any time to change their respective Specified Offices to some other Specified Office in the same city. Notice of all changes in the identities or specified offices of the Calculation Agent, Issuing Agent, Paying Agents or the Registrars will be notified promptly to the Holders in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices).

18. Replacement of Instruments

Mutilated or defaced Instruments, Instrument Certificates and Coupons must be surrendered before replacements will be delivered therefor.

19. Meetings of Holders

19.1 The Fiscal Agency Agreement contains provisions, which are binding on SEK and the Holders of Instruments or Coupons, for convening meetings of the Holders of Instruments of any Series to consider matters affecting their interests, including the modification or waiver of the Terms and Conditions applicable to any Series of Instruments.

Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or several documents in the same form each signed by or on behalf of one or more Holders.

19.3 The Instruments and these Conditions may be amended without the consent of the Holders of Instruments or Coupons to correct a manifest error. In addition, the parties to the Fiscal Agency Agreement and the Scandinavian Agreements may agree to modify any provision thereof, but SEK shall not agree, without the consent of the Holders of Instruments, to any such modification unless it is of a formal, minor or technical nature, it is made to correct a manifest error or it is, in the opinion of such parties, not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Holders of Instruments.

20. Notices

To Holders of Bearer Instruments

20.1 Subject to the paragraph below and save where another means of effective communication has been specified herein or in the Final Terms, notices to Holders of Bearer Instruments shall be valid if published,

- (i) in the case of Instruments which are admitted to listing on the Official List and to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive and the rules of that exchange so require, on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu) or, if such publication is not practicable, in a leading English language daily newspaper having general circulation in Europe; or

- 23.4 Rights of the Holders to take proceedings outside England: Condition 23.2 (English courts) is for the benefit of the Holders only. As a result, nothing in this Condition 23 (Law and Jurisdiction) prevents any Holder from taking proceedings relating to a Dispute ("Proceedings") in any other courts with jurisdiction. To the extent allowed by law (save as aforesaid), Holders may take concurrent Proceedings in any number of jurisdictions.
- 23.5 Process agent: SEK agrees that the documents which start any Proceedings and any other documents required to be served in relation to those Proceedings may be served on it by being delivered to The Trade Commissioner for the time being of Business Sweden - The Swedish Trade and Invest Council, currently at 5 Upper Montagu Street, London, W1H 2AG (or its other address in England from time to time). OVERVIEW OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE INSTRUMENTS WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Clearing System Accountholders

Each Global Instrument will be in bearer form. Consequently, in relation to any Tranche of Instruments represented by a Global Instrument, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments to "Holder" are references to the bearer of the relevant Global Instrument which, for so long as the Global Instrument is held by (in the case of an NGI) a common safe-keeper or (in the case of a CGI) a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that common safe-keeper or as the case may be, depositary or common depositary.

In relation to any Tranche of Instruments represented by one or more Global International Instrument Certificates, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments to "Holder" are references to the person in whose name the relevant Global International Instrument Certificate is for the time being registered in the Register, which for so long as the Global International Instrument Certificate is held by or on behalf of a depositary or a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, will be that depositary or common depositary or a nominee for that depositary or common depositary.

In relation to any Tranche of Instruments represented by one or more Global Instrument Certificates, references in the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments to "Holder" are references to the person in whose name the relevant Global Instrument Certificate is for the time being registered in the Register, which will be Cede & Co. as nominee for DTC.

Each of the persons shown in the records of DTC, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Global Instrument, a Global International Instrument Certificate or a Global Instrument Certificate (each an "Accountholder") must look solely to DTC, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or such other relevant clearing system (as the case may be) for such Accountholder's share of each payment made by SEK to the bearer of such Global Instrument, to the holder of such Global International Instrument Certificate or to the holder of such Global Instrument Certificate and in relation to all other rights arising under the Global Instrument, Global International Instrument Certificate or Global Instrument Certificate. The extent to which, and the manner in which, Accountholders may exercise any rights arising under the Global Instrument, the Global International Instrument Certificate or Global Instrument Certificate will be determined by the respective rules and procedures of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and any other relevant clearing system from time to time. For so long as the relevant Instruments are represented by the Global Instrument, Global International Instrument Certificate or Global Instrument Certificate, Accountholders shall have no claim directly against SEK in respect of payments due under the Instruments and such obligations of SEK will be discharged by payment to the bearer of the Global Instrument, the holder of the Global International Instrument Certificate or the holder of the Global Instrument Certificate.

Exchange of Temporary Global Instruments

Whenever any interest in a Temporary Global Instrument is to be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Instrument, SEK shall procure:

- (a) in the case of first exchange, the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Permanent Global Instrument, in the case of a CGI, duly authenticated and in the case of an NGI, effectuated, to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument; or
- (b) in the case of any subsequent exchange, an increase in the principal amount of such Permanent Global Instrument in accordance with its terms, in each case in an aggregate principal amount equal to the aggregate of the principal amounts specified in the certificates issued by Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and received by the Fiscal Agent against, presentation and (in the case of final exchange) surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent, in any such case receipt by the Fiscal Agent of a certificate or certificates of non-U.S. beneficial ownership within 7 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

Whenever a Temporary Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, SEK shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Temporary Global Instrument to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument against the surrender of the Temporary Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

If:

- (a) a Permanent Global Instrument has not been delivered or the principal amount thereof increased by 6.00 p.m. (London time) on the seventh day after the bearer of a Temporary Global Instrument has requested exchange of an interest in the Temporary Global Instrument for an interest in a Permanent Global Instrument; or
- (b) Definitive Instruments have not been delivered by 6.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after the bearer of a Temporary Global Instrument has requested exchange of the Temporary Global Instrument for Definitive Instruments; or
- (c) a Temporary Global Instrument (or any part thereof) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments or the date for final redemption of a Temporary Global Instrument has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument in accordance with the terms of the Temporary Global Instrument on the due date for payment, then the Temporary Global Instrument (including the obligation to deliver a Permanent Global Instrument or increase the principal amount thereof or deliver Definitive Instruments, as the case may be) will become void at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such seventh day (in the case of (a) above) or at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (b) above) or at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (c) above) and the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer of the Temporary Global Instrument or others may have under the Deed of Covenant). Under the Deed of Covenant, persons shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Temporary Global Instrument will acquire directly against SEK all those rights to which they would have been entitled if, immediately before the Temporary Global Instrument became void, they had been the holders of Definitive Instruments in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Instruments they were shown as holding in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system.

Exchange of Permanent Global Instruments

Whenever a Permanent Global Instrument is to be exchanged for Definitive Instruments, SEK shall procure the prompt delivery (free of charge to the bearer) of such Definitive Instruments, duly authenticated and with Coupons and Talons attached (if so specified in the relevant Final Terms), in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Permanent Global Instrument to the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument against the surrender of the Permanent Global Instrument to or to the order of the Fiscal Agent within 30 days of the bearer requesting such exchange.

If:

- (a) Definitive Instruments have not been delivered by 6.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after the bearer of a Permanent Global Instrument has duly requested exchange of the Permanent Global Instrument for Definitive Instruments; or
- (b) a Permanent Global Instrument (or any part of it) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments or the date for final redemption of the Instruments has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the bearer of the Permanent Global

Instrument in accordance with the terms of the Permanent Global Instrument on the due date for payment, then the Permanent Global Instrument (including the obligation to deliver Definitive Instruments) will become void at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (b) above) and the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument or others may have under the Deed of Covenant). Under the Deed of Covenant, persons shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Permanent Global Instrument will acquire directly against SEK all those rights to which they would have been entitled if, immediately before the Permanent Global Instrument became void, they had been the holders of Definitive Instruments in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Instruments they were shown as holding in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system.

Exchange of Global International Instrument Certificates

Whenever a Global International Instrument Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual International Instrument Certificates, SEK shall procure that Individual International Instrument Certificates will be issued in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global International Instrument Certificate within five business days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global International Instrument Certificate to the International Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual International Instrument Certificates (including, without limitation, the names and addresses of the persons in whose names the Individual International Instrument Certificates are to be registered and the principal amount of each such person's holding) against the surrender of the Global International Instrument Certificate at the specified office of the International Registrar.

Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Instruments scheduled thereto and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the International Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

If:

- (a) Individual International Instrument Certificates have not been delivered by 6.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after they are due to be issued and delivered in accordance with the terms of the Global International Instrument Certificate; or
- (b) any of the Instruments represented by a Global International Instrument Certificate (or any part of it) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments or the date for final redemption of the Instruments has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the holder of the Global International Instrument Certificate in accordance with the terms of the Global International Instrument Certificate on the due date for payment, then the Global International Instrument Certificate (including the obligation to deliver Individual International Instrument Certificates) will become void at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (b) above) and the holder of the Global International Instrument Certificate will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the holder of the Global International Instrument Certificate or others may have under the Deed of Covenant). Under the Deed of Covenant, persons shown in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Global International Instrument Certificate will acquire directly against SEK all those rights to which they would have been entitled if, immediately before the Global International Instrument Certificate became void, they had been the holders of Individual International Instrument Certificate in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Instruments they were shown as holding in the records of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system.

Exchange of Global Instrument Certificates

Whenever a Global Instrument Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual Instrument Certificates, each person having an interest in a Global Instrument Certificate must provide the DTC Registered Instruments (through the relevant clearing system) with such information as SEK and the DTC Registrar may require to complete and deliver Individual Instrument Certificates (including the name and address of each person in which the Instruments represented by the Individual Instrument Certificates are to be registered and the principal amount of each such person's holding). In addition, whenever a Restricted Global Instrument Certificate is to be exchanged for Restricted Individual Instrument Certificates, each person having an interest in the Restricted Global Instrument Certificate must provide the DTC Registrar (through the relevant clearing system) with a certificate given by or on behalf of the holder of each beneficial interest in the Restricted Global Instrument Certificate stating either (i) that such holder is not transferring its interest at the time of such exchange or (ii) that the transfer or exchange of such interest has been made in compliance with the transfer restrictions applicable to the Instruments and that the person transferring such interest reasonably believes that the person acquiring such interest is a QIB and is obtaining such beneficial interest in a transaction meeting the requirements of Rule 144A. Restricted Individual Instrument Certificates issued in exchange for interests in the Restricted Global Instrument Certificate will bear the legends and be subject to the transfer restrictions set out under "Transfer Restrictions".

Whenever a Global Instrument Certificate is to be exchanged for Individual Instrument Certificates, SEK shall procure that Individual Instrument Certificates will be issued in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of the Global Instrument Certificate within five Business Days of the delivery, by or on behalf of the registered holder of the Global Instrument Certificate to the DTC Registrar of such information as is required to complete and deliver such Individual Instrument Certificates against the surrender of the Global Instrument Certificate at the specified office of the DTC Registrar.

Such exchange will be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement and the regulations concerning the transfer and registration of Instruments scheduled to the Fiscal Agency Agreement and, in particular, shall be effected without charge to any holder, but against such indemnity as the DTC Registrar may require in respect of any tax or other duty of whatsoever nature which may be levied or imposed in connection with such exchange.

If:

- (a) Individual Instrument Certificates have not been delivered by 6.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after they are due to be issued and delivered in accordance with the terms of the relevant Global Instrument Certificate; or
- (b) any of the Instruments represented by a Global Instrument Certificate (or any part of it) has become due and payable in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments or the date for final redemption of the Instruments has occurred and, in either case, payment in full of the amount of principal falling due with all accrued interest thereon has not been made to the holder of such Global International Instrument Certificate in accordance with the terms of such Global International Instrument Certificate on the due date for payment, then such Global Instrument Certificate (including the obligation to deliver Individual Instrument Certificates) will become void at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such thirtieth day (in the case of (a) above) or at 6.00 p.m. (London time) on such due date (in the case of (b) above) and the holder of such Global Instrument Certificate will have no further rights thereunder (but without prejudice to the rights which the holder of such Global Instrument Certificate or others may have under the Deed of Covenant). Under the Deed of Covenant, persons shown in the records of DTC and/or any other relevant clearing system as being entitled to an interest in a Global Instrument Certificate will acquire directly against SEK all those rights to which they would have been entitled if, immediately before the Global Instrument Certificate became void, they had been the holders of Individual Instrument Certificate in an aggregate principal amount equal to the principal amount of Instruments they were shown as holding in the records of DTC and/or any other relevant clearing system.

Transfers of Interests in Global Instruments, Global International Instrument Certificates and Global Instrument Certificates

Transfers of interests in Global Instruments, Global International Instrument Certificates and Global Instrument Certificates within DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system will be in accordance with their respective rules and operating procedures. None of SEK, the relevant Registrar, the affected Dealers or the Fiscal or Paying Agents will have any responsibility or liability for any aspect of the records of any DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system or any of their respective participants relating to payments made on account of beneficial ownership interests in a Global Instrument, Global International Instrument Certificate or Global Instrument Certificate or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing any of the records of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other relevant clearing system or the records of their respective participants relating to such beneficial ownership interests.

The laws of some states of the United States require that certain persons receive individual certificates in respect of their holdings of Instruments. Consequently, the ability to transfer interests in a Global Instrument Certificate to such persons will be limited. Because clearing systems only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants, the ability of a person having an interest in a Global Instrument Certificate to pledge such interest to persons or entities which do not participate in the relevant clearing systems, or otherwise take actions in respect of such interest, may be affected by the lack of an Individual Instrument Certificate representing such interest.

Cross-market transactions will require delivery of instructions to Euroclear or (as the case may be) Clearstream, Luxembourg by the counterparty in such system in accordance with its rules and procedures and within its established deadlines. Euroclear or (as the case may be) Clearstream, Luxembourg will, if the transaction meets its settlement requirements, deliver instructions to its respective depository to take action to effect final settlement on its behalf by delivering or receiving beneficial interests in the relevant Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificate in DTC, and making or receiving payment in accordance with normal procedures for same day funds settlement applicable to DTC. Euroclear account holders and Clearstream, Luxembourg account holders may not deliver instructions directly to the depositories for Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Because of time zone differences and subject to compliance with the transfer restrictions set out in "Transfer Restrictions", credits of Instruments received in Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as a result of a transaction with a DTC participant will be made during the securities settlement processing day following the DTC settlement date and such credits of any transactions in such securities settled during such processing will be reported to the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg account holder on such business day. Cash received in Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg as a result of sales of Instruments by or through a Clearstream, Luxembourg account holder or a Euroclear account holder to a DTC participant will be received for value on the DTC settlement date but will be available in the relevant Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg cash account only as of the business day following settlement in DTC. Settlement between Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg account holders and DTC participants cannot be made on a delivery versus payment basis. The arrangements for transfer of payments must be established separately from the arrangements for transfer of Instruments, the latter being effected on a free delivery basis. The customary arrangements for delivery versus payment between Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg account holders or between DTC participants are not affected.

For a further description of restrictions on the transfer of Instruments, see "Plan of Distribution" and "Transfer Restrictions".

Upon the issue of a Global Instrument Certificate to be held by or on behalf of DTC, DTC or the DTC Custodian will credit the respective nominal amounts of the individual beneficial interests represented by such Global Instrument Certificate to the account of DTC participants. Ownership of beneficial interests in such Global Instrument Certificate will be held through participants of DTC, including the respective depositories of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg in the case of any Unrestricted Global Instrument Certificates. Ownership of beneficial interests in such Global Instrument Certificate will be shown on, and the transfer of such ownership will be effected only through, records maintained by DTC or its nominee. DTC has advised SEK that it will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of DTC Registered Instruments represented by a Global Instrument Certificate held by or on behalf of DTC (including, without limitation, the presentation of such Global Instrument Certificates for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants in whose account with DTC interests in such Global Instrument Certificate are credited, and only in respect of such portion of the aggregate nominal amount of such Global Instrument Certificate as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. However, in certain circumstances, DTC will exchange the relevant Global Instrument Certificate for Individual Instrument Certificates (which will bear the relevant legends set out in "Transfer Restrictions").

Although DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg have agreed to the foregoing procedures in order to facilitate transfers of interests in the Global Instrument Certificates among participants and account holders of DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued at any time. None of SEK, the relevant Registrar, the Dealers or the Fiscal and Paying Agents will have any responsibility for the performance by DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or their respective direct or indirect participants or account holders of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their respective operations.

While a Global Instrument Certificate is lodged with DTC, Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any relevant clearing system, Individual Instrument Certificates for the relevant Series of Instruments will not be eligible for clearing and settlement through such clearing systems.

Conditions applicable to Global Instruments

Each Global Instrument, Global International Instrument Certificate and Global Instrument Certificate will contain provisions which modify the Terms and Conditions of the Instruments as they apply to such Global Instrument, Global International Instrument Certificate and Global Instrument Certificate. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

Payments: All payments in respect of the Global Instrument will be made against presentation and (in the case of payment of principal in full with all interest accrued thereon) surrender of the Global Instrument to or to the order of Paying Agent and will be effective to satisfy and discharge the corresponding liabilities of SEK in respect of the Instruments. On each occasion on which a payment of principal or interest is made in respect of the Global Instrument, SEK shall procure that in the case of a CGI the payment is noted in a schedule thereto and in respect of an NGI the payment entered pro rata in the records of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Business Day: In relation to payments made in respect of a Global International Instrument Certificate, a Global Instrument Certificate or a Global Instrument, so long as such Global International Instrument Certificate, Global Instrument Certificate or Global Instrument is held on behalf of DTC, Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, the definition of "Business Day" in Condition 1.1 (Interpretation – Definitions) shall be amended so as to disapply paragraphs (A)(i)(b) and (A)(ii)(b) of that definition.

Record Date: Each payment in respect of a Global International Instrument Certificate or a Global Instrument Certificate will be made to the person shown as the Holder in the Register at the close of business (in the relevant clearing system) on the Clearing System Business Day before the due date for such payment where "Clearing System Business Day" means a day on which each clearing system for which the Global International Instrument Certificate or the Global Instrument Certificate, as the case may be, is being held is open for business.

Exercise of put option: In order to exercise the option contained in Condition 11.5 (Redemption at the option of Holders), the bearer of the Permanent Global Instrument, the holder of a Global International Instrument Certificate or the holder of a Global Instrument Certificate must, within the period specified in the Conditions for the deposit of the relevant Instrument and Put Option Notice, give written notice of such exercise to the Fiscal Agent, the International Registrar or the DTC Registrar, as the case may be, specifying the principal amount of Instruments in respect of which such option is being exercised. Any such notice will be irrevocable and may not be withdrawn.

Partial exercise of call option: In connection with an exercise of the option contained in Condition 11.3 (Redemption at the option of SEK) in relation to some only of the Instruments, the Permanent Global Instrument, the Global International Instrument Certificate or the Global Instrument Certificate may be redeemed in part in the principal amount specified by SEK in accordance with the Conditions and the Instruments to be redeemed will not be selected as provided in the Conditions but in accordance with the rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC (to be reflected in the records of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg and DTC as either a pool factor or a reduction in principal amount, at their discretion).

Notices: Notwithstanding Condition 20 (Notices), while all the Instruments are represented by a Permanent Global Instrument (or by a Permanent Global Instrument and/or a Temporary Global Instrument), by a Global International Instrument Certificate or by a Global Instrument Certificate and the Permanent Global Instrument is (or the Permanent Global Instrument and/or the Temporary Global Instrument are) deposited with a depositary or a common depositary or a common safe-keeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system, or the Global International Instrument Certificate is registered in the name of a depositary or common depositary or a nominee for that depositary or common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system or the Global Instrument Certificate is registered in the name of DTC's nominee, notices to Holders may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and/or DTC and, in any case, such notices shall be deemed to have been given to the Holders in accordance with Condition 20 (Notices) on the date of delivery to Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system and/or DTC provided, however, that, so long as the Instruments are admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive and its rules so require, notices could instead be published on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

SEK – AN INTRODUCTION

General

This introduction provides you with a brief overview of key information concerning SEK.

AB Svensk Exportkredit (publ)

History and development of the Company

Aktiebolaget Svensk Exportkredit (Swedish Export Credit Corporation, "SEK") is a "public company" under the Swedish Companies Act. It is wholly-owned by the Swedish state through the Ministry of Enterprise and Innovation ("Sweden" or the "State").

SEK was founded in 1962 in order to strengthen the competitiveness of the Swedish export industry by meeting the need for long-term lending for both exporters and their foreign customers. SEK's objective is to engage in financing activities in accordance with the Swedish Banking and Financing Business Act and, in connection therewith, to promote the development of Swedish commerce and industry as well as otherwise engage in Swedish and international financing activities on commercial terms.

Business Overview

SEK provides financial solutions for the Swedish export industry with the aim of promoting the development and international competitiveness of Swedish industry and trade.

Its business activities are focused on lending to Swedish exporters and their customers through corporate lending, export lending, structured financing, project financing, trade financing and leasing. SEK offers its financial solutions to corporations and financial institutions as well as domestic and international investors. SEK extends loans on commercial terms at prevailing fixed or floating market interest rates in "SEK exclusive of the S-system", as well as loans on State-supported terms at fixed interest rates that may be lower than prevailing fixed market rates in the "State Support System" (the "S-system"). The S-system is administered on behalf of the State by SEK in return for compensation.

SEK's mission has developed over the years since SEK began its operations in 1962. From its roots in export loans, SEK's product range over time has expanded. However, SEK is still a niche operator in the financial market. SEK works mainly with lending and as a result SEK acts as a complement to banks which are active in Sweden. SEK's unique position means that SEK works cooperatively with banks and other financial institutions. Over the years, SEK has been active in the creation of new financial solutions. SEK's niche specialisation in long-term export-related financing, combined with its financial capacity and flexible organisation, are key factors in the management of its operations. SEK's borrowing activities in the international capital markets have given SEK expertise in financial instruments.

SEK believes that its relationships with domestic, Nordic and other international investors and partners strengthen its ability to develop financial solutions which meet its customers' requirements. This network of relationships enables SEK to participate in co-financing arrangements.

Management

The Board of Directors is responsible for the management of SEK.

SEK's Articles of Association currently provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of six to eight directors. The State, as holder of all the shares, elects the directors. The Annual General Meeting appoints the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors convenes approximately every two months.

The directors of the Board of Directors are elected at the Annual General Meeting to serve for the period until the end of the next Annual General Meeting. The Annual General Meeting is required to be held not later than 30 June of each year.

The Chief Risk officer is appointed by the Board of Directors; all other Executive Officers are appointed by the CEO having consulted the Chairman of the Board of Directors.

To the best of the SEK's knowledge, there are no conflicts of interest between any duties which the members of the Board of Directors owe to SEK and their private interests.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Instruments may be sold from time to time by SEK to any one or more of Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Daiwa Capital Markets Europe Limited, Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, Goldman Sachs International, J.P. Morgan Securities plc, Merrill Lynch International, Mitsubishi UFJ Securities International plc, Mizuho International plc, Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc, Nomura International plc, SMBC Nikko Capital Markets Limited, The Royal Bank of Scotland plc and The Toronto-Dominion Bank (the "Dealers") or to any other person. The arrangements under which Instruments may from time to time be agreed to be sold by SEK to, and subscribed by, Dealers are set out in a dealership agreement dated 1 April 2016 (the "Dealership Agreement", which expression shall include any amendments or supplements thereto) and made between SEK and the Dealers. If in the case of any Tranche of Instruments the method of distribution is an agreement between SEK and a single Dealer, the method of distribution will be described in the relevant Final Terms as "Non-Syndicated" and the name of that Dealer and any other interest of that Dealer which is material to the issue of that Tranche beyond the fact of appointment of that Dealer will be set out in the relevant Final Terms. If in the case of any Tranche of Instruments the method of distribution is an agreement between SEK and more than one Dealer for that Tranche to be issued by SEK and subscribed by those Dealers, the method of distribution will be described in the relevant Final Terms as "Syndicated", the obligations of those Dealers to subscribe the relevant Instruments will be joint and several and the names and addresses of those Dealers and any other interests of any of those Dealers which is material to the issue of that Tranche beyond the fact of the appointment of those Dealers will be set out in the relevant Final Terms. Any such agreement will inter alia make provision for the form and terms and conditions of the relevant Instruments, the price at which such Instruments will be subscribed by the Dealers and the commissions, if any, payable by SEK in respect of such subscription. The Dealership Agreement makes provision for the resignation or renewal of existing Dealers and the appointment of additional or other Dealers.

United States of America:

1. The Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and may not be offered or sold within the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act.
2. SEK has represented, warranted and undertaken to the Dealers that neither it nor any of its affiliates (including any person acting on behalf of SEK or any of its affiliates) has offered or sold, or will offer or sell, any Instruments in any circumstances which would require the registration of any of the Instruments under the Securities Act and, in particular, that (i) none of SEK, any of its affiliates or any person acting on their behalf has engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts with respect to the Instruments and (ii) SEK and its affiliates have complied and will comply with the offering restrictions requirement of Regulation S under the Securities Act.
3. SEK has represented, warranted and undertaken to the Dealers that, in connection with each sale of Instruments pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act, neither it nor any of its affiliates (as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act), nor any person acting on behalf of SEK or any of its affiliates has, directly or indirectly, sold, offered for sale, solicited offers to buy or otherwise negotiated in respect of, or will, directly or indirectly, sell, offer for sale, solicit offers to buy or otherwise negotiate in respect of, any security (as defined in the Securities Act), that is or will be integrated with the sale of the relevant Instruments pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act in a manner that would require registration of such Instruments under the Securities Act.
4. SEK has represented, warranted and undertaken to the Dealers that, in connection with each sale of Instruments pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act, neither it nor any of its affiliates (as defined in Rule 501 under the Securities Act), nor any person acting on behalf of SEK or any of its affiliates has solicited offers for, offered or sold or will solicit offers for, or offer or sell, the relevant Instruments pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act by means of any form of general solicitation or general advertising within the meaning of Rule 502(c) under the Securities Act in the United States.
5. In relation to each Tranche of Instruments:

- (i) each Dealer represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it will offer and sell or deliver Instruments (i) as part of their distribution at any time and (ii) otherwise, until forty days after the completion of the distribution of the Instruments, only in accordance with Rule 903 of Regulation S or Rule 144A under the Securities Act. Accordingly, none of it, any of its affiliates or any persons acting on behalf of such Dealer or any of its affiliates has engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts with respect to Instruments, and such Dealer and any of its affiliates have complied and will comply with the offering restrictions requirements of Regulation S under the Securities Act;
- (ii) each Dealer agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that it has not entered and will not enter into any contractual arrangements with respect to the distribution or delivery of Instruments except with its affiliates (if any) or with the prior written consent of SEK;
- (iii) each Dealer agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that, at or prior to confirmation of sale of Instruments (other than sale of Instruments pursuant to Rule 144A), it will have sent to each distributor, dealer or person receiving a selling concession, fee or other remuneration that purchases Instruments from it during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or notice to substantially the following form:

"The Instruments covered hereby have not been registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until forty days after the completion of the distribution of the Tranche of Instruments of which such Instruments are a part, as determined and certified by [Name of Dealer or Dealers, as the case may be], except in either case in accordance with Regulation S or Rule 144A under the Securities Act. Terms used above have the meaning given to them by Regulation S."; and
- (iv) each Dealer who has purchased Instruments of any Tranche in accordance with this Agreement shall determine and certify to the Fiscal Agent or SEK the completion of the distribution of the Instruments of such Tranche purchased by it. In the case of a Relevant Agreement between SEK and more than one Dealer, the Fiscal Agent or SEK shall notify such Dealers when all such Dealers have certified as provided in this paragraph. In order to facilitate compliance by each Dealer with the foregoing, SEK agreed that, prior to such certification with respect to such Tranche, it will notify each Dealer in writing of each acceptance by SEK of an offer to purchase and of any issuance of, Instruments or other debt obligations of SEK which are denominated in the same currency or composite currency and which have substantially the same interest rate and maturity date as the Instruments of such Tranche.

Where the relevant Final Terms, Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus specifies that the TEFRA D Rules are applicable, the Instruments will be issued in accordance with the provisions of United States Treasury Regulation § 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (the "TEFRA D Rules"). Where the relevant Final Terms, Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus specifies that the TEFRA C Rules are applicable, the Instruments will be issued in accordance with the provisions of United States Treasury Regulation § 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (the "TEFRA C Rules"). Where the relevant Final Terms or Drawdown Prospectus specifies that TEFRA is not applicable, the Instruments will not be issued in accordance with the provisions of either the TEFRA D Rules or the TEFRA C Rules.

6. Where the TEFRA D Rules are specified in the relevant Final Terms, Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus as being applicable in relation to any Tranche of Instruments, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that:
 - (i) except to the extent permitted under the TEFRA D Rules, (x) it has not offered or sold, and during the restricted period will not offer or sell, any Instruments in bearer form to a person who is within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, and (y) it has not delivered and will not deliver within the United States or its

 - (iii) if such Dealer is a United States person, it is acquiring the Instruments in bearer form for purposes of resale in connection with their original issuance and, if such Dealer retains Instruments in bearer form for its own account, it will only do so in accordance with the requirements of United States Treasury Regulations § 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(6);

7. Where the TEFRA C Rules are specified in the relevant Final Terms, Pricing Supplement or Drawdown Prospectus as being applicable in relation to any Tranche of Instruments, the Instruments in bearer form must, in accordance with their original issuance, be issued and delivered outside the United States and its possessions and, accordingly, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that, in connection with the original issuance of the Instruments in bearer form:

8. Terms used in Clauses 22 and 3 have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act. Terms used in Clauses 6 and 7 have the meanings given to them by the United States Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder, including the TEFRA D Rules and the TEFRA C Rules.
9. Each issuance of index or currency-linked Instruments shall be subject to additional U.S. selling restrictions as the relevant Dealer or Dealers shall agree as a term of the issuance and purchase of such Instruments. Each Dealer agrees that it shall offer, sell and deliver such Instruments only in compliance with such additional U.S. selling restrictions.
10. In connection with each sale of Instruments pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act, neither the relevant Dealer nor any person acting on its behalf will engage in any form of general solicitation or general advertising (as those terms are used in Rule 502(c) under the Securities Act).

 where the issue of the Instruments would otherwise constitute a contravention of section 19 of the FSMA by SEK; and
3. Financial promotion: it has only communicated or caused to be communicated and will only communicate or cause to be communicated any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the FSMA) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Instruments in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to SEK.

Japan: The Instruments have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan (Act No. 25 of 1948), as amended (the "FIEA"). Accordingly, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not, directly or indirectly, offered or sold and will not, directly or indirectly, offer or sell any Instruments in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan (which term as used herein means any person resident in Japan, including any corporation or other entity organised under the laws of Japan) or to others for reoffering or resale, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan, except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with, FIEA and other relevant laws, regulations and ministerial guidelines of Japan.

Each of the Dealers understands that the Instruments may be offered in Japan for sale upon such filing of the Supplement in accordance with the terms described in the Supplement only under circumstances which will result in compliance with the FIEA and any other relevant laws, regulations and ministerial guidelines, and agrees that it will observe such restrictions.

The People's Republic of China: Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that the Instruments will not be offered or sold directly or indirectly within the People's Republic of China (for such purposes, not including Hong Kong and Macau Special Administrative Regions or Taiwan (the "PRC")). This Base Prospectus, the Instruments and any material or information contained or incorporated by reference herein in relation to the Instruments have not been, and will not be, submitted to or approved/verified by or registered with the China Securities Regulatory Commission ("CSRC") or other relevant governmental and regulatory authorities in the PRC pursuant to relevant laws and regulations and thus may not be supplied to the public in the PRC or used in connection with any offer for the subscription or sale of the Instruments in the PRC. Neither this Base Prospectus nor any material or information contained or incorporated by reference herein constitutes an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities in the PRC.

The Instruments may only be invested by or sold to PRC investors that are authorised to engage in the investment in the Instruments of the type being offered or sold. PRC investors are responsible for obtaining all relevant government regulatory approvals/licenses, verification and/or registrations themselves, including, but not limited to, any which may be required from the State Administration of Foreign Exchange, CSRC, the China Banking Regulatory Commission, the China Insurance Regulatory Commission and other regulatory bodies, and complying with all relevant PRC regulations, including, but not limited to, all relevant foreign exchange regulations and/or foreign investment regulations.

Hong Kong: Each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that (i) it has not offered or sold and will not offer or sell in Hong Kong, by means of any document, any Instruments, except for Instruments which are a "structured product" as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) of Hong Kong ("SFO"), other than (a) to "professional investors" as defined in the SFO and any rules made under that Ordinance; or (b) in other circumstances which do not result in the document being a "prospectus" as defined in the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (Cap. 32) of Hong Kong or which do not constitute an offer to the public within the meaning of that Ordinance; and (ii) it has not issued or had in its possession for the purposes of issue, and will not issue or have in its possession for the purposes of issue, whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere, any advertisement, invitation or document relating to the Instruments, which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public of Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the securities laws of Hong Kong) other than with respect to Instruments which are or are intended to be disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to "professional investors" as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance and any rules made under that Ordinance.

Singapore: Each Dealer has acknowledged, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to acknowledge, that this Base Prospectus has not been and will not be registered as a prospectus with the Monetary Authority of Singapore. Accordingly, each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered or sold any Instruments or caused any Instruments to be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase nor will it offer or sell Instruments or cause any Instruments to be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase, nor has it circulated or distributed nor will it circulate or distribute this Base Prospectus or any other document or material in connection with the offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of any Instruments, whether directly or indirectly, to any person in Singapore other than (a) to an institutional investor (as defined in Section 4A of the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore (the "SFA")) pursuant to Section 274 of the SFA, (b) to a relevant person (as defined in Section 275(2) of the SFA) pursuant to Section 275(1) of the SFA, or any person pursuant to an offer referred to in Section 275(1A) of the SFA, and in accordance with the conditions specified in Section 275 of the SFA or (c) otherwise pursuant to, and in accordance with the conditions of, any other applicable provision of the SFA.

Where the Instruments are subscribed or purchased by persons who are relevant persons specified under Section 276 of the SFA by a relevant person which is:

- (a) a corporation (which is not an accredited investor (as defined in Section 4A of the SFA)) the sole business of which is to hold investments and the entire share capital of which is owned by one or more individuals, each of whom is an accredited investor; or
- (b) a trust (where the trustee is not an accredited investor) whose sole purpose is to hold investments and each beneficiary of the trust is an individual who is an accredited investor, securities (as defined in Section 239(1) of the SFA) of that corporation or the beneficiaries' rights and interest (howsoever described) in that trust shall not be transferred within six months after that corporation or that trust has acquired the Instruments pursuant to an offer made under Section 275 of the SFA, except:
 - (i) to an institutional investor or to a relevant person as defined in Section 275(2) of the SFA, or to any person arising from an offer referred to in Section 275(1A) or Section 276(4)(i)(B) of the SFA;
 - (ii) where no consideration is or will be given for the transfer;
 - (iii) where the transfer is by operation of law;
 - (iv) as specified in Section 276(7) of the SFA; or
 - (v) as specified in Regulation 32 of the Securities and Futures (Offer of Investments) (Shares and Debentures) Regulations 2005 of Singapore.

Public Offer Selling Restriction Under the Prospectus Directive: In relation to each Member State of the European Economic Area which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a "Relevant Member State"), each Dealer has represented, warranted and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent, warrant and agree, that with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State (the "Relevant Implementation Date") it has not made and will not make an offer of Instruments which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto (or are the subject of the offering contemplated by a Drawdown Prospectus, as the case may be) to the public in that Relevant Member State except that it may, with effect from and including the Relevant Implementation Date, make an offer of such Instruments to the public in that Relevant Member State:

- (a) Approved Prospectus: if the Final Terms or Drawdown Prospectus in relation to the Instruments specify that an offer of those Instruments may be made other than pursuant to Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive in that Relevant Member State (a "Non-exempt Offer"), following the date of publication of a prospectus in relation to such Instruments which has been approved by the competent authority in that Relevant Member State or, where appropriate, approved in another Relevant Member State and notified to the competent authority in that Relevant Member State, provided that any such prospectus which is not a Drawdown Prospectus has subsequently been completed by the Final Terms contemplating such Non-exempt Offer, in accordance with the Prospectus Directive, in the period beginning and ending on the dates specified in such prospectus or final terms, as applicable and SEK has consented in writing to its use for the purpose of that Non-exempt Offer;
- (b) Qualified investors: at any time to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;
- (c) Fewer than 150 offerees: at any time to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors as defined in the Prospectus Directive), subject to obtaining the prior consent of the relevant Dealer or Dealers nominated by SEK for any such offer; or
- (d) Other exempt offers: at any time in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of Instruments referred to in (b) to (d) above shall require SEK or any Dealer to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive, or supplement a prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an "offer of Instruments to the public" in relation to any Instruments in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Instruments to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe the Instruments, as the same may be varied in that Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Member State, the expression "Prospectus Directive" means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State.

General: Each Dealer has represented and agreed that it has complied with and will comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in which it subscribes for, purchases, offers, sells or delivers Instruments or has in its possession or distributes such offering material, in all cases as its own expense. Other persons into whose hands this Base Prospectus or any Final Terms comes are required by SEK and the Dealers to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in which they subscribe for, purchase, offer, sell or deliver Instruments or have in their possession or distribute such offering material, in all cases at their own expense.

The Dealership Agreement provides that the Dealers shall not be bound by any of the restrictions relating to any specific jurisdiction (set out above) to the extent that such restrictions shall, as a result of change(s) or change(s) in official interpretation, after the date hereof, of applicable laws and regulations, no longer be applicable but without prejudice to the obligations of the Dealers described in the paragraph headed "General" above.

Selling restrictions may be supplemented or modified with the agreement of SEK.

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for, SEK and their affiliates in the ordinary course of business. Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates may have positions, deal or make markets in the Instruments issued under the Programme, related derivatives and reference obligations, including (but not limited to) entering into hedging strategies on behalf of the Issuer and its affiliates, investor clients, or as principal in order to manage their exposure, their general market risk, or other trading activities. In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of SEK or its affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with SEK routinely hedge their credit exposure to SEK consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Instruments issued under the Programme. Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Instruments issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

TAXATION

1. Sweden

The following summary outlines certain Swedish tax consequences relating to holders of Instruments. The summary is based on the laws of the Kingdom of Sweden as currently in effect and is intended to provide general information only. The summary does not address, inter alia, situations where Instruments are held in an investment savings account (Sw. investeringsparkonto), tax consequences in connection with a Debt Office's exercise of the bail-in tool and/or any other tools and/or powers under the Resolution Act or the rules regarding reporting obligations for, among others, payers of interest. Investors should consult their professional tax advisers regarding the Swedish tax and other tax consequences (including the applicability and effect of tax treaties for the avoidance of double taxation) of acquiring, owning and disposing of Instruments in their particular circumstances.

Holders not tax resident in Sweden

Payments of any principal amount or any amount that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes to the holder of any Instruments should not be subject to Swedish income tax, provided that such a holder (i) is not resident in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes and (ii) does not have a permanent establishment in Sweden to which the Instruments are effectively connected.

However, broadly speaking, provided that the value of or the return on the Instruments relates to securities taxed as shares, or that the Instruments are deemed to be securities taxed as shares, private individuals who have been residents of Sweden for tax purposes due to a habitual abode in Sweden or a stay in Sweden for six consecutive months at any time during the calendar year of disposal or redemption or the ten calendar years preceding the year of disposal or redemption are liable for capital gains taxation in Sweden upon disposal or redemption of such Instruments. In a number of cases though, the applicability of this rule is limited by the applicable tax treaty for the avoidance of double taxation.

Swedish withholding tax, or Swedish tax deduction, is not imposed on payments of any principal amount or any amount that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes, except for certain payments of interest (and other return on Instruments) to a private individual (or an estate of a deceased individual) who is resident in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes (see "Holders resident in Sweden" below).

Holders tax resident in Sweden

In general, for Swedish corporations and private individuals (and estates of deceased individuals) with residence in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes, all capital income (for example income that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes and capital gains on Instruments) will be taxable. Specific tax consequences may be applicable to certain categories of corporations, for example life insurance companies. Moreover, specific tax consequences may be applicable if, and to the extent that, a holder of Instruments realises a capital loss on the Instruments and to any currency exchange gains or losses.

If amounts that are deemed as to be interest for Swedish tax purposes are paid by ESw or by another legal entity domiciled in Sweden, including a Swedish branch, to a private individual (or an estate of a deceased individual) with residence in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes, Swedish preliminary taxes are normally withheld by ESw or such legal entity on such payments. Swedish preliminary taxes should normally also be withheld on other return on Instruments (but not capital gains), if the return is paid out together with such a payment of interest referred to above.

2. Luxembourg

The following is a general description of certain Luxembourg tax considerations relating to the Instruments. It specifically contains information on taxes on the income from the Instruments withheld at source and provides an indication as to whether SEK assumes responsibility for the withholding of taxes at the source. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all tax considerations relating to the Instruments, whether in Luxembourg or elsewhere. Prospective purchasers of the Instruments should consult their own tax advisers as to which countries' tax laws could be relevant to acquiring, holding and disposing of the Instruments payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Instruments and the consequences of such actions under the tax laws of Luxembourg. This summary is based upon the law as in effect on the date of this Prospectus. The information contained within this section is limited to withholding taxation issues, and prospective investors should not apply any information set out below to other areas, including (but not limited to) the legality of transactions involving the Instruments.

Withholding Tax

All payments of interest and principal by SEK in the context of the holding, disposal, redemption or repurchase of the Instruments, which are not profit sharing, can be made free and clear of any withholding or deduction for or on account of any taxes of whatsoever nature imposed, levied, withheld, or assessed by Luxembourg or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, in accordance with the applicable Luxembourg law.

However, pursuant to the Luxembourg law of 23 December 2005 as amended, Luxembourg resident individuals who are the beneficial owners of savings income (i.e. with certain exemptions, savings income within the meaning of the Luxembourg laws of 21 June 2005 implementing the Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income in the form of interest payments ("EU Savings Directive")) paid by a paying agent (in the meaning of this law) established outside Luxembourg, in a Member State of either the European Union or the European Economic Area, or in a jurisdiction having concluded an agreement with Luxembourg in connection with the EU Savings Directive can opt to self declare and pay a 10 per cent. tax on these savings income. In case the paying agent (in the meaning of this law) is established in Luxembourg, this tax will be directly withheld by the paying agent.

The 10 per cent. withholding tax as described above or the 10 per cent. tax are final when Luxembourg resident individuals are acting in the context of the management of their private wealth.

Responsibility for the withholding of the 10 per cent. withholding tax as described above will be assumed by the Luxembourg paying agent. Responsibility for the declaration and payment of the 10 per cent. tax as described above is assumed by the individual resident beneficial owner of the interest or similar income.

3. Ireland

The following is a general description based on the laws and practices currently in force in Ireland of certain matters regarding the tax position of investors who are the absolute beneficial owners of their Instruments and should be treated with appropriate caution. Particular rules may apply to certain classes of taxpayers holding Instruments including dealers in securities and trusts. The general description does not constitute tax or legal advice and the comments below are of a general nature only and does not discuss all aspects of Irish taxation that may be relevant to any particular holder of Instruments. Prospective investors in the Instruments should consult their professional advisers on the tax implications of the purchase, holding, redemption or sale of the Instruments and the receipt of interest thereon under the laws of their country of residence, citizenship or domicile.

Withholding Tax

Under general Irish tax law, SEK will not be obliged to withhold tax from payments of principal. In addition, payments of premium or interest (if any, or to the extent a payment may be so characterised for taxation purposes) paid on the Instruments may be made without deduction or withholding on account of Irish tax so long as such payments do not constitute Irish source income. Interest (if any) and premium paid on the Instruments may be treated as having an Irish source if:

- (a) SEK is resident in Ireland for tax purposes; or
- (b) SEK is not resident in Ireland for tax purposes but the register for the Instruments is maintained in Ireland or if the Instruments are in bearer form the Instruments are physically held in Ireland; or
- (c) the assets relating to the Instruments are attributed to an Irish branch or agency of SEK.

It is anticipated that (i) SEK is not and will not be resident in Ireland for tax purposes; (ii) SEK will not have a branch or permanent establishment in Ireland; and (iii) the Instruments will either be in bearer form and will not be physically located in Ireland or that SEK will not maintain a register of any registered Instruments in Ireland.

Taxation of Receipts

Notwithstanding that a Holder of Instruments may receive payments of principal, premium, and interest, premium or discount on the Instruments free of Irish withholding tax, the Holder of Instruments may still be liable to pay Irish income or corporation tax (and in the case of individuals, the universal social charge) on such premium or interest if (i) such interest has an Irish source, (ii) the Holder of Instruments is resident or (in the case of a person other than a body corporate) ordinarily resident in Ireland for tax purposes (in which case there would also be a social insurance (PRSI) liability for an individual in receipt of premium or interest on the Instruments), or (iii) the Instruments are attributed to a branch or agency in Ireland. Ireland operates a self-assessment system in respect of income and corporation tax, and each person must assess its own liability to Irish tax.

Relief from Irish income tax may also be available under the specific provisions of a double taxation agreement between Ireland and the country of residence of the recipient.

Encashment Tax

In certain circumstances, Irish tax will be required to be withheld at the standard rate of income tax (currently 20 per cent.) from premium, interest or other income paid on Instruments issued by a company not resident in Ireland, where such amount is collected or realised by a bank or encashment agent in Ireland on behalf of any Holder of Instruments who is Irish resident.

Encashment tax does not apply where the Holder of Instruments is not resident in Ireland and has made a declaration in the prescribed form to the encashment agent or bank.

Capital Gains Tax

A Holder of Instruments will be subject to Irish tax on capital gains on a disposal of Instruments unless (a) such Holder is: (i) neither resident nor ordinarily resident in Ireland; and (ii) does not carry on a trade or business in Ireland through a permanent establishment, branch or agency in respect of which the Instruments are or were held; and (b) the Instruments do not derive the greater part of their value directly or indirectly from Irish land or minerals.

Capital Acquisitions Tax

A gift or inheritance comprising of Instruments will be within the charge to capital acquisitions tax (which subject to available exemptions and reliefs is currently levied at 33 per cent.) if either: (i) the donor or the donee/successor in relation to the gift or inheritance is resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland; or (ii) if the Instruments are regarded as property situate in Ireland. A foreign domiciled individual will not be regarded as being resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland at the date of the gift or inheritance unless that individual: (i) has been resident in Ireland for the five consecutive tax years preceding that date; and (ii) is either resident or ordinarily resident in Ireland on that date.

Bearer Instruments are generally regarded as situated where they are physically located at any particular time. Instruments in registered form are property situated in Ireland if the register is in Ireland. The Instruments may, however, be regarded as situated in Ireland regardless of their physical location if they secure a debt due by an Irish resident debtor and/or are secured over Irish property. Accordingly, if such Instruments are comprised in a gift or inheritance, the gift or inheritance may be within the charge to tax regardless of the residence status of the donor or the donee/successor.

Stamp duty

As SEK is not registered in Ireland, stamp duty will not arise on a document effecting a transfer of the Instruments so long as the relevant instrument of transfer:

- (a) does not relate to any immoveable property in Ireland; or
- (b) does not relate to stocks or marketable securities of a company registered in Ireland.

4. United Kingdom

The following is a general description of the United Kingdom withholding taxation treatment at the date hereof in relation to payments of principal and interest in respect of the Instruments. It is based on the current law and the practice of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs ("HMRC"), which may be subject to change, sometimes with retrospective effect. The comments do not deal with other United Kingdom tax aspects of acquiring, holding or disposing of Instruments. The comments are made on the assumption that SEK is not resident in the United Kingdom for United Kingdom tax purposes. The comments relate only to the position of persons who are absolute beneficial owners of the Instruments. Prospective Holders should be aware that the particular terms of issue of any series of Instruments as specified in the relevant Final Terms may affect the tax treatment of that and other series of Instruments. The following is a general guide and should be treated with appropriate caution. It is not intended as tax advice and it does not purport to describe all of the tax considerations that may be relevant to a prospective purchaser. Holders who are in any doubt as to their tax position should consult their professional advisers. Holders who may be liable to taxation in jurisdictions other than the United Kingdom in respect of their acquisition, holding or disposal of the Instruments are particularly advised to consult their professional advisers as to whether they are so liable (and if so under the laws of which jurisdictions), since the following comments relate only to certain United Kingdom taxation aspects of payments in respect of the Instruments. In particular, Holders should be aware that they may be liable to taxation under the laws of other jurisdictions in relation to payments in respect of the Instruments even if such payments may be made without withholding or deduction for or on account of taxation under the laws of the United Kingdom.

(A) UK Withholding Tax on Interest Payments by SEK

Interest on Instruments issued for a term of less than one year (and which are not issued under arrangements the effect of which is to render the Instruments part of a borrowing with a total term of one year or more) may be paid by SEK without withholding or deduction for or on account of United Kingdom income tax.

Interest on Instruments issued for a term of one year or more (or under arrangements the effect of which is to render the Instruments part of a borrowing with a total term of one year or more) may be paid by SEK without withholding or deduction for or on account of United Kingdom income tax except in circumstances where such interest has a United Kingdom source. The location of the source of a payment is a complex matter. It is necessary to have regard to case law and HMRC practice. Case law has established that in determining the source of interest, all relevant factors must be taken into account. HMRC has indicated that the most important factors in determining the source of a payment are those which influence where a creditor would sue for payment, and has stated that the place where SEK does business, and the place where its assets are located, are the most important factors in this regard; however, HMRC has also indicated that, depending on the circumstances, other relevant factors may include the place where the interest and principal are payable, the method of payment, the governing law of the Instruments and the competent jurisdiction for any legal action, the location of any security for SEK's obligations under the Instruments, and similar factors relating to any guarantee.

Interest which has a United Kingdom source ("UK interest") may be paid by SEK without withholding or deduction for or on account of United Kingdom income tax if the Instruments in respect of which the UK interest is paid constitute "quoted Eurobonds". Instruments which carry a right to interest will constitute "quoted Eurobonds" provided they are and continue to be listed on a recognised stock exchange. Securities will be regarded as "listed on a recognised stock exchange" for this purpose if (and only if) they are admitted to trading on an exchange designated as a recognised stock exchange by an order made by the Commissioners for HMRC and either they are included in the United Kingdom official list (within the meaning of Part 6 of the FSMA) or they are officially listed, in accordance with provisions corresponding to those generally applicable in European Economic Area states, in a country outside the United Kingdom in which there is a recognised stock exchange. The London Stock Exchange is a recognised stock exchange, and accordingly the Instruments will constitute quoted Eurobonds provided they are and continue to be included in the United Kingdom official list and admitted to trading on the Regulated Market of that Exchange. The Luxembourg Stock Exchange is a recognised stock exchange. SEK's understanding of current HMRC practice is that securities which are officially listed and admitted to trading on the Main Market of that Exchange may be regarded as "listed on a recognised stock exchange" for these purposes.

In all other cases, UK interest on the Instruments may fall to be paid under deduction of United Kingdom income tax at the basic rate (currently 20 per cent.) subject to the application of any exemption or to such relief as may be available following a direction from HMRC pursuant to the provisions of any applicable double taxation treaty or to any other exemption which may apply.

(B) Payments under Deed of Covenant

Any payments made under the Deed of Covenant may not qualify for the exemptions from UK withholding tax described above.

(D) Other Rules Relating to United Kingdom Withholding Tax

- i. Instruments may be issued at an issue price of less than 100 per cent. of their principal amount. Any discount element on any such Instruments will not generally be subject to any United Kingdom withholding tax pursuant to the provisions mentioned above.
- ii. Where Instruments are to be, or may fall to be, redeemed at a premium, as opposed to being issued at a discount, then any such element of premium may constitute a payment of interest. Payments of interest are subject to United Kingdom withholding tax as outlined above.
- iii. Where interest has been paid under deduction of United Kingdom income tax, Holders who are not resident in the United Kingdom may be able to recover all or part of the tax deducted if there is an appropriate provision in any applicable double taxation treaty.
- iv. The references to "interest" above mean "interest" as understood in United Kingdom tax law. The statements above do not take any account of any different definitions of "interest" or "principal" which may prevail under any other law or which may be created by the terms and conditions of the Instruments or any related documentation. Holders should seek their own professional advice as regards the withholding tax treatment of any payment on the Instruments which does not constitute "interest" or "principal" as those terms are understood in United Kingdom tax law. Where a payment on an Instrument does not constitute (or is not treated as) interest for United Kingdom tax purposes, and the payment has a United Kingdom source, it would potentially be subject to United Kingdom withholding tax if, for example, it constitutes (or is treated as) an annual payment or a manufactured payment for United Kingdom tax purposes (which will be determined by, amongst other things, the terms and conditions specified by the Final Terms of the Instrument). In such a case, the payment may fall to be made under deduction of United Kingdom tax (the rate of withholding depending on the nature of the payment), subject to such relief as may be available following a direction from HMRC pursuant to the provisions of any applicable double taxation treaty, or to any other exemption which may apply.
- v. The above description of the United Kingdom withholding tax position assumes that there will be no substitution of SEK as the issuer of the Instruments and does not consider the tax consequences of any such substitution.

6. Other Tax Issues

The proposed financial transactions tax ("FTT")

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the "Commission's Proposal") for a Directive for a common FTT in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the "participating Member States"). However, Estonia has since stated that it will not participate.

The Commission's Proposal has very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in Instruments (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Instruments should, however, be exempt.

Under the Commission's Proposal the FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in Instruments where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, "established" in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

However, the FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between participating Member States. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate.

Prospective holders of Instruments are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

PRC CURRENCY CONTROLS

Current Account Items

Under PRC foreign exchange control regulations, current account items refer to any transaction for international receipts and payments involving goods, services, earnings and other frequent transfers.

Prior to July 2009, all current account items were required to be settled in foreign currencies with limited exceptions. With progressive reforms, by 3 February 2012, Renminbi settlement of imports and exports of goods and of services and other current account items became permissible nationwide. Any enterprise within the PRC qualified for the export and import business is permitted to use Renminbi as settlement currency for exports of goods without obtaining the approval as previously required, but the relevant provincial government maintains with PBoC and five other PRC authorities a list of key enterprises subject to supervision (the "Supervision List").

On 5 July 2013, the PBoC promulgated the Circular on Policies related to Simplifying and Improving Cross-border Renminbi Business Procedures (關於簡化跨境人民幣業務流程和完善有關政策的通知) (the "2013 PBoC Circular"), which, in particular, simplifies the procedures for cross border Renminbi trade settlement under current account items. For example, PRC banks may conduct settlement for PRC enterprises (excluding those on the Supervision List) upon the PRC enterprises presenting the payment instruction. PRC banks may also allow PRC enterprises to make/receive payments under current account items prior to the relevant PRC bank's verification of underlying transactions (noting that verification of underlying transactions is usually a precondition for cross border remittance).

On 1 November 2014, PBoC introduced a cash pooling arrangement for qualified multinational enterprise group companies, under which a multinational enterprise group can process cross-border Renminbi payments and receipts for current account items on a collective basis for the entire group. On 5 September 2015, PBoC promulgated the "Circular on Further Facilitating the Cross-Border Bi-directional Renminbi Cash Pooling Business by Multinational Enterprise Groups" (關於進一步便利跨國企業集團開展跨境雙向人民幣資金池業務的通知) (the "2015 PBoC Circular"), which, among others, have lowered the eligibility requirements for multinational enterprise groups and increased the cap for net cash inflow.

The new regulations will be subject to interpretation and application by the relevant PRC authorities. Local authorities may adopt different practices in applying these regulations and impose conditions for settlement of current account items.

Capital Account Items

Under PRC foreign exchange control regulations, capital account items include cross border transfers of capital, direct investments, securities investments, derivative products and loans. Capital account payments are generally subject to approval of, and/or registration or filing with, the relevant PRC authorities.

Until recently, settlement of capital account items, for example, the capital contribution of foreign investors to foreign invested enterprises in the PRC, were generally required to be made in foreign currencies. Under progressive reforms by PBoC, the Ministry of Commerce of the PRC ("MOFCOM") and the State Administration of Foreign Exchange of the PRC ("SAFE"), foreign investors are now permitted to make capital contribution, share transfer, profit allocation and liquidation, etc., in Renminbi for their foreign direct investment within the PRC. Cross-border Renminbi payment infrastructure and trading facility are being improved. Approval/registration/filing requirements for capital account payments in Renminbi are being lifted gradually. In addition, the 2015 SAFE Circular allows foreign-invested enterprises to settle 100 per cent. (subject to future adjustment in the SAFE's discretion) of the foreign currency capital (which has been processed through the SAFE's equity interest confirmation procedure for capital contribution in cash or registered by a bank on the SAFE's system for account-crediting for such capital contribution) into Renminbi according to their actual operational needs. A negative list with respect to the usage of the capital and the RMB proceeds through the aforementioned settlement procedure is set forth under the Circular. In particular, a foreign invested enterprise with investment as its main business is permitted to use such RMB proceeds to make equity contribution to its invested enterprises directly, without further filings with SAFE.

PRC entities are also allowed to borrow Renminbi loans from foreign lenders (which are referred to as "foreign debt") and lend Renminbi loans to foreign borrowers (which are referred to as "outbound loans"), as long as such PRC entities have the necessary quota/approval/registration, and use Renminbi to denominate, or make payments under, security/guarantee with the relevant parties being in the PRC and the other jurisdiction(s) respectively (which is referred to as "cross-border security"). Under current rules promulgated by SAFE, foreign debts borrowed, outbound loans extended, and the cross-border security provided by an onshore entity (including a financial institution) in Renminbi shall, in principle, be regulated under the current PRC foreign debt, outbound loan and cross-border security regimes applicable to foreign currencies. However, there remain potential inconsistencies between the provisions of the SAFE rules and the provisions of the 2013 PBoC Circular in terms of cross-border security, outbound loans, etc. and it is unclear how regulators will deal with such inconsistencies in practice.

According to the 2015 PBoC Circular, qualified multinational enterprise groups can extend loans in Renminbi to, or borrow loans in Renminbi from, offshore group entities within the same group by leveraging the cash pooling arrangements. The Renminbi funds will be placed in a special deposit account and may not be used to invest in stocks, financial derivatives, or extend loans to enterprises outside the group.

Pilot schemes relating to cross-border Renminbi loans, bonds, or equity investments have also been launched for, among others, enterprises in Shenzhen Qianhai, Jiangsu Kunshan, Jiangsu Suzhou Industrial Park.

The recent reforms are introduced to control the remittance of Renminbi for payment of transactions categorised as capital account items. There is no assurance that the PRC Government will continue to gradually liberalise the control over Renminbi payments of capital account item transactions in the future. The relevant regulations are relatively new and will be subject to interpretation and application by the relevant PRC authorities. Further, if any new PRC regulations are promulgated in the future which have the effect of permitting or restricting (as the case may be) the remittance of Renminbi for payment of transactions categorised as capital account items, then such remittances will need to be made subject to the specific requirements or restrictions set out in such rules.

UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION

United States Federal Income Taxation

The following summary discusses the principal U.S. federal income tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of the Instruments. Except as specifically noted below, this discussion applies only to:

- Instruments purchased on original issuance at their "issue price" (as defined below);
- Instruments held as capital assets; and
- U.S. Holders (as defined below).

This discussion assumes that the Instruments will be treated as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Prospective investors should note, however, that the classification of an Instrument as debt or equity is highly factual, and it is possible that Instruments might be issued that might be classified as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes. No rulings have been or will be sought from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") with respect to the classification of the Instruments in general or with respect to any particular Instruments. Prospective investors should consult their own advisers with respect to the proper classification of the Instruments and the consequences of investing in any Instruments that are not classified as debt for U.S. federal income tax purposes, including whether any such instruments might be considered to be interests in a passive foreign investment company for U.S. federal income tax purposes, which could have materially adverse consequences for U.S. taxable investors.

This discussion does not describe all of the tax consequences that may be relevant in light of a Holder's particular circumstances or to Holders subject to special rules, such as:

- former U.S. citizens or residents;
- financial institutions;
- insurance companies;
- dealers in securities or foreign currencies;
- persons holding Instruments as part of a hedging transaction, "straddle," conversion transaction or other integrated transaction;
- U.S. Holders whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; or
- partnerships or other entities classified as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

This summary is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended to the date hereof (the "Code"), administrative pronouncements, judicial decisions and final, temporary and proposed U.S. Treasury Regulations, as of the day hereof, changes to any of which subsequent to the date of this Prospectus may affect the tax consequences described below. Persons considering the purchase of the Instruments should consult the relevant Final Terms for any additional discussion regarding U.S. federal income taxation and should consult their tax advisers with regard to the application of the U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local or non-U.S. taxing jurisdiction.

The tax treatment of certain Instruments, such as Index Linked Instruments, Undated Subordinated Instruments, FX Rate-Linked Instruments and Instruments that are not principal protected, may be specified in the relevant Drawdown Prospectus or Pricing Supplement. Moreover, this summary does not discuss Bearer Instruments. In general, U.S. federal income tax law imposes significant limitations on U.S. Holders of Bearer Instruments. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income and other tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and disposition of Bearer Instruments.

As used herein, the term "U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of an Instrument that is for United States federal income tax purposes:

- an individual that is a citizen or resident of the United States;
- a corporation created or organised in or under the laws of the United States or of any political subdivision thereof;
- an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or
- a trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

If an entity that is classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds Instruments, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. Partners of partnerships holding Instruments should consult with their tax advisers regarding the tax consequences of an investment in the Instruments.

Payments of Stated Interest

Interest paid on an Instrument will be taxable to a U.S. Holder as ordinary interest income at the time it accrues or is received in accordance with the Holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes, provided that the interest is "qualified stated interest" (as defined below). Interest income earned by a U.S. Holder with respect to an Instrument will constitute foreign source income for U.S. federal income tax purposes, which may be relevant in calculating the Holder's foreign tax credit limitation. The rules regarding foreign tax credits are complex and prospective investors should consult their tax advisers about the application of such rules to them in their particular circumstances. Special rules governing the treatment of interest paid with respect to original issue discount notes, exchangeable notes and foreign currency notes are described under "— Original Issue Discount," "— Contingent Payment Debt Instruments," and "— Foreign Currency Instruments."

Original Issue Discount

An Instrument that has an "issue price" that is less than its "stated redemption price at maturity" will be considered to have been issued at an original discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and will be referred to as an "original issue discount Instrument") unless the Instrument satisfies a de minimis threshold (as described below) or is a short-term Instrument (as defined below). The "issue price" of an Instrument generally will be the first price at which a substantial amount of the Instruments are sold to the public (which does not include sales to bond houses, brokers or similar persons or organisations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers). The "stated redemption price at maturity" of an Instrument generally will equal the sum of all payments required to be made under the Instrument other than payments of "qualified stated interest". "Qualified stated interest" is stated interest unconditionally payable (other than in debt Instruments of SEK) at least annually during the entire term of the Instrument and equal to the outstanding principal balance of the Instrument multiplied by a single fixed rate of interest. In addition, qualified stated interest includes, among other things, stated interest on a "variable rate debt instrument" that is unconditionally payable (other than in debt Instruments of SEK) at least annually at a single qualified floating rate of interest or at a rate that is determined at a single fixed formula that is based on objective financial or economic information. A rate is a qualified floating rate if variations in the rate can reasonably be expected to measure contemporaneous fluctuations in the cost of newly borrowed funds in the currency in which the Instrument is denominated.

If the difference between an Instrument's stated redemption price at maturity and its issue price is less than a de minimis amount, i.e., 1/4 of 1 per cent. of the stated redemption price at maturity multiplied by the number of complete years to maturity, the Instrument will not be considered to have original issue discount. U.S. Holders of Instruments with a de minimis amount of discount will include this discount in income, as capital gain, on a pro rata basis as principal payments are made on the Instrument.

A U.S. Holder of original discount Instruments will be required to include any qualified stated interest payments in income in accordance with the Holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes. U.S. Holders of original issue discount Instruments that mature more than one year from their date of issuance will be required to include original issue discount in income for U.S. federal tax purposes as it accrues in accordance with a constant yield method based on a compounding of interest, regardless of whether cash attributable to this income is received.

A U.S. Holder may make an election to include in gross income all interest that accrues on any Instrument (including stated interest, original issue discount, de minimis original issue discount, market discount, de minimis market discount and unstated interest, as adjusted by any amortizable bond premium or acquisition premium) in accordance with a constant yield method based on the compounding of interest, and may revoke such election only with the permission of the IRS (a "constant yield election").

A Instrument that matures one year or less from its date of issuance (a "short-term Instrument") will be treated as being issued at a discount and none of the interest paid on the Instrument will be treated as qualified stated interest. In general, a cash method U.S. Holder of a short-term Instrument is not required to accrue the discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes unless it elects to do so. Holders who so elect and certain other Holders, including those who report income on the accrual method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes, are required to include the discount in income as it accrues on a straightline basis, unless another election is made to accrue the discount according to a constant yield method based on daily compounding. In the case of a U.S. Holder who is not required and who does not elect to include the discount in income currently, any gain realised on the sale, exchange, or maturity of the short-term Instrument will be ordinary income to the extent of the discount accrued on a straightline basis (or, if elected, according to a constant yield method based on daily compounding) through the date of sale, exchange or maturity. In addition, those U.S. Holders will be required to defer deductions for any interest paid on indebtedness incurred to purchase or carry short-term Instruments in an amount not exceeding the accrued discount until the accrued discount is included in income.

SEK may have an unconditional option to redeem, or U.S. Holders may have an unconditional option to require SEK to redeem, an Instrument prior to its stated maturity date. Under applicable regulations, if SEK have an unconditional option to redeem an Instrument prior to its stated maturity date, this option will be presumed to be exercised if, by utilising any date on which the Instrument may be redeemed as the maturity date and the amount payable on that date in accordance with the terms of the Instrument as the stated redemption price at maturity, the yield on the Instrument would be lower than its yield to maturity. If the U.S. Holders have an unconditional option to require SEK to redeem an Instrument prior to its stated maturity date, this option will be presumed to be exercised if making the same assumptions as those set forth in the previous sentence, the yield on the Instrument would be higher than its yield to maturity. If this option is not in fact exercised, the Instrument would be treated solely for purposes of calculating original issue discount as if it were redeemed, and a new Instrument were issued, on the presumed exercise date for an amount equal to the Instrument's adjusted issue price on that date. The adjusted issue price of an original issue discount Instrument is defined as the sum of the issue price of the Instrument and the aggregate amount of previously accrued original issue discount, less any prior payments other than payments of qualified stated interest.

Market Discount

If a U.S. Holder purchases an Instrument (other than a short-term Instrument) for an amount that is less than its stated redemption price at maturity or, in the case of an original issue discount Instrument, its adjusted issue price, the amount of the difference will be treated as market discount for U.S. federal income tax purposes, unless this difference is less than a specified de minimis amount.

A U.S. Holder will be required to treat any principal payment (or, in the case of an original issue discount Instrument, any payment that does not constitute qualified stated interest) on, or any gain on the sale, exchange, maturity or other disposition of an Instrument, including disposition in certain nonrecognition transactions, as ordinary income to the extent of the market discount accrued on the Instrument at the time of the payment or disposition unless this market discount has been previously included in income by the U.S. Holder pursuant to an election by the Holder to include market discount in income as it accrues, or pursuant to a constant yield election by the Holder (as described under "— Original Issue Discount"). In addition, the U.S. Holder may be required to defer, until the maturity of the Instrument or its earlier disposition (including certain nontaxable transactions), the deduction of all or a portion of the interest expense on any indebtedness incurred or maintained to purchase or carry such Instrument.

If a U.S. Holder makes a constant yield election (as described under "— Original Issue Discount") for an Instrument with market discount, such election will result in a deemed election for all market discount bonds acquired by the Holder on or after the first day of the first taxable year to which such election applies.

Acquisition Premium and Amortisable Bond Premium

A U.S. Holder who purchases an Instrument for an amount that is greater than the Instrument's adjusted issue price but less than or equal to the sum of all amounts payable on the Instrument after the purchase date other than payments of qualified stated interest will be considered to have purchased the Instrument at an acquisition premium. Under the acquisition premium rules, the amount of original issue discount that the U.S. Holder must include in its gross income with respect to the Instrument for any taxable year will be reduced by the portion of acquisition premium properly allocable to that year.

If a U.S. Holder purchases an Instrument for an amount that is greater than the amount payable at maturity, or on the earlier call date, in the case of an Instrument that is redeemable at SEK's option, the Holder will be considered to have purchased the Instrument with amortisable bond premium equal in amount to the excess of the purchase price over the amount payable at maturity. The Holder may elect to amortise this premium, using a constant yield method, over the remaining term of the Instrument (where the Instrument is not optionally redeemable prior to its maturity date). If the Instrument may be optionally redeemed prior to maturity after the Holder has acquired it, the amount of amortisable bond premium is determined by substituting the call date for the maturity date and the call price for the amount payable at maturity only if the substitution results in a smaller amount of premium attributable to the period before the redemption date. A Holder who elects to amortise bond premium must reduce his tax basis in the Instrument by the amount of the premium amortised in any year. An election to amortise bond premium applies to all taxable debt obligations then owned and thereafter acquired by the Holder and may be revoked only with the consent of the IRS.

If a U.S. Holder makes a constant yield election (as described under "— Original Issue Discount") for an Instrument with amortisable bond premium, such election will result in a deemed election to amortise bond premium for all of the Holder's debt instruments with amortisable bond premium.

Sale, Exchange or Maturity of the Instruments

Upon the sale, exchange or maturity of an Instrument, a U.S. Holder will recognise taxable gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realised on the sale, exchange or maturity and the Holder's adjusted tax basis in the Instrument. A U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in an Instrument generally will equal the acquisition cost of the Instrument increased by the amount of original issue discount and market discount included in the Holder's gross income and decreased by the amount of any payment received from SEK other than a payment of qualified stated interest. Gain or loss, if any, will generally be U.S. source income for purposes of computing a U.S. Holder's foreign tax credit limitation. For these purposes, the amount realised does not include any amount attributable to accrued qualified stated interest on the Instrument. Amounts attributable to accrued qualified stated interest are treated as interest as described under "— Payments of Stated Interest."

Except as described below, gain or loss realised on the sale, exchange or maturity of an Instrument will generally be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if at the time of sale, exchange or maturity the Instrument has been held for more than one year. Exceptions to this general rule apply to the extent of any accrued market discount or, in the case of a short-term Instrument, to the extent of any accrued discount not previously included in the Holder's taxable income. See "— Original Issue Discount" and "— Market Discount". In addition, other exceptions to this general rule apply in the case of Foreign Currency Instruments, and contingent payment debt instruments. See "— Foreign Currency Instruments" and "— Contingent Payment Debt Instruments".

Contingent Payment Debt Instruments

If the terms of the Instruments provide for certain contingencies that affect the timing and amount of payments (including Instruments with a variable rate or rates that do not qualify as "variable rate debt instruments" for purposes of the original issue discount rules) they will be "contingent payment debt instruments" for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Under the rules that govern the treatment of contingent payment debt instruments, no payment on such Instruments qualifies as qualified stated interest. Rather, a U.S. Holder must account for interest for U.S. federal income tax purposes based on a "comparable yield" and the differences between actual payments on the Instrument and the Instrument's

"projected payment schedule" as described below. The comparable yield is determined by SEK at the time of issuance of the Instruments. The comparable yield may be greater than or less than the stated interest, if any, with respect to the Instruments. Solely for the purpose of determining the amount of interest income that a U.S. Holder will be required to accrue on a contingent payment debt instrument, SEK will be required to construct a "projected payment schedule" that represents a series of payments the amount and timing of which would produce a yield to maturity on the contingent payment debt instrument equal to the comparable yield.

Neither the comparable yield nor the projected payment schedule constitutes a representation by SEK regarding the actual amount, if any, that the contingent payment debt instrument will pay.

A U.S. Holder, regardless of the Holder's method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes, will be required to accrue interest income on a contingent payment debt instrument at the comparable yield, adjusted upward or downward to reflect the difference, if any, between the actual and the projected amount of any contingent payments on the contingent payment instrument (as set forth below).

A U.S. Holder will be required to recognise interest income equal to the amount of any net positive adjustment, i.e., the excess of actual payments over projected payments, in respect of a contingent payment debt instrument for a taxable year. A net negative adjustment, i.e., the excess of projected payments over actual payments, in respect of a contingent payment debt instrument for a taxable year:

- will first reduce the amount of interest in respect of the contingent payment debt instrument that a Holder would otherwise be required to include in income in the taxable year; and
- to the extent of any excess, will give rise to an ordinary loss equal to so much of this excess as does not exceed the excess of;
- the amount of all previous interest inclusions under the contingent payment debt instrument over
- the total amount of the U.S. Holder's net negative adjustments treated as ordinary loss on the contingent payment debt instrument in prior taxable years.

A net negative adjustment is not subject to the two per cent. floor limitation imposed on miscellaneous deductions. Any net negative adjustment in excess of the amounts described above will be carried forward to offset future interest income in respect of the contingent payment debt instrument or to reduce the amount realised on a sale, exchange or maturity of the contingent payment debt instrument. Where a U.S. Holder purchases a contingent payment debt instrument for a price other than its adjusted issue price, the difference between the purchase price and the adjusted issue price must be reasonably allocated to the daily portions of interest or projected payments with respect to the contingent payment debt instrument over its remaining term and treated as a positive or negative adjustment, as the case may be, with respect to each period to which it is allocated.

Upon a sale, exchange or maturity of a contingent payment debt instrument, a U.S. Holder generally will recognise taxable gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realised on the sale, exchange or maturity and the Holder's adjusted basis in the contingent payment debt instrument. A U.S. Holder's adjusted basis in an Instrument that is a contingent payment debt instrument generally will be the acquisition cost of the Instrument, increased by the interest previously accrued by the U.S. Holder on the Instrument under these rules, disregarding any net positive and net negative adjustments, and decreased by the amount of any non contingent payments and the projected amount of any contingent payments previously made on the Instrument. A U.S. Holder generally will treat any gain as interest income, and any loss as ordinary loss to the extent of the excess of previous interest inclusions in excess of the total net negative adjustments previously taken into account as ordinary losses, and the balance as capital loss. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

A U.S. Holder will have a tax basis in any property, other than cash, received upon the maturity of a contingent payment debt instrument including in satisfaction of a conversion right or a call right equal to the fair market value of the property, determined at the time of maturity. The Holder's holding period for the property will commence on the day immediately following its receipt.

Special rules apply to contingent payment debt instruments that are denominated, or provide for payments, in a currency other than the U.S. dollar ("Foreign Currency Contingent Debt Instruments").

Very generally, these Instruments are accounted for like a contingent debt instrument, as described above, but in the currency of the Foreign Currency Contingent Instruments. The relevant amounts must then be translated into U.S. dollar equivalents. The rules applicable to Foreign Currency Contingent Debt Instruments are complex and U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of such instruments.

Foreign Currency Instruments

The following discussion summarises the principal U.S. federal income tax consequences to a U.S. Holder of the ownership and disposition of Instruments that are denominated in a specified currency other than the U.S. dollar or the payments of interest or principal on which are payable in a currency other than the U.S. dollar ("Foreign Currency Instruments").

The rules applicable to Foreign Currency Instruments could require some or all gain or loss on the sale, exchange or other disposition of a Foreign Currency Instrument to be recharacterised as ordinary income or loss. The rules applicable to Foreign Currency Instruments are complex and may depend on the Holder's particular U.S. federal income tax situation. For example, various elections are available under these rules, and whether a Holder should make any of these elections may depend on the Holder's particular U.S. federal income tax situation. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisers regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the ownership and disposition of Foreign Currency Instruments.

A U.S. Holder who uses the cash method of accounting and who receives a payment of qualified stated interest in a foreign currency with respect to a Foreign Currency Instrument will be required to include in income the U.S. dollar value of the Foreign Currency payment (determined on the date the payment is received) regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted to U.S. dollars at the time, and this U.S. dollar value will be the U.S. Holder's tax basis in the foreign currency. A cash method Holder who receives a payment of qualified stated interest in U.S. dollars pursuant to an option available under such Instrument will be required to include the amount of this payment in income upon receipt.

An accrual method U.S. Holder will be required to include in income the U.S. dollar value of the amount of interest income (including original issue discount or market discount, but reduced by acquisition premium and amortisable bond premium, to the extent applicable) that has accrued and is otherwise required to be taken into account with respect to a Foreign Currency Instrument during an accrual period. The U.S. dollar value of the accrued income will be determined by translating the income at the average rate of exchange for the accrual period or, with respect to an accrual period that spans two taxable years, at the average rate for the partial period within the taxable year. The U.S. Holder will recognise ordinary income or loss with respect to accrued interest income on the date the income is actually received. The amount of ordinary income or loss recognised will equal the difference between the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency payment received (determined on the date the payment is received) in respect of the accrual period (or, where a Holder receives U.S. dollars, the amount of the payment in respect of the accrual period) and the U.S. dollar value of interest income that has accrued during the accrual period (as determined above). Rules similar to these rules apply in the case of a cash method taxpayer required to currently accrue original issue discount or market discount.

An accrual method U.S. Holder may elect to translate interest income (including original issue discount) into U.S. dollars at the spot rate on the last day of the interest accrual period (or, in the case of a partial accrual period, the spot rate on the last day of the accrual period in that taxable year) or, if the date of receipt is within five business days of the last day of the interest accrual period, the spot rate on the date of receipt. A U.S. Holder that makes this election must apply it consistently to all debt instruments from year to year and cannot change the election without the consent of the IRS.

Original issue discount, market discount, acquisition premium and amortisable bond premium on a Foreign Currency Instrument are to be determined in the relevant foreign currency. Where the taxpayer elects to include market discount in income currently, the amount of market discount will be determined for any accrual period in the relevant foreign currency and then translated into U.S. dollars on the basis of the average rate in effect during the accrual period. Exchange gain or loss realised with respect to such accrued market discount shall be determined in accordance with the rules relating to accrued interest described above.

If an election to amortise bond premium is made, amortisable bond premium taken into account on a current basis shall reduce interest income in units of the relevant foreign currency. Exchange gain or loss is realised on amortised bond premium with respect to any period by treating the bond premium amortised in the period in the same manner as on the sale, exchange or maturity of the Foreign Currency Instrument. Any exchange gain or loss will be ordinary income or loss as described below. If the election is not made, any loss realised on the sale, exchange or maturity of a Foreign Currency Instrument with amortisable bond premium by a U.S. Holder who has not elected to amortise the premium will be a capital loss to the extent of the bond premium.

A U.S. Holder's tax basis in a Foreign Currency Instrument, and the amount of any subsequent adjustment to the Holder's tax basis, will be the U.S. dollar value amount of the foreign currency amount paid for such Foreign Currency Instrument, or of the foreign currency amount of the adjustment, determined on the date of the purchase or adjustment. A U.S. Holder who purchases a Foreign Currency Instrument with previously owned foreign currency will recognise ordinary income or loss in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between such U.S. Holder's tax basis in the foreign currency and the U.S. dollar fair market value of the Foreign Currency Instrument on the date of purchase.

Gain or loss realised upon the sale, exchange or maturity of a Foreign Currency Instrument that is attributable to fluctuation in currency exchange rates will be ordinary income or loss which will not be treated as interest income or expense. Gain or loss attributable to fluctuations in exchange rates will equal the difference between (i) the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency principal amount of the Instrument, determined on the date the payment is received or the Instrument is disposed of, and (ii) the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency principal amount of the Instrument, determined on the date the U.S. Holder acquired the Instrument. Payments received attributable to accrued qualified stated interest will be treated in accordance with the rules applicable to payments of interest on Foreign Currency Instruments described above. The foreign currency gain or loss will be recognised only to the extent of the total gain or loss realised by the Holder on the sale, exchange or maturity of the Foreign Currency Instrument. The source of the foreign currency gain or loss will be determined by reference to the residence of the Holder or the "qualified business unit" of the Holder on whose books the Instrument is properly reflected. Any gain or loss realised by these Holders in excess of the foreign currency gain or loss will be capital gain or loss except to the extent of any accrued market discount or, in the case of short-term Instrument, to the extent of any discount not previously included in the Holder's income. Holders should consult their own tax adviser with respect to the tax consequences of receiving payments in a currency different from the currency in which payments with respect to such Instrument accrue.

A U.S. Holder will have a tax basis in any foreign currency received on the sale, exchange or maturity of a Foreign Currency Instrument equal to the U.S. dollar value of the foreign currency, determined at the time of sale, exchange or maturity. A cash method taxpayer who buys or sells a Foreign Currency Instrument that is traded on an established securities market translates units of foreign currency paid or received into U.S. dollars at the spot rate on the settlement date of the purchase or sale. Accordingly, no exchange gain or loss will result from currency fluctuations between the trade date and the settlement date of the purchase or sale. An accrual method taxpayer may elect the same treatment for all purchases and sales of foreign currency obligations traded on an established securities market. This election cannot be changed without the consent of the IRS. U.S. Holders of Instruments that are not traded on an established securities market and accrual method taxpayers that do not make the election with respect to Instruments that are, generally will recognise foreign currency gain or loss with respect to the difference in value of such currency between the settlement and trade dates of their purchase or sales. Any gain or loss realised by a U.S. Holder on a sale or other disposition of foreign currency (including its exchange for U.S. dollars or its use to purchase Foreign Currency Instruments) will be ordinary income or loss.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information returns may be filed with the IRS in connection with payments on the Instruments and the proceeds from a sale or other disposition of the Instruments. A U.S. Holder may be subject to U.S. backup withholding on these payments if it fails to provide its tax identification number to the paying agent and comply with certain certification procedures or otherwise establish an exemption from backup withholding. The amount of any backup withholding from a payment to a U.S. Holder will be allowed as a credit against the Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle them to a refund, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS.

A U.S. taxpayer that participates in a "reportable transaction" will be required to disclose its participation to the IRS. The scope and application of these rules is not entirely clear. A U.S. Holder may be required to treat a foreign currency exchange loss from the Instruments as a reportable transaction if the loss exceeds U.S.$50,000 in a single taxable year if the U.S. Holder is an individual or trust, or higher amounts for other U.S. Holders. In the event the acquisition, ownership or disposition of Instruments constitutes participation in a "reportable transaction" for purposes of these rules, a U.S. Holder will be required to disclose its investment by filing Form 8886 with the IRS. Prospective purchasers should consult their tax advisers regarding the application of these rules to the acquisition, ownership or disposition of Instruments.

U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisers regarding any additional tax reporting or filing requirements they may have as a result of acquiring, owning, or disposing of the Instruments.

The U.S. federal income tax discussion set forth above is included for general information only and may not be applicable depending upon a Holder's particular situation. Holders should consult their own tax advisers with respect to the tax consequences to them of the ownership and disposition of the Instruments, including the tax consequences under state, local, non-U.S. and other tax laws and the possible effects of changes in U.S. federal or other tax laws.

UNITED STATES EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN CONSIDERATIONS

The U.S. Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), imposes certain requirements on "employee benefit plans" (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) subject to Title I of ERISA, including entities such as collective investment funds and separate accounts whose underlying assets include the assets of such plans (collectively, "ERISA Plans") and on those persons who are fiduciaries with respect to ERISA Plans. Investments by ERISA Plans are subject to ERISA's general fiduciary requirements, including the requirement of investment prudence and diversification and the requirement that an ERISA Plan's investments be made in accordance with the documents governing the ERISA Plan.

Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") prohibit certain transactions involving the assets of an ERISA Plan (as well as those plans that are not subject to ERISA but which are subject to Section 4975 of the Code, such as individual retirement accounts (together with ERISA Plans, "Plans")) and certain persons (referred to as "parties in interest" or "disqualified persons") having certain relationships to such Plans, unless a statutory or administrative exemption is applicable to the transaction. To the extent a purchase of any Instrument (or an interest in a Instrument) by a Plan is permitted, prohibited transactions within the meaning of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code may arise if any Instruments are acquired by a Plan with respect to which any of SEK's, the Agents, the Arranger or the Dealers or any of their respective affiliates are a party in interest or a disqualified person. A party in interest or disqualified person who engages in a prohibited transaction may be subject to excise taxes and other penalties and liabilities under ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code. Certain exemptions from the prohibited transaction provisions of Section 406 of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code may be applicable, however, depending in part on the type of Plan fiduciary making the decision to acquire Instruments and the circumstances under which such decision is made. There can be no assurance that any exemption will be available with respect to any particular transaction involving the Instruments, or that, if an exemption is available, it will cover all aspects of any particular transaction.

Unless otherwise permitted pursuant to the Final Terms, a Plan may not purchase, hold or hold any interest in any Instruments. Each purchaser and transferee of any Instrument (and any interest therein), unless stated in the Final Terms, will be deemed to have represented and agreed that it is not and for so long as it holds an Instrument (or any interest therein) will not be a Benefit Plan Investor. If a purchaser or transferee of any Instrument is not a Benefit Plan Investor but is subject to any U.S. federal, state, local or non-U.S. law that is substantially similar to Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code ("Similar Law") then such purchaser or transferee will be deemed to represent and agree that such purchase is not in violation of any Similar Law.

Governmental plans and certain church and other plans, while not subject to the fiduciary responsibility provisions of ERISA or the prohibited transaction provisions of Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, may nevertheless be subject to state or other federal or non-U.S. laws that are substantially similar to ERISA and the Code. Fiduciaries of any such plans should consult with their counsel before purchasing any Instruments.

The foregoing discussion is general in nature and not intended to be all-inclusive. Any Plan fiduciary who proposes to cause a Plan to purchase any Instruments to the extent permitted in the Final Terms should consult with its counsel regarding the applicability of the fiduciary responsibility and prohibited transaction provisions of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Code to such an investment, and to confirm that such investment will not constitute or result in a non-exempt prohibited transaction or any other violation of an applicable requirement of ERISA.

- (l) does not use the legal or publicity names of the relevant Dealer, SEK or any other name, brand or logo registered by any entity within their respective groups or any material over which any such entity retains a proprietary interest or in any statements (oral or written), marketing material or documentation in relation to the Instruments;

- (n) ensure that no holder of Instruments or potential Investor in Instruments will become an indirect or direct client of SEK or the relevant Dealer(s) for the purposes of any applicable Rules from time to time, and to the extent that any client obligations are created by the relevant financial intermediary under any applicable Rules, then such financial intermediary shall perform any such obligations so arising;
- (o) co-operates with SEK and the relevant Dealer(s) in providing such information (including, without limitation, documents and records maintained pursuant to paragraph (h) above) upon written request from SEK or the relevant Dealer(s) as is available to such financial intermediary or which is within its power and control from time to time, together with such further assistance as is reasonably requested by SEK or the relevant Dealer(s):

- (r) will make available to each potential Investor in the Instruments this Base Prospectus, the applicable Final Terms and any other information materials provided by or on behalf of SEK for such purpose, and will not convey or publish any information that is not contained in or entirely consistent with this Base Prospectus as completed by the applicable Final Terms; and

2. Indemnity

The relevant financial intermediary agrees that if SEK incurs any liability, damages, cost, loss or expense (including, without limitation, legal fees, costs and expenses and any value added tax thereon) (a "Loss") arising out of, in connection with or based on any inaccuracy of any of the foregoing representations and warranties or any breach of any of the foregoing undertakings then the relevant financial intermediary shall pay to SEK on demand an amount equal to such Loss.

3. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

The relevant financial intermediary agrees that:

- (a) the contract between SEK and the financial intermediary formed upon acceptance by the financial intermediary of the offer of SEK to use this Base Prospectus with their consent in connection with the relevant Public Offer (the "Authorised Offeror Contract"), and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law;
- (b) the courts of England are to have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any disputes which may arise out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract (including a dispute relating to any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Authorised Offeror Contract) and accordingly the relevant financial intermediary submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts;
